Mariners Edge All-Stars; Final Game Goes Tonight

The Main Brace Mariners and the National Park All-Stars will play a sudden death game this evening to decide who will advance against the B.I.S. Shamrocks for the City Softball League Title.

This came about as a result of last night's game which saw the Mariners, who were tottering on the brink of elimination come up with a thrilling 3-1 victory.

Lloyd 'Teet' Gregory, the ace of the Mariners' pitching staff was called upon again last night and came up with a great game He was the losing pitcher in Tuesday's contest when the Park team came up with a 5-1 win.

Frank Bradley, pitched a masterful game for the Park boys but his team just couldn't come up with any good innings against Gregory.

The All-Stars held the lead early in the game as a result of a market picked up in the second inning when they got to Gregory for three hits. L. Misener was the Park player who crossed the plate after being sent around on hits by Maurice Fitz-Patrick and Mitchell.

This lead lasted until the third, when the winners picked up one run to tie the game. Up until this time Bradley had hurled no-hit ball and then Merle Longaphie reached him for a double and Joe LeClair sent him home with another two-bagger.

In the fifth frame, the Mariners went ahead for good when they scored another single tally. This one came without the benefit of a hit and gave the winners a lead that they never surrendered.

They picked up another insurance marker in the sixth frame on singles by Mark Ladner, Lloyd Gregory and Mike O'Brien to put the game out of reach.

Three Double Dash Wins; Dead Heat In S'side Card

One of the season's best crowds turned out at Summerside Raceway last evening and were rewarded by a number of close, exciting finishes. The closest was Victory Scott,s stretch drive to nip Cadillac Golddust by a whisker at the wire, in the fourth race.

In the third dash Mr. Gallon and Jolly Lass placed third in a dead heat. There were three double dash winners, Dacio Dale, Norah Annway, and Victory Scott. The 13 year old Scott horse went the fastest mile of the evening in the eighth dash with a time of 2.07 4-5. Dacio Dale took a new record of 2.11 1-5 in her second dash. For her two winning efforts, she was presented with a cooler donated by Andy and Clovie Perry, proprietors of Andy's two restaurants. The Daily Double on the first two dashes with Roger Parley and Dacio Dale as winners paid $151.40. The second Daily Double,, featuring Dagio Dale and Noroh Annway as winners paid $45.90. The Quinella paid $18.50 with Norah Annway and Arturo Hanover finishing one-two, and the exactor was worth $37.30 with Eyre Don winning and Country Mile placing. # Dodgers Capture Loop's Top Spot

The Dodgers came up with 6 runs in the sixth inning last night to overcome a 3-0 Flyer lead and went on to take a 6-3 baseball league victory. The win moved the Dodgers into first place in the league.

Len Ellsworth was on the mound for the winners, giving up a total of four hits. He walked five and struck out four.

His mound opponent was Carl MacQuaid. He was touched for seven hits. He fanned five and issued five free passes.

Ellsworth survived a rather shakey first inning when the losers picked up all three of their runs. The first batter in this inning, third-baseman Freddie MacDonald walked and was moved around by a single by Bill Sherry. Len Baglole then received the second walk of the game and Forbie Kennedy also received a free pass and after Jim Duffy was retired MacQuaid came through with a booming two-bagger, Mike Doyle picked up the fourth walk of Ellsworth but then MacDougall hit into a quick-double play to end the inning.

The Dodgers were held off the scoresheet until the sixth by MacQuaid who set them down with only two hits up until that time.

Wayne MacDougall, singled to start the rally for the winners and Bobby Rice came through with another single. MacDonald was retired, Pat Walsh walked and Roger Goss struck before Len Ellsworth reached on an error. Sherren then kept things going with a single and after McClintock walked Irv MacKinnon singled. MacDougall up for the second time in the innings reached on an error before Rice struck out to end the inning .All told the Dodgers had collected six big runs on only four hits. This made the score 6-3 in their less ball for the remaining three favor. Both teams played scoreinnings.

Tonight's action sees the Rovers and Dodgers play at 6:15.

Father And Sons

NEXT Monday night when the Old Home Week racing swings into action, fans will see a father and two sons in their battling for top honors.

We are referring to Cyril Smith and sons Clarke and Elmer. Cyril will be reining Tammany Hall, Clarke will be up behind Don's Star and Elmer will do the piloting on Edgewood Scott. All three horses are highly regarded and each has shown plenty of ability already this season.

Folks will remember it was Tammany Hall that surprised with a double dash triumph in The Evening Patriot Inaugural. Clarke was doing the driving that night and Tammany showed his first dash triumph was no fluke by easily taking the final trip. At Summerside during Lobster Carnival Week, Tammany Hall again upset the experts by copping the final dash of the $2500 feature. Tammany Hall was fourth in the first outing that night won by Dominion Byrd.

Don's Star is a newcomer to Maritime tracks. He raced at Halifax after a long haul from Maine and didn't get any of the big money. However, Clarke will be trying this time to outfoot the field and earn himself an inviation into The Gold Cup and Saucer battle next Friday evening.

Edgewood Scott, driven by Elmer, was second to Bob Brook in his winning efforts at Sackville Downs. That rates him pretty fair and folks know that Elmer will get the best out of his pacer. Remember a couple of years ago Elmer won the Monday night feature with Sym's Best and then came back Friday to grab the Gold Cup and Saucer with War Cry Ranger.

