Stavert-Paynter Wedding

A quiet but pretty wedding took place in Kensington on May 4, at 2.30 p. m., at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Gordon S. Stevens, when Miss Gladys Alberta Paynter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Paynter of Long River, became the bride of Mr. Albert Davis Stavert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stavert of Kensington.

The bride wore a street-length dress of blue taffeta, with navy accessories and was attended by her sister, Muriel, who wore pale blue with matching accessories.

The groom was attended by his brother, Walter. Following the ceremony, the happy couple motored to Summerside, where they had their photo taken, and later had their supper at the Olympia. Then later in the evening, they motored to the home of the bride's parents.

Prior to the marriage, the bride-to-be was tendered a miscellaneous shower at Long River Hall. While the bride-to-be was being escorted to the seat of honor by her sister Muriel, appropriate music was played by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ernest Dunning.

The heavily-laden basket of gifts was carried in by the bride's sister, Joan and cousin Shirley Paynter.

The gifts were opened by the Misses Jane Fletcher and Earith Dunning.

While the accompanying names and good wishes were read by Miss Margaret Campbell, the gifts were arranged on the table by the Misses Jean MacLeod and Evelyn Bernard.

The bride-elect graciously thanked her friends and all joined in singing, 'For She's a Jolly Good Fellow". A delicious lunch was served.
