W. M. S. MEETING — The W. M. S. of the Kensington United Church held their regular monthly meeting in the ladies parlor on Thursday evening with a good attendance. Meeting opened by singing hymn 376, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," followed by reading of scripture by Mrs. H. Laird. Prayer was offered by Mrs. W. C. McLeod. Mrs. Jas. Warren then sang a solo which was much enjoyed. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. It was decided to organize a mission circle, leader to be Mrs. Harold Laird, assisted by Mrs. D. McKenzie. Annual reports were ordered, dues collected and date set for quilting and mission quilts. Several ladies then took part in a very interesting and instructive discussion on temperance. Meeting closed by singing hymn 400 and repeating the Mizpah benediction in unison.

Summerside Lad Passes Suddenly

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green of Summerside in the rather sudden death of their only child Davis at the early age of 15 years.

Davis had attended school on Wednesday and had appeared to be quite well, after school he had helped mark out the ball grounds for a junior game. After he arrived home he complained of not feeling well and became so much worse on Thursday that the doctor was sent for. But the young lad was stricken with a fatal illness and was beyond medical assistance. All that could possibly be done was done but without avail.

Davis was in Grade 10 and was very bright and intelligent. Only on Tuesday he had written the arithmetic examination and had made exceptionally high marks. He was a general favorite with his classmates, who will be grieved to learn of his passing.

The funeral will be private from the home this afternoon at four o'clock. Rev. Mr. MacCleary officiating.—S ator W. E. Borah, the "Lion of Idaho" met the press. Would he vote for Landon? Even as in 1932, when the question of whether he would ballot for Herbert Hoover was dinned in his ears throughout the campaign he declined to say.

KNOX SELECTED

In two specific particulars the Kansan reserved a right to disagree with points for which Borah had successfully fought.

Borah today said Landon's stand was "not clear" to him. But the fact nevertheless remained that the party's nominee declared himself—provisionally—for a dollar convertible into gold and a constitutional amendment to facilitate state wage and hour legislation.

Wide And Varied Career

CHICAGO, June 12—Col. Frank Knox, Chicago Daily News publisher selected today as Republican vice-presidential nominee is a former rough rider devoted, like "T. R." Roosevelt, the idol of his youth, to "the strenuous life."

Knox has been a soldier, a businessman, a political leader and a crusading editor. He is 62 years old.

He went to Cuba in the Spanish American war with a regiment famous for reckless daring. In the Great War, his chosen job was commanding an ammunition train, dealing with mules and explosives.

He was one of "Teddy" Roosevelt's right hand men in the stormy "Bull Moose" campaign of 1912 when Teddy broke from the Republican party, formed his Progressive group and fought Woodrow Wilson and W. H. Taft.

Since August 12, 1931, Col. Knox has been editor and publisher of The News.

He came to Chicago from Manchester, N. H., where he is the co-proprietor of two papers, the "Leader" and "Union."

Immediate Action

TOPEKA, Kas., June 12—Vigorous and outspoken, Gov. Alf M. Landon topped his first day as the Republican nominee for the United States presidency by asserting tonight that "I favor an immediate move on the enemy."

Casting aside the reticence which characterized his pre-convention attitude he said he and Knox would meet with a subcommittee to "plan for the campaign."

Asked if he expected to move on "the enemy country" Landon smiled and replied:

"Yes—but I'd like a definition of the enemy territory."

Senate Adopts Harbors Board Bill Report

OTTAWA, June 12—The Senate today adopted the report of its banking and commerce committee recommending amendments to the Government's national harbors board bill and the measure will appear for third reading next Monday night.

The committee recommended numerous amendments, chief among which were insertion of clauses providing that local advisory boards "may" be appointed at individual harbors, defining duties of local port managers, placing harbor staffs under jurisdiction of the Civil Service Commission and providing that tenders must be opened publicly at Ottawa.

CLAIM SOVIET

Nationalities, selected by the present indirect system.

These two bodies will elect a board of 31 officials to run the government. The chairman of this board would be equivalent to the president of a republic.

The constitution, drawn under the direction of Joseph Stalin, will be acted upon finally Nov. 25 by the all-Union Congress of Soviets.

The constitution guarantees protection for private property, suffrage for all citizens more than 18 years old, regardless of race, sex, religious belief, and previous activities or property ownership.

The Communist Party will be retained as the only recognized political organization.

What part Joseph Stalin, Dictator of the Soviet Union, would take in the revamped form of government when it becomes operative remained indetermined. Official sources said they had no information on this question.

