Runnerup Spot Is Uncertain In NHL

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
The chief question in the National Hockey League this season appears to be which club will finish second.

First place has all but been conceded to Montreal Canadiens, Stanley Cup champions for four years and another powerhouse outfit again for 1959-60.

Six games are on tap this weekend which should provide some clues to the problem. In the opening games of the season this week Chicago Black Hawks downed New York Rangers 5-2 and the Montrealers dumped Boston Bruins 4-1.

Tonight Detroit Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs make their season's debut, Detroit moving into Montreal and Toronto at home to Chicago. The other game has Rangers at Boston.

THREE GAMES
Sunday night Montreal is at Boston, Toronto goes to Chicago and New York visits Detroit.

Much of the weekend interest centres on the Toronto-Chicago series where some rough and tough hockey is expected. The clubs met twice during exhibition tours, Leafs winning one and tying the second.

During that second game, 29 penalties were handed out including two match penalties, two majors and a misconduct. The main episode was a stick-swinging duel between Ed Litzenberger of Chicago and Toronto's Marc Reaume.

Rodriguez, Clay Fight To Draw

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Kid Sisto Rodriguez, unranked California light heavyweight, held highly-favored Vor Clay of Philadelphia to a 10-round draw Friday night in a televised boxing match. Each fighter weighed 172 pounds.

The unbeaten 20-year-old Philadelphia carried a record of 10 victories—eight by knockouts—and one draw into the fight.

Clay was a 13-0-5 favorite over the native Puerto Rican who was rushed into the fight last week as a replacement for Jesse Bowdry, St. Louis light heavyweight who pulled out because of a virus attack.

Judge James Mina scored the fight 46-45 for Von Clay while referee Dave Beloff carded it 46-44 in favor of Rodriguez. Judge Jack Stille gave each fighter 45 points. The Associated Press had the Californian a 46-43 victor.

Rodriguez, California's state champion, forced the Philadelphia inside through most of the fight. Rodriguez confined his attack to the body, keeping Clay off balance, either by tying him up after left-right combination punches or moving away quickly.

Rodriguez, beaten only once in 26 previous fights, landed the best punch of the night in the fifth round when he staggered Clay with a right to the face. Later he drew blood from the Philadelphia's nose. The Puerto Rican was unmarked. There were no knockdowns.

Right Time Cops Jubilee Stake

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—Right Time, an aptly named bay colt, held on gamely in the stretch Friday night to win the $30,738.65 Jubilee Stake for three-year-old pacers at Roosevelt Raceway by a nose over heavily favored Meadow AI.

Driver John Patterson rushed Right Time into the lead at the quarter and never was headed during the 2:43 2/5 mile.

Meadow AI, driven by Joe O'Brien of Alberton, P.E.I., was the 3-10 favorite with a crowd of 24,592. He challenged the pacesetter passing the three-quarter pole.

Right Time responded to Patterson's urging and blazed a 29 1/5 second final quarter that Meadow AI couldn't match in the closing strides.

The winner, owned by Byron Kuth, Chesterland, Ohio, recorded his third straight win and the seventh in 23 seasonal outings. The side-wheeler's 1959 earnings climbed to $61,974.33.

Right Time, second choice in the betting, returned $11.40, $2.50 and $2.00. Meadow AI's payouts were $2.20 and $2.20. Third place finisher Chancey Farvel paid $3.70. Butch Harmony wound up fourth, followed by Edgewood Arbitrator, Canadian Invader, Dares Direct, and Glenville.

Argos, Als Face Big Test In Weekend Competitions

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

The big Thanksgiving football weekend is in sight but not till the final guns sound Monday afternoon will Big Four players and fans know what, if anything, they have to be thankful for.

The traditional home-and-home series sees Montreal Alouettes and Ottawa Rough Riders hard at it in Ottawa today and in Montreal Monday. The Argonauts meet Hamilton Tiger-Cats at Toronto today and go back to the steel city for the windup.

Win or lose, the Tiger-Cats are the only club guaranteed to emerge from the twin bill with their position secure. There could be some severe shakeups in the lower echelon, however.

With 14 points on seven wins in the nine games played to date, the Ticats are temporarily out of reach of Toronto and Montreal who share second place with eight points each. The Riders, just two points back, could displace both with the right combinations.

MOMENT OF DECISION

While any game at this late stage of the schedule might be considered crucial, Toronto and Montreal appear to be facing the biggest moments of decision.

The Als, whipped in their last four outings and riddled with injuries to irreplaceable key players, have their backs to the wall this weekend. A double loss would leave them at best with a share of the basement and two of their remaining three games are with the tough and so far—healthy Ticats.

For the Argonauts, it will be a test of whether the new-found running and passing attack whipped together by coach Steve Owen and quarterback Al Dorow can stand up against the leaders.

CATS SNARLING

The Argos downed the Als decisively the last two weekends but the crippled Larks were hardly on a par with Hamilton. In addition, Ticats are smarting from last week's 9-7 loss to Ottawa and coach Jim Trimble says there will be no more fooling around with bench-cleaning and quarterback-baiting.

Bernie Faloney, who played defensively last Saturday while Tom Dubinski had a fling, will be back calling signals to stay.