Quite A Racing Family

THE Smith family has surely proved itself in harness racing circles. Father and sons have come back for the winning introduction on many occasions. They give their pacers and trotters good drives and pari-mutuel bettors get their value out of their tickets.

It will be quite a treat to see the father and two sons fight it out on Monday night. They will try their mightiest to bring their own particular pacer home a winner. There will be a keen family rivalry in this big one and other members of the Smith family will have a tough time deciding for whom to cheer.

WE'RE badly rushed for time with this column today and therefore don't intend to get into the pros and cons of the National League pennant race. All we know is that the Los Angeles Dodgers aren't doing too bad at all of late and their pitching is doing plenty to bring smiles to Dodgers' supporters.

If they can keep up these good performances, it should be the Dodgers and Yankees in the world series.

Big Racing Card Is Going Tonight

Another great harness racing program awaits Charlottetown Driving Park customers tonight.

This is an eight-dash menu and it has the appearances of a crowd-pleaser all the way. Every one of the eight dashes is chalked full of excitement and double dash victors could well be a minus quantity tonight.

In races three and seven, six outstanding pacers are getting the word. Lee Taylor's great favorite, Armond's Buddy, is on the rail with Don MacNeill doing the reining. Opposing the Buddy are Miss Cool Eyes, Sky Prince, Duration, Jolly Abb and True Long. These dashes surely should be hard fought and mutuel bettors picking the winners should be well rewarded.

Dashes four and eight look like rough ones to 'pick'. Here Joe Hennessey has the rail with Torrid Waters. Seven others are after the top spot. They are Helen's Dream, Garth's Best, Miss Fury, Jolly Dick, Chief's Gal, Mary Leah and Lizzie Clegg.

The entire show shapes up like of the season's top attractions.

First dash goes at 8 sharp.

Wheeler Is New Champ

Dunc Wheeler, MacKenzie's pepperpot catcher, won the Prince County softball batting championship this year, succeeding Gord Wilkinson who was traded from the Enman Drug team in mid-season and now also plays with MacKenzies. Wilkinson batted only .270 and doubtless his conversion to a pitcher by the MacKenzie management contributed to his lapse in batting as he did not play regularly. But Dunc, the new champ, is certainly a free wheeler when he hits the base paths. With arms and legs flailing, he looks as if he might break the sound barrier, and he does get down to first about as fast as anyone of the boys. This, coupled with the fact that he seems to have a special knack of playing the ball where it is most inconvenient to field makes him a difficult batter to get out. He gets a lot of scratch bingles, but he is no stranger to extra-base blows. Of his 20 hits, three were doubles, one, a triple, and four, home runs.

Willard Doucette, the runner up in this year's batting derby, specializes in infield hits. He takes advantage of his speed, and quick get-away. All his 13 hits were singles. Coke Grady, the third man in line had 18 hits, consisting pf 11 singles, 5 doubles, one triple, and one home run. A pair of Jacks led the power-hitting parade. John Poirier, Enman Drug right fielder had 7 home runs and 4 doubles out of 20 hits. John McLaren, RCAF shortstop, belt-6 home runs, one triple, and three doubles out of 21 hits.

Saga Of No-Hit Bobby

Listen to the saga of Bobby Gallant, who hitch-hiked from Kensington to Summerside to pitch a little league game for Kinsmen. He allowed no hits for six innings, but the opposing team, the Legion, had scored a run on errors and such like, and with the score 1-1, the game went into an extra inning. Right there, a little league regulation, drafted to protect young pitchers from over-exertion, to the effect that a pitcher can work only six frames, tripped Bobby up. He was forced to retire, and Legion won 2-1. Since there is such a regulation, we think a pitcher allowing no hits for six innings should get credit in the books for a no-hitter. He pitched as long as the law allows, and nary a bingle was rapped off his offerings. What more can you expect of a law-abiding citizen? So we salute you, Bobby "No-Hit" Gallant. That's a better nickname than "Bobby, the Kid" or "Baby-Faced Bobby" which you might have been called, had you broken the law.

Behind The Eight-Ball

Charlottetown and Summerside baseball teams clash this year in Little League, Bantam, Juvenile, Junior, and Intermediate, and in every instance the final two games are to be played in Charlottetown. We're not finding fault with these arrangements, but it really puts Summerside behind the eight-ball, and any Island championship they won will be a little harder to earn, and deserving of our warmest praise. There are two ways of deciding home-game preference, and frankly we don't know which way our local AAU of C. follows. You can give the odd game to each centre alternately, or you can give it to the team which won the previous year, in many sports a common custom, of which we never did approve. We have not thought much about it but seems to us if they'd let the horse that finished last have the poll, and reverse the starting in that order, we'd have much more exciting races. Even the horse will be snickering in the stables when they hear that one, but what would be the objections to such an arrangement?

ASKS FOR UNION

COLOGNE, West Germany (Reuters) — The president of the European Common Market commission, Walter Hallstein, Thursday called on Europe to enter into a partnership with the United States. Hallstein said: "Partnership with the United States means a new and big chance and a new and big responsibility."
