A Good Fish Story.

On a boat coming down from the flats the other evening was a young man and a black bass.

"Catch it alone?" asked one. "No reply." "Pull very hard!" asked a second.

"I doubt it," replied another. "Say, fisherman, what are the figures?"

"Two pounds," was the solemn answer. "Get out."

"How did you do it?" asked a policeman, when the crowd had dispersed.

GRAND Colonial Exhibition in London, Eng., 1886. FIFTY-FOUR THOUSAND FEET RESERVED FOR CANADA.

FIRST ROYAL EXHIBITION COMMISSION SINCE 1862.

THE COLONIAL AND INDIAN EXHIBITION to be held in LONDON, England, commencing MAY 1st, 1886, is intended to be on a scale of great magnitude, having for object to mark an epoch in the relations of all the parts of the British Empire with each other.

The very large space of 54,000 square feet has been allotted to the Dominion of Canada by command of the President, His Royal Highness.

The grandest opportunity ever offered to Canada is thus afforded to show the distinguished place she occupies by the progress she has made in Agriculture, in Horticulture, in the Industrial and Fine Arts, in the Manufacturing Industries, in the Newest Improvements in Manufacturing Machinery, and Implements, in Public Works by Models and Designs; also in an adequate display of her vast resources in the Fisheries, and in Forest and Mineral wealth, and also in shipping.

All Canadians of all parties and classes are invited to come forward and vie with each other in endeavoring on this great occasion to put Canada in her true place as the premier colony of the British Empire, and to establish her proper position before the world.
