Little Fighting During Armistice Talks Recess

Growing Hopes For Successful Settlement Of Iranian Oil Issue

TEHRAN, July 22 — (Reuters) — Hopes of a settlement in the Anglo-Iranian oil dispute appeared brighter tonight when the Iranian Oil Commission reported "success is assured" after a meeting with United States envoy Averell Harriman.

Harriman Saturday night presented the Commission with a set of proposals as a basis for a compromise between the Iranian government and British interests in the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company. Commission members said tonight "We are in the final stages of negotiations."

"If everything goes well at a further meeting, Mr. Harriman can go home a satisfied man."

The Associated Press quoted Deputy Premier Hossain Fatimi as saying that the Iranian government is "optimistic" about chances of re-opening talks with Britain in an effort to get oil shipments started again from Abadan.

Commission members had given a satisfactory reply to the proposal and the reply was approved by special decree by the cabinet meeting today, they said.

The nature of the proposals is secret but they are reported to include suggestions for a joint British-American-Iranian marketing organization.

One member of the commission said tonight's talks with Harriman were "mainly concerned with steps to prevent a closedown of the Abadan refinery."

The American negotiator commented only that "we made progress" the same reply he gave Saturday night.

An informed Iranian source said "we have given up no ground" in the nationalization scheme. Commission members will meet with Premier Mossadeq tomorrow.

British representatives have been silent on the discussions, though it is presumed Harriman has kept British Ambassador Sir Francis Shepherd fully informed.

Harriman met Sir Francis today to reveal the contents of the proposals, an informed source reported. He said he would see the ambassador again tonight or tomorrow to inform him of the progress.

Meanwhile, police handed back a residence permit to Richard Sedon, Anglo-Iranian chief representative here. The permit had been withdrawn Friday.

U. S. Will Give Spain Military And Economic Aid

WASHINGTON, July 22 — (AP) — Substantial economic and military aid is the price which Generalissimo Franco has indicated he wants for American use of Spanish sea and air bases. The United States is prepared to pay the price.

Responsible officials confirmed this today as new details were learned of the conference earlier this week between Franco and Admiral Forrest P. Sherman of the American joint chiefs of staff.

The nature of the aid it became known that the State Department has instructed embassies abroad to emphasize to foreign governments that the talks deal solely with military arrangements and do not imply American approval of the Franco regime.

The amount of American assistance which Franco will require has yet to be negotiated. In fact, the Spanish ruler did not specifically request aid in his meeting with Sherman.

Spain's economy has long been threadbare. Franco's army is regarded by authorities here as so poorly equipped that it would be unable to make any effective showing in modern warfare. When he expressed concern to Sherman on these points as limiting possible co-operation by Spain in western defence, Franco was in fact stating to the American government a price which it was fully prepared to accept as necessary and, in principal, reasonable.

Classical Ass'n Elects Officers

FREDERICTON, July 22 — (CP) — The Classical Association of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland ended its annual sessions Saturday with election of officers. The new president is Dr. Edna White, of Sussex, N. B., and Jersey City, N. J.

Other officers are secretary Robert J. Gibbs, Saint John, N. B., and permanent treasurer Prof. J. E. A. Crake, Mount Allison University, Sackville, N. B.

Minimum Wage For N.B. Employees

FREDERICTON, July 22 — (CP) — A minimum wage of 55 cents an hour for all New Brunswick males, regardless of age, employed in processing fish, vegetables or fruits, was announced Saturday by Labor Minister Moores.

British Gov't Suspends Diplomat From Duty

LONDON, July 22 — (Reuters) — Britain's Foreign Office Saturday suspended one of its officials from duty, withdrew his passport and banned an atomic scientist's visit to Moscow.

The diplomat's name and post were not revealed in an official announcement. He was asked to hand in his passport. No reason was given for this action but a foreign-office spokesman said it was a "precautionary measure."

U. N. Negotiators Confer With Gen. Ridgway

TOKYO, July 23 — (Monday) — (AP) — Allied troops repulsed a light Communist probing attack in east-central Korea Sunday, while three United Nations negotiators conferred in Tokyo with Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme Allied commander, on the next move in temporarily-stalled armistice talks.

