

POINT DE ROCHE

Mr. John Feehan, Point de Roche, has returned home after spending two weeks visiting in Barrie, Ontario with son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Feehan.

The waters of Savage Harbour, noted as one of the really great fishing grounds on the Atlantic coast, have over the years played host to thousands of fishermen while the nearby canneries have provided profitable employment.

It has been said that those who live for a long time along the North Shore, develop a love and affection for the country and its people that neither time nor distance can erase.

To keep you up to date on the happenings at Savage Harbour, the writer has prepared for you this year's list of owners followed by their helpers: Temple Murphy, Charles Murphy, Lorne MacMillan; John D. MacInnis Jr., John D. MacInnis Sr., Earle Doyle; Joe Mackay; Charles McLellan; Jimmy MacKay; Richard Doyle; Tommy Campbell; Robert Pigot; Robert Johnson; Sterling Pigot; Allen Doyle; Ralph Pigot; Peter Doyle; Desmond Doyle; Leonard Doyle; George Feehan; Thomas Smith; Mike MacKenna; Oliver Smith; Ruel McCormack. Also Hugh John MacPherson; Angus MacPhee; Alex. McEachern; Art. Birn; Allen Tranter; Dee MacDonald; Abbie MacIntyre; Frank Jay-Miles Cheverie; Leigh Coffin; George and Leman Laybott; Charles Campbell; Harold Douglas and Reuben McInnis; Auldrie Jarvis; Ben McCormack.

The fishery patrol boat is under the command of Wendell Glover with Jack Watts as assistant.

The cookhouse is under the management of Mrs. Harold Douglas, and Mrs. Frank Kelly is her able assistant.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of the late Fred Laird, His funeral which was held from his late residence was largely attended.

Twelve pupils constitute the largest attendance in ten years at Point de Roche. The School, however is gradually slipping back. Two young ladies, Mary MacInnis, Grade 2, and Joan McInnis, Grade 3, plan on taking the next two months in Savage Harbour School. Another pupil has gone to seek employment. With three students preparing for the coming entrance examinations in June, the sixty four dollar question remains. Will our school run again?

Mr. Mike Doyle, Point de Roche, has been employed for the past several weeks with Mr. Pius MacDonald, Mount Stewart.

Mrs. Barbara Doyle, Savage Harbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frances MacDonald and son Bernard, of Mount Stewart, are at the present visiting at Niagara Falls, Ontario, with Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Sanderson.

Mrs. Gerald Reid, Summerside, is at the present spending an enjoyable holiday at Savage Harbour.

Miss Catherine MacKenna has returned to her home in Borden after spending a week in Mount Stewart at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellis.
