Closing Exercises in the University.

(Special Correspondence of The Examiner.)

SACKVILLE, May 23.

The annual sermon of the Theological Union was preached this morning before a crowded house, by the Rev. G. F. Johnson, B. A. He dealt in a masterly manner with the "Person and work" of the Holy Spirit. In the evening, the students, with caps and gowns on, marched down to church. The Faculty marched in front, followed by the students in order of classes; then came the young ladies, and finally the academy students. These all formed quite a lengthy procession.

The Baccalaureate Sermon was preached by the Rev. J. A. Clarke, M. A. He pointed out to the graduates, in an eloquent manner, the necessity of leading a moral and godly life. The music was splendid. Prof. Mock himself officiated at the pipe organ, while Prof. Curry had a full string band present. The closing anthem was particularly fine.

MONDAY, May 26.

At nine o'clock this morning the closing exercises of the Male Academy commenced at Lingley Hall. The following is the programme:—

Devotional Exercises.....Rev. Charles Stewart, D.D.
Music—Organ Solo: Andante.....Smart.
Mr. Joseph Layton.

Debate—Is the Third Party necessary to secure Prohibition? Affirmative: E. J. Dobson and Henry Pierce; Negative: William Costin and Robert King.
Music—Vocal solo; Cherette.....Roeckel.
Miss Mabel Whiston.
Reports, Prizes, etc.

Mr. Joseph Layton performed his organ solo in good style. Miss Whiston was loudly encored for the charming manner in which she rendered her vocal solo, "Cherette." Archie Snowball and Frank Phinney both did very well, indeed. The event of the program was, however, the debate, Mr Henry Pierce especially distinguishing himself. Principal Davies then gave a short report of the term's work, showing that the work was in a very satisfactory condition.

The mathematical prize and scholarship was awarded to Morley Sellar, of Port Elgin; the classical one to Ernest Bartlett, of Newfoundland.

In the afternoon, the Music Hall was crowded to see the performance of the Intercolliate Athletic Club. The following is the program:

11. MARCH.

The young ladies were dressed in a very tasteful sailor suit, with navy blue skirt, and light waist with navy trimmings, laced up the whole length of the front with a bluish lace. The two dumb bell exercises were splendidly performed. The performance of the Misses N. Moore and E. Poole with chest weights was loudly applauded.

The march at the last was excellent. This march was first introduced last year by Mr. Mellish in the Alamo Guards. Those who were present last year will recollect it.

NOTES.

The weather still continues fine. The most of the Islanders will return home Thursday. The students seem to have given up all their sports except tennis. All the courts are constantly occupied.

On Friday evening, the 23rd inst., a large number assembled in Lingley Hall to listen to the elocution competition of the Freshman and Sophomores classes. Eight Sophomores and fifteen Freshmen entered the lists. The delivery of the students was very creditable indeed, in every way. Gibson Mosher, of Windsor, N. S., carried off the first prize, and Oskar Gronlund, of Finland, Russia, the second. Mr. Mosher delivered a selection from Tennyson's "Ballad of the Fleet" in splendid style. Mr. Gronlund chose as his subject a patriotic ballad, founded on an incident which occurred in the war between Russia and Poland, when a single Fin held the whole Russian army at bay on a narrow bridge. The ballad was "Sven a Dufra," by J. L. Runsberg. H. A. Woodworth, of Sackville, carried off the first prize in the Freshman class. The judges were unable to arrive at a decision as to which of the following were entitled to the second and third prises. Raymond Archibald, Cyrus Rice, Rev. G. Young, Rev. T. H. Toole. Mr. Archibald delivered a ballad by "Nesbit" on the Connemaugh Valley disaster,—How the horseman had spurred through the valley, warning the people to "Fly! Fly! to the mountains." His declamation was certainly the most impressive of the evening. Mr. Rice delivered the "Island of the Scots" in true oratorical style. Both Mr. Archibald and Mr. Rice are well known in Charlottetown.

About midnight the boys made a sally from the Lodge, and having collected a great number of oil casks, bones etc., from parts unknown, made a tremendous bonfire in the campus. They also got a rope attached to the College Bell, and set it ringing, supplementing it with horns, yells etc. They danced around the fire, sang songs, and generally had a rousing good time until two o'clock, when they sang "God Save the Queen" and turned in.