(Reuters News Agency reported that Ridgway said Sunday night in a radio interview that nothing had happened in the talks with the Communists to give rise to undue optimism for peace. He said his own attitude is one of "wait and see."

He added: "I would not attempt to guess" for what reason the Communists asked for the current recess in the talks. It was possible they had to communicate directly with Moscow for instructions, he said.

The supreme commander said the South Korean army is a long way from the point where U.N. troops could leave the situation safely in his hands and withdraw, as the Communists have demanded.

Vice Admiral Charles Turner Joy, senior U.N. delegate, was reported to have received explicit instructions from Ridgway on what steps to take if the Chinese-North Korean delegation continues to insist on withdrawal of all foreign troops from Korea. There was no immediate indication what the instructions may be.

Joy, accompanied by Rear-Admiral Arleigh Burke and Air Force Maj.-Gen. Laurance C. Craigie, was scheduled to return to Korea today.

The next face-to-face meeting with the Reds, however, will not be held until July 25, at the request of the Communist delegation.

It is upon the issue of withdrawal of troops that success or failure of the cease-fire discussions rest.

The Communists have insisted that the issue be placed on the agenda of the cease-fire conference at Kaesong. The U.N. delegation contends that this is a political matter and therefore out of place at Kaesong.

The Communists requested the recess at an ultra-short Saturday meeting a few minutes after Joy told them he thought enough items had been agreed upon to form an agenda. Joy wanted the delegations to go ahead to the big job of discussing terms for ending the bloody Korean conflict now.

Finance Minister Abbott looms as a key figure in any new shuffle. He has been Minister of Finance since 1946 and has indicated privately that he would like to move to another department or to return to private law practice.

However, Prime Minister St. Laurent is said to have indicated that he would like to see Mr. Abbott remain in the Finance Department until two major problems are settled.

The first involves a system of contributions to finance the new Federal Old-Age Pensions Program; the second, the renewal of taxation agreements with the provinces.

There has been some speculation as to what may happen if and when Mr. Abbott moves from the Finance Department. Some observers predict a switch that would send Mr. Abbott to the Justice Department and Justice Minister Garson to Finance.

U. S. Chief Of Naval Operations Dies Suddenly

NAPLES, Italy, July 22 — (AP) — Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, 54, (above), United States Chief of Naval Operations, died unexpectedly here today after two heart attacks. He was on a tour of Europe's Atlantic Pact defence area and had planned to leave this afternoon for home.

He first was stricken early this morning. A navy medical officer and a Naples doctor were called and he appeared to rally. But several hours later, the second and fatal attack struck Sherman.

Mrs. Sherman and Admiral Robert E. Carney, American commander of allied forces in southern Europe, were at his bedside. Sherman had been boss of the U. S. Navy since December, 1949. He replaced Admiral Louis Denfeld in the bitter squabble over unification of the army, navy and air force. A brilliant "flying admiral", he vaulted over the heads of nine other admirals to take the navy's no. 1 post, the young-

$16,000 Cargo Lost Saturday Off Point Prim

A scow owned by the Diamond Construction Company of Fredericton, N.B., and carrying a valuable cargo, submerged off Point Prim in the Northumberland Strait at 10:30 A.M. on Saturday and practically all the cargo valued at approximately $16,000 was lost.

On Friday, July 20 at 8:10 A.M. the tug Atwood powered with 120 h.p. Caterpillar diesel engine under command of Capt. Hughie Grandy, left Loggieville, N.B. in the Bale Chaleur for Grand Bank, Newfoundland. She had in tow a scow about eighty by thirty-five feet in size which carried two motor trucks, 140 pieces of twenty-five foot crosstied timbers, a dredge crane and dredge bucket.

bales of bedding, a quantity of iron rods, barrels of meat and barrels of oil and gasoline. The tug Atwood and the scow are owned by the Diamond Construction Co. of Fredericton, N.B. and were bound for Grand Bank, Newfoundland, where the company is constructing a pier for the Newfoundland government.

