IN MEMORIAM

VESSEY—In loving memory of Horace L. Vessey who departed this life, November 1, 1953.
Loved in life, treasured in death,
Beautiful memories with us he has left.
Ever remembered by his wife and family.

WOOD—In fond and loving memory of Mrs. Alex A. Wood, North Tryon, who passed away Oct. 3, 1955.
Asleep in God's beautiful garden
Away from all sorrow and pain,
Some day when life's journey is ended.
We shall all be together again
Ever remembered by Frank, Florence and family.

MULLIGAN—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. John E. Mulligan who departed this life November 1st, 1954; also our father, John E. Mulligan, who departed this life January 9th, 1956.
You left us beautiful memories,
Often silent tears,
But you will always be with us,
As we journey through the years.
Lovingly remembered by dauter Mary, Clair and family.

MacKINNON—In loving memory of my dear brother George Vernon MacKinnon who was drowned November 1, 1956.
What would I give to clasp his hand,
His happy face to see,
To hear his voice and see him smile,
That meant so much to me.
Always remembered by sister, Sylvia.

MacKINNON—In loving memory of our dear son George Vernon MacKinnon who was drowned November 1, 1956.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach,
Sweet to remember him who once was here.
And who, though absent, is just as dear.
Always remembered by Mom and Dad.

CHANDLER—In loving memory of Mrs. John A. Chandler, North Milton, who passed away Novembr 1, 1953.
A dearer Mother never lived,
Nor one more fine and true,
Nor was a Mother ever loved
More truly dear than you.

We who loved you sadly miss you,
As it dawns another year
In our lonely hours of thinking,
Thoughts of you are eevr near.

Ever remembered by her daughter Mae.

SHEPHERD — In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Allison Shepherd, who departed this life November 1st 1956
Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear
T'is sad but true, we wonder why,
The best is always the first to die.
Sadly missed but always remembered by Father, Mother, brothers and sisters.

WOODSIDE—In loving memory of our dear brother, Athol Woodside, who passed away October 31, 1953.
This day we do remember
A loving thought we give
To one no longer with us
But in our hearts still lives.

Lovingly remembered by Hollis and Ellen.

IN MEMORIAM

PETER McQUAID

There passed peacefully away on September 16th, 1957, after a lengthy illness Peter MacQuaid in the 75th year of his age. Up to 2 years ago the deceased had been an active man when he was stricken with a brain stroke from which he failed to fully recover.

A year ago he and his wife went to Toronto to spend the winter months with their daughter returning to the old home in Green Bay by plane in May. His health still gradually declined until in the late hours of the above mentioned date, the angel of death claimed him as its own.

The deceased the son of the late Patrick and Bridget (Trainor) McQuaid was born at Green Bay on Jan. 7th, 1883. He carried on farming as his occupation two years ago. Well known and esteemed by all who knew him, a fluent conversationalist, possessed of a genial personality., and with the gift of making friends. The late Mr. McQuaid enjoyed the richness and wealth of many friendships and acquaintances he had formed during his long life.

He was the second last surviving son of a family of nine. One brother James Elmwood survives him. Through the zeal and brotherly love of these brothers they were successful in educating two brothers, Fr. Michael and Fr. Stephen, both of whom died in Western Canada and one sister, a teaching sister in congregation of N.D.A.

On Nov. 20th, 1917, he was united in marriage to Katie Coady of Kelly's Cross and this happy union were born four children, Linus and John P. of Green Bay (Evelyn), Mrs. Chris Moylan, Toronto; (Elizabeth), Sr. Peter Marie, North Rustico Convent. He is survived by his wife who with the family will especially miss him as a kind and loving husband and father. He is also survived by 8 grandchildren.

During his illness he was faithfully attended by his pastor, Rev. Charles McCarthy and Father Reid who on the day previous to his death administered to him the last rites of the church.

On Sept. 19th, the largely attended funeral was held from his residence under the direction of the Charlottetown funeral home to St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, where a solemn requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. James Smith (on the advent of Fr. McCarthy who expressed his grief of not being present) with Rev. George McCormac as deacon. Rev. Austin Bradley, subdeacon, Rev. Michael Rooney as Master of Ceremonies Rev. Leonard Ayres was present in the Sanctuary. 19 sisters of C. N.D. and C.S.M. were present at the funeral.

The pall bearers were Matthias Flood, Thomas Carragher, James Cudmore, Cedric Barrett, Augustine McQuaid, Norbett Costello.

Interment was in the church cemetery where the service was conducted by Rev. James Smith assisted by Rev. George McCormac and Rev. Austin Bradley, and the mortal remains of a true Christian man and a devoted member of the church were laid to rest. The large number who accompanied the remains to its last resting place was another fitting tribute to the high esteem in which he was held by all.

IN MEMORIAM

ELIZABETH E. MacCANNELL

The death occurred on August 6th, 1957, after a lingering illness at the Charlottetown Hospital of Elizabeth E. MacCannell in her 83rd year.

The deceased was the daughter of the late Neil MacCannell and Grace Chipman and was born at Fort Augustus, P.E.I. The greater part of her life was spent in U.S.A. where she made a great many friends, upon her retirement she returned to Fort Augustus, where she lived until a year ago.

She is the last surviving member of her family and leaves a number of nieces and nephews.

Her funeral which was largely attended was held from the Hennessey Funeral Home on August 9th to St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus for Requiem High Mass which was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. T. P. Butler, who also conducted the services at the grave.

The pall bearers were: James McNally, Joseph McNally, Joseph Kelly, Daniel Chipman, John Webster and James Callaghan.