On Saturday, May 24, the students of the Ladies College held their annual musical recital. The following is the programme:—

Piano Solo—Polonaise.....Merkel
Miss Myrtie Whitman.
Piano Solo—Spring Song.....Merkel
Miss Mabel Thompson.
Galop Caprices.....Lebert
Miss Ethel Chapman.
Violin Solo—Berceuse.....Herman
Miss Laura Heartz.
Vocal Solo—Flower Song, (Faust)....Gounod
Miss Daisy Lewis.
Organ Solo—Sonata C Minor....Mendelssohn
Grave; Adagio; Allegro maestoso e Vivace.
Mr. George Scoville.
Piano Solo—Seranato.....Moszkowski
Miss Amy Moore.
Rondo op 62.....Weber
Miss Alice Anderson.
Vocal Solo—Sing, Smile, Slumber....Gounod
Miss May Tremaine.
Violin—Mr. Arthur Curry.
Piano Solo—Marche de Nuit.....Gottschall
Miss Florence Harris.
Violin Solo—Slumber Song.....Bohm
Miss Lena Churchill.
Piano Solo—Tarantelle.....Heller
Miss Nellie Palmer.
Vocal Solo—Bright Star of Love....Robaudi
Miss Mabel Whiston.
Violin—Mr. Arthur Currie.
Piano Solo—Roundo from Sonata op F.....Beethoven
Miss Georgie Smith.
Violin Solo—Flower Song.....Lange
Miss Nita Churchill.
Mazurka.....Goldner
Miss Minnie Hall.

The intonation of Miss Heartz was good and tone excellent in her rendering of "Berceuse" on the violin.

Miss Daisy Lewis surpassed herself in singing the "Flower Girl." Her voice was in faultless condition.

Miss Amy Moore once more delighted an audience by the exquisite manner in which she rendered a piano solo.

A gay company gathered together at the Ladies College in the evening. The building, inside and out, was brilliantly lighted with electric lights. The air was thick with the perfume of roses. Large quantities had been sent from St John and Halifax to decorate the lady loves of the Collegians. An excellent programme of music was rendered, half in the dining hall, fitted for the occasion, and half in another part of the building.

PART I.

Piano Solo—In the Month of May....Merkel.

Miss Nellie Moore.
Piano Solo—Au Matin.....Godard
Miss Alice Ogden.

Miss Ethel Poole rendered "In the Month of May," Merkel, in a masterly manner. Miss Mary Large has already made a name for herself as a musician, and a musical entertainment seldom passes in which she does not take part. Miss Large's technique was faultless, and her interpretation very intelligent.

NOTES.

Nearly one hundred visitors have already arrived. Among those from the Island we noticed Rev. John Read, the daughters of Dr. Johnston, Mr. B. D. Higgs, Mrs. Poole and Mr. Ernest Mellish.

The Markets

BOSTON, May 22.

The arrivals of potatoes have fallen off this week and the surplus stock has been considerably reduced, but buyers are working very cautiously and there is very little life in the trade. Choice eastern stock continues in light supply, and brings full prices. Good western have been selling fairly at from 60 to 65 cents for Rose and Hebrons with some of the best white varieties up to 70 cents. Inferior western range down to 50 cents. Chenangoes are closely sold up and best lots bringing 80 cents. Magnums have been moving slowly. New southern are beginning to arrive in considerable quantities and are meeting with a fair sale when choice and well culled, some of the best marks at $5.00 per bbl.

The fish market has a quiet tone, and there are no special changes to report; nothing of consequence doing in mackerel.

There has been a steady demand for eggs this week, and the market has been kept well cleaned up. Prices have been gradually working upward, and at the close extra eastern are firm at 15 cents. Good marks of P. E. Island are in demand at 14 cents, with some of the best N. S. and N. B. bringing 14½ cents. Michigan extras sell readily at 14½ cents; other western firm at 14½ cents as to grade.

The provision market remains quiet and without material change, buyers taking such small lots as are wanted, at about former prices.
