Opens New Business In Montague

The residents of Montague welcome to their midst Mr. and Mrs. James Cudmore, formerly of Charlottetown, who moved to Montague last week where Mr. Cudmore has opened a new Purina feed business in the former Central Garage.

Mrs. Cudmore, formerly Evelyn Cunningham, is a native of the Town, having lived here all her life before moving to the City, and she is now afforded the opportunity of renewing many old acquaintances.

Mr. Cudmore brings with his new business a vast knowledge gained through many years experience in the field of buying and selling, having started his career in the clothing business with Harry A. MacDougall, Charlottetown, with whom he worked for seven years. He then worked with Moore and McLeod for two years, after which he joined the Canadian Fire Corps, and served overseas for three years, returning to Charlottetown in 1945. He was also associated with Walter M. Bears, manufacturer's agent, for two years, then with Sidney T. Green, wholesale confectioner for three years.

Last year he joined the sales staff of the Ralston Purina Company and has acquired a wide knowledge of all Purina feeds, the nutritional mixtures of different feeds and their effects on the growth and development of livestock and poultry.

Plowing Match Ass'n Annual Meeting Held

Mr. Leslie Hunter, Bridgetown was re-elected president of the P. E. I. Plowing Match and Agricultural Fair Association at the annual meeting held in the Bridgetown hall last night.

Following the usual regular business, the following directors were appointed: Louis FitzPatrick, Woodville Mills; Louis Campbell, Dr. Gros Marsh; John A. MacDonald, Cardigan; Alex. Hamilton, New Perth; W. B. Creed, Highfield; Clement MacDonald, Primrose; John MacLeod, Strathcona; John Judson, Upton; Robin Clay, Bridgetown; F. W. Clay, Bridgetown; Wallace MacKenzie, Bridgetown; Douglas Matheson, Albion Cross; Nell Nicholson Sr., Albion Cross; and Wilber Wood, Cumberland Hill. Mr. Albert Acorn was re-elected secretary for the ensuing year.

The sport committee, John A. MacDonald, Cardigan; and Eugene Delory, Georgetown, was re-appointed. Considerable discussion took place regarding the erection of buildings on the grounds, and it was decided to enlarge the present handicraft building to provide more space for exhibitors.

The members were interested in having as a member on the directors a representative in each of the counties of Queen's and Prince. The requirements, it was stated, was the purchasing of one share in the association. It was felt that this would give representation to the whole island in the Provincial Association.

The meeting concluded with a brief discussion of tentative plans for the plowing match next year.