Here is what Montreal is up against:

Johnny Blatcher, Mike Kovac and Bob Geary have not been named for the Ottawa game. Geary may be out for the season. Lineman Billy Shipp will dress but is suffering from bruised ribs. Kovac, with a sprained ankle, may or may not be ready. Bill Bewley will be dressed but may work only at kicking placements.

Western Football Teams Facing Crucial Weekend

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Snow and wintry weather isn't expected to daunt western football fans with an exciting four-day Thanksgiving weekend lined up.

Tomorrow, Edmonton Eskimos in Vancouver to battle with British Columbia Lions and Saskatchewan Roughriders visit Calgary to face the Stampeders.

Monday, in afternoon games, Calgary visits Edmonton and Saskatchewan plays host to Winnipeg Blue Bombers at Regina.

It is a crucial weekend for every team but Saskatchewan whose record of 10 losses and one win eliminates them from the free-team playoffs.

RIGHT SITUATION
Winnipeg can't afford to lose any of its four remaining games if it wants to hold first place and move into the playoffs. Edmonton, with five games remaining, is in a second-place deadlock with B.C. The Stamps must win their two games to stave off virtual elimination.

At the bottom of this hungry heap, a Saskatchewan club fired by a new coach, Frank Tripucka, takes on the role of potential spoiler.

The odds are with Eskimos in Vancouver, Edmonton players leading the league in rushing, passing and pass-catching. The night defence has allowed an average of fewer than 10 points a game.

DOUBLE LOSS
Lions, on the other hand, have lost two first-line tackles—Chuck Miller and Curt Hauke—this week.

"This Quilter's quilting" is a classic. Hauke was a tremendous player," moaned Lions coach Wayne Robinson.

Robinson still isn't sure whether Vic Kristopaitis, the old goal expert who led Lions to two early wins over Edmonton, will be ready for action.

Compared to these, coach George Keys' troubles are minor.

Honolulu's Bid for Loop Berth Turned Down

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (AP)—Honolulu's bid for a berth in the still unopened Continental League was rejected Friday.

Representatives of the Hawaiian capital were told, however, that their application for a franchise would be given serious consideration if the projected eight-team, third major league expands to ten or more teams.

Bill Shea, organizer of the league, didn't give any reason for the turn-down but it undoubtedly involved the distance and expense.

Honolulu's presentation was made by Mayor Neal Blaisdell and Yetsuo Higa, Honolulu businessman and sportsman, in an earlier meeting with Shea and coach Rickey, president of the league.

The Continental, which expects to begin operating in 1961, presently has five charter members in New York, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Houston, Toronto and Denver.

It does not appear as if Honolulu's bid can be beyond the possibility at this time because of the difficulty we are having in ascertaining the feasibility of opening three cities for our pending eight-team league.

We have applications from Montreal, Atlanta, Dallas, Fort Worth and Buffalo. We have asked Mayor Blaisdell that in the future plan very serious consideration will be given to expansion and to Honolulu.

Mike Kmech and Don Duncafe, two Canadian guards, are ailing but the rest of the team is in good late-season shape.

Calgary coach Otis Douglas, his job reportedly lost anyway, has demanded a top effort from his players. A blowup earlier this week by Douglas resulted in fines for several players and the firing of one.

DON STONE SET
Good news for Douglas is the fact that import halfback Donnie Stone is in shape to play. Stone sat out Calgary's loss last week to Winnipeg with a knee injury.

Calgary is not taking Saskatchewan, who upset B. C. 15-14 Monday, lightly.

The Roughriders gave Edmonton a first-half scare last week before fading in their first game under coach Tripucka, the former passing quarterback who replaced George Terlep.

The Riders' roster still reads like a hospital index, but apparently enough players are in good shape to form a dangerous squad.

Winnipeg is in good shape physically and the team has been practicing in snow to prepare for Monday's tilt.

We are all familiar with highway signposts. They point the way and help guide us to our destination. The signpost you see here is no exception, but it is pointing to a way of life for more than 22 thousand blind people in Canada, 154 in P. E. I.

This symbolic signpost has been erected by the Can. Nat. Inst. for the Blind, as a reminder of how you may help in guiding our sightless citizens to a new way of life, through the C. N. I. B. program.

The Institute's program, is not only serving the blind, but also many men, women, and children with defective sight. This is done through C. N. I. B.'s Sight Conservation Service, an invaluable adjunct to the C. N. I. B. Program.

The Institute's program speaks to you through the heartwarming results it achieves in helping the sightless towards a self-reliant, happy and satisfying way of life. It is a great and growing work—one well deserving of your help.

This brings us again, to our symbolic signpost. As you know every signpost needs support, and C. N. I. B.'s does too. This support is your financial aid... Your assistance on which CNIB relies. Please give generously to help the Blind.

What's most important in a MULTI-STOP TRUCK?

Load capacity... operator convenience... manoeuvrability... these are all important factors. But remember—

BALANCED Truck Engineering

is the key to dependable truck performance

A multi-stop truck must be engineered as a unit to give the long, dependable service you want. If you buy on the basis of load space alone, you may not get the balanced combination of body, chassis and power train that is essential to your profits. Remember—you're buying the whole truck.

It makes good sense to choose International—engineered, sold and serviced by truck specialists who have long experience in solving the problems of multi-stop operations. Consult your International Truck sales representative for the combination of specs that is ideally suited to your needs.

Leader in multi-stop truck sales for 21 straight years.