The Supreme Councils will have the powers of declaring war, enacting legislation, appointing or removing executive officers of the government, and of ratifying international agreements.

Economy Trips Prove Popular

(Special to the Guardian)

MONCTON, N. B., June 12—There was considerable passenger travel by Canadian National trains in the East today with three of the popular bargain fare coach excursions being operated, one from stations in the province of New Brunswick to Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto, also Quebec City and Three Rivers, Que.; and two from stations in all three Maritime Provinces, one to Saint John, N. B., and the other to New Glasgow, N. S. In addition were students from St. Joseph's College, St. Joseph's, N. B., and Netherwood School for Girls at Rothesay, N. B., returning to their homes following closing exercises.

In connection with the coach excursions, providing as they do for generous return limits, these economy trips are enabling people to pay week-end visits to their relatives and friends and many are taking advantage of the low fares offered for that purpose, according to R. J. S. Weatherston, general freight and passenger agent of the railway here. Fraternal and other organizations are also using them to make visits to other lodges and like societies or clubs, Mr. Weatherston said.

Leaving Montreal today is a similar excursion to stations in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, also to stations in the province of Quebec, Riviere du Loup and east, including the Gaspe Peninsula.

United Church Faces Shortage Of Candidates

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

TORONTO, June 12—The United Church of Canada faces a serious shortage of candidates for the ministry Rev. Dr. Richard Davidson, principal of Emmanuel College, told the Toronto conference of the church today.

Since church union, he said, 762 men have entered the ministry in Toronto conference while 1,048 have retired from active work. About 40 ministers could be placed immediately in rural parts of the Prairie Provinces.

W. H. Thompson Appt'd Freight Traffic Manager

(Special to the Guardian)

MONTREAL, Que., June 12—The appointment of W. H. Thompson to the position of freight traffic manager, Canadian National Steamships, with office at Montreal, is announced today by Captain E. E. Tedford, general manager of the company. Mr. Thompson was formerly general agent at Toronto and now succeeds F. G. Wood, who resigned to accept the position of general manager of the Montreal Australian New Zealand Line Ltd. Captain Tedford also announces that A. Hector, heretofore travelling freight representative for the company at Toronto, will succeed Mr. Thompson as general agent of the Ontario territory.

TORONTO, Ont., June 12—Approved by W. A. Kingsland, vice-president of the Canadian National Railways, central region, F. L. C. Bond, general manager, announces the appointment of John Walter Wardlaw, formerly superintendent of the freight train service, Montreal, to be general superintendent of transportation for the region with headquarters at Toronto. Mr. Wardlaw succeeds J. F. Pringle, whose recent appointment was announced as general superintendent of the Southern Ontario districts.

Senator's First Baseman Fined $100

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WASHINGTON, June 12—Joe Kuhel, Washington's first baseman, was fined $100 by President Clark Griffith today for an attempted attack on three local sports writers after yesterday's game with Chicago White Sox.

The incident grew out of the scoring of a play in which Rip Radcliffe, Chicago outfielder, was ruled safe at first in yesterday's game. The official scorer scored it as an error at first, under the impression Umpire Moriarity called the runner safe because Kuhel's foot was off the bag. Later, after Moriarity explained this was not the case, Radcliffe was credited with a hit.

After the game Kuhel attempted to attack Richard McCann of the News and Francis Stan of the Evening Star in the dressing room, but was restrained by Manager Bucky Harris. Later Kuhel encountered Shirley Povich of the Post on a parking lot near the stadium.

In Memoriam

MR. MURDOCK McKENZIE

There passed away to the eternal home beyond, on March 18th, Mr. Murdock McKenzie in his 88th year. Mr. McKenzie was born at Glen Valley, P. E. Island of old Presbyterian stock from the land of the heather, and knew all the pioneering hardships of the early days. His chances for an early education were meagre, but later in life he learned to read and his main text book was the Bible. Storing his mind with its precious truths and basing his hope of eternal life upon the promises of God, in Jesus Christ. His faith in God as his Heavenly Father could not be shaken and the psalms and pharaphrases were to him the inspiring notes of Heaven's melodies.

He had been a shut in for years, failing sight and later complete blindness made him a prisoner, but the inward vision was always clear, and he often said to his Pastor, "The light in my soul is greater than the light of the sun, and my Saviour's presence keeps me from getting lonely."

Only a few days in bed and the end came peacefully, the earthly house fell and the Spirit moved to become a tenant of the house immortal. The funeral was held in the Presbyterian Church at Bradalbane and largely attended, his pastor and friend Rev. Dr. Genge officiating, who stressed the value and blessing of faith in God. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, who through the weary years and hours ministered to his weakness and growing needs, five daughters in the United States, one daughter in Charlottetown, one son in Boston, and one soldier boy in France who made the supreme sacrifice.