The seventy-four ton schooner A and R Martin with sail and powered by two diesel engines of 82 and 60 horsepower under command of Captain Ben Snooks of Grand Bank was assisting in the towing. The A and R Martin is owned by J.B. Pattern and Sons of Grand Bank, and carried general cargo and a heavy deck load.

No Cabinet Changes Expected Until Two Major Problems Settled

OTTAWA, July 22 — (CP) — Indications are that Prime Minister St. Laurent will make no major changes in his cabinet for some time.

A shuffle of portfolios is sometimes made to broaden the experience of cabinet ministers and one has been predicted frequently in unofficial circles for some months.

Finance Minister Abbott looms as a key figure in any new shuffle. He has been Minister of Finance since 1946 and has indicated privately that he would like to move to another department or to return to private law practice.

However, Prime Minister St. Laurent is said to have indicated that he would like to see Mr. Abbott remain in the Finance Department until two major problems are settled.

The first involves a system of contributions to finance the new Federal Old-Age Pensions Program; the second, the renewal of taxation agreements with the provinces.

There has been some speculation as to what may happen if and when Mr. Abbott moves from the Finance Department. Some observers predict a switch that would send Mr. Abbott to the Justice Department and Justice Minister Garson to Finance.

Carrying the shuffle further, some have predicted that External Affairs Minister Pearson will eventually move to the Trade Department and Defence Minister Claxton to External Affairs. Citizenship Minister Harris would move to Defence. Trade Minister Howe would devote his full time to the Defence Production Department.

Mr. Abbott, Mr. Pearson, Mr. Claxton and Mr. Harris are mentioned as possible candidates for party leadership once Mr. St. Laurent retires.

Alligator Walks Out of Wall

TIMMINS, Ont., July 22 — Carpenter Leo Piquette, working in the basement of a fruit warehouse, saw a 15-inch alligator walk out of a hole in a wall.

He retreated, shouting for help. A fellow worker who'd cut over the head with a shovel.

Warehouse employees said the alligator must have come from Guatemala with a shipment of bananas. The wall was rebuilt two years ago and the alligator must have slipped in then and been imprisoned, they said.

Five Drowned In Ontario

STROUD, Ont., July 22 — (CP) — Five men were drowned Saturday night when their motor boat overturned on Lake Simcoe near the police village, 45 miles north of Toronto.

Two other members of the party were rescued. Dead are: Beverly Leslie, 40, Toronto. Harvel Fletcher, 30, Drayton, Ont. Lorne Fletcher, 47, Fergus, Ont. Austin Fletcher, 32, Fergus. Wesley Fletcher, 65, Drayton.

They were sons of Wesley Fletcher, who was his son-in-law. They were attending a family picnic at which 36 members of the Fletcher family were present. The men who were saved were Glen Fletcher, 20, of Fergus, a grandson of Wesley Fletcher and Kenneth Hill, of Moorfield, Ont.

Weak Distress Signals Heard From Northland

VANCOUVER, July 22 — (CP) — Weak distress signals—possibly a clue to the Canadian Pacific Airlines plane down with 38 persons aboard — stuttered from somewhere in the northland Saturday.

But today, with silence on the distress circuit, searchers banked their hopes of finding the plane on clearing weather along the Alaska Panhandle, the coastal strip of mountainous terrain that hooks south from Alaska proper.

A C. P. A. plane opened the search today. When the pilot reported the weather clear to 8,000 feet, 18 search aircraft from the United States Coast Guard squadrons at Anchorage, Juneau moved into the Panhandle area.

The signals were picked up Saturday at Anchorage, Cranbrook, B. C. and by ships at sea about 14 hours after the DC-3 Douglas aircraft vanished on a flight from Vancouver to Anchorage. The last signal was heard about 5:00 p.m. It was not possible to take a directional reading. Nothing was heard today.

The Korean airlift plane was to continue on to Tokyo from Anchorage. It was the first plane to meet disaster in the airlift's 87,000 miles of flying since the outbreak of the Korean war.

The 31 passengers included two Canadian men, 23 U. S. air force and three U. S. army personnel and three American civilians.

Churchill Says Britain Has Lost Hard-Won Prestige

WOODFORD, England, July 22 — (AP) — Conservative leader Winston Churchill said in a speech at Woodford, his home constituency, Saturday that socialist control of Britain cost her much hard-won wartime prestige.

"For the time being we have lost our rank among the nations. There is hardly any country in the world where it is not believed that you have only to kick an English man hard enough to make him evacuate, bolt or clear out. Egypt, Persia, Albania, the Argentine and Chile compete with each other in the incoherence and lunaticisms they inflict upon us."

Countries Britons defended from the Nazis, said Churchill, "are watching with astonishment a Britain which they think — and will think until once again we prove them wrong — is a Britain in retreat or in decline."

Boy Killed, 15 Injured In Crash

EAST PRESTON, N. S., July 22 — (CP) — An eight-year-old "Negro" boy was killed and 15 other persons injured, three seriously, when a truck rolled over a 15-foot embankment at its village near Halifax late today.

Frederick Alexander Sparks died in the crash which occurred when Don Crawley, driver of the truck, swerved to avoid another car, which did not stop. The party was returning from a christening when the crash came.

Forecasts Decline In Meat Prices

VANCOUVER, July 22 — (CP) — A decline in meat prices was forecast Saturday by J. S. McLean, president of Canada Packers Ltd., here on a visit.

He said that when prices reached their present level, "declines are more likely than advances."

"I don't think further meat price increases are likely although anything is possible. Lower prices are more likely — but I anticipate no great drop."

Red Leaders Meet In Moscow

By The Associated Press
Some of the Kremlin's top spokesmen were loosed on northeastern Europe during the week-end to utter tirades against Tito, accuse the west of "acts of direct aggression" and assert their own undying devotion to peace.

No less a figure than the Soviet Deputy Premier Vyacheslav M. Molotov, tried to sound the k.c. for Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito's Government in a speech Saturday at Warsaw. Molotov, warning up the old Kremlin hope that a Yugoslav counter-revolution would cook Tito's goose, said:

"Now all can see that the gang of Tito, (Foreign Minister Edvard Kardelj and Interior Minister Alexander Rankovic have already reestablished the capitalist system in Yugoslavia, deprived the people of its revolutionary victory, and transformed the nation into a weapon of the aggressive, imperialist powers... this cannot continue long."

The peoples of Yugoslavia will find a way to freedom and liquidation of the Titoist Fascist regime."

The Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister also paid his respects to the western powers, accusing them of "open preparation for a third world war." He added that "we cannot close our eyes to the fact that the States entering into the aggressive North Atlantic pact have set out on the path of an arms race."

Civic Employees Will Strike

WINNIPEG, July 22 — (CP) — The Federation of Civic Employees (C.C.E.), representing about 2,000 civic workers, resolved Saturday that strike action will be taken "if and when such action becomes legal."

The resolution was passed at a meeting of more than 500 members of the Federation, which heard Mr. Mitchell report on discussions earlier yesterday with Manitoba government officials.

The meeting was called to obtain union members' reaction in connection with City Council's rejection of a proposed agreement providing for a 40-hour week effective next Jan. 1 and other benefits. The agreement, if passed, would cost the city an additional $772,250 annually.

CAIRO, Egypt, July 22 — (AP) — Two relatives of the former Mufti of Jerusalem were reported among 500 persons rounded-up in Jordan today as a result of the assassination of King Abdullah. Middle east personalities converged on Amman for one of the Arab world's most glittering funerals.

The Cairo newspaper Al-Ahram said the relatives were Dr. Daud El-Husseini, a nephew of the bearded former Mufti, Haj Amin El-Husseini, and Sayed Tewfik Saleh El-Husseini.

Reports from Amman, the Jordan capital, have said Abdullah's assassin was a member of the "sacred struggle organization," a band fostered by the former Mufti. Daud El-Husseini has been identified in the Mufti's anti-British terrorism in Palestine as far back as 15 years ago.

The Mufti, from his exile in Egypt, issued a denial Saturday night that he had anything to do