Fresh Mounts For British Polo Team

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, June 12—Reinforced by new ponies, Great Britain's hard-riding polo players take the field tomorrow confident they can square the international series with the United States and force the issue into a third and decisive contest.

An "SOS" for speedy mounts, for which British backers literally have been raking the Empire, led to offers of more than 100 ponies in contrast to the 50 the Americans brought overseas in defence of the Westchester Cup.

Great Britain's stubborn fight in holding the United States to a 10-9 score in the first match of the series Wednesday, plus the recruiting of fresh mounts, contrived to shorten the odds for the second contest to 5-4 with the United States on the long end. Odds on the series, however, favored the cup defenders at 3-1.

In Ottawa

OTTAWA, June 12 — Tenders have been accepted for the full amount of $20,000,000 Dominion of Canada treasury bills due Sept. 15, it was announced today on behalf of Finance Minister Dunning.

The average discount price of the accepted bids was $99.78912 and the average yield was .838 per cent.

First reading was given in the House of Commons today to a bill restoring the firm of George A. Touche and Company of Montreal as auditors of the Canadian National Railways. This company which for many years carried on a continuous audit of the Canadian National system, was replaced last year by the Toronto firm of Clarkson, Dilworth. That move was strenuously opposed by the Liberal group in the House last session.

A government bill amending the Canada Shipping Act passed through the House of Commons tonight. It made technical changes in the act which was passed in 1934 although never proclaimed.

A clause in the bill limiting to $300 the civil liability of pilots for damages arising out of negligence was ultra vires according to Conservative leader Bennett and D. A. Cameron (Lib., Cape Breton-North Victoria). They said it was an attempt to legislate on property and civil rights and would not be effective as only the provinces could legislate to restrict civil liability. Marine Minister Howe said pilots were engaged in a hazardous occupation and received small fees. They should not be required to risk their whole fortunes on the possibility of accidents. Mr. Bennett said he agreed with the principle but thought the clause would be useless.

Decision of the Supreme Court on the eight statutes passed by the last Parliament as a part of the so-called reform program, will be rendered at 2.30 Wednesday afternoon, June 17, it was announced today. The legislation was referred to the judges for a test of their constitutional validity soon after the present government took office, and the hearing was in January last.

The House of Commons was travelling along in high gear today, sending four government bills to the Senate for final ratification and accepting amendments to two others originating in the Senate. It was the biggest day's work so far this session. The Senate amendments, all minor, related to the customs tariff and revenue sections of the Dunning budget and were accepted by the House. The excise changes in the budget were sent to the Senate after third reading. Then followed a bill concerning election lists at by-elections but a companion bill was held up. Next, the government was empowered to sell or convert bonds to a maximum of $750,000,000, a more or less formal authority. The fourth bill to pass amended the Combines Act, stipulating that documents used in an investigation by a registrar could be used in criminal trials.

Hungerford Unimpeded In Work, Claim

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

OTTAWA, June 12—In running the Canadian National Railways as operating officer S. J. Hungerford had been unimpeded in any way, shape or form, C. P. Fullerton, chairman of the board of trustees of the C. N. R., told the Senate railway committee today.

The committee was studying the Government legislation to place the C. N. R. under a board of directors.

The departments Mr. Fullerton took over were not of an operating character, he said, except the steamships which had no connection with the railway. He took over the hotel system which had been in the red before last year.

Dealing with his reported disagreement with the former Government, Mr. Fullerton said it was over a small thing he had refused to do because he considered it interference with the railway management. He took the position from the start that the board was responsible to Parliament alone and not to the Government.

The committee late today approved all but two of the clauses in the measure.

Main provision of the legislation to substitute a directorship of seven for the present trustee board of three was among those approved. There was no vote.

Mrs. Mulqueen Wins Ontario Golf Title

TORONTO, June 12—Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen, a veteran campaigner, realized an ambition of long standing today by winning the women's Ontario golf championship. She defeated Mrs. J. A. McDougald, a clubmate at the Toronto Golf Club, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Mulqueen's coolness and steady golf won her the championship as her opponent got into difficulties in the 18-hole struggle on the suburban Thornhill course.

Trying to recapture the Ontario crown she held in 1929, Mrs. McDougald ran into hard luck right at the start. Her game went to pieces in the first nine and she conceded four holes, Mrs. Mulqueen making the turn four up with a medal score of 38, one over par.
