CRIME DRAMA BASED ON FACT

Based on the theory that fact is stranger—and more exciting than fiction, "The Great Jewel Robber," a Warner Bros. drama based on the criminal exploits of Gerard Dennis, is due for a local showing.

In the film at the Capitol Theatre, David Brian, plays the two-faced, smooth-talking role of the modern Raffles, whose two years of thievery in the homes of Hollywood stars and wealthy New Rochelle socialites netted him over a million dollars in furs and jewels. Working alone and without leaving clues, Dennis was a one-man crime wave.

On the distasteful side of "The Great Jewel Robber" are a host of loveliness, including Marjorie Reynolds, Claudia Barrett, Perdita Chandler, Alice Talton and Jacqueline de Wit.

Serving as technical advisers on the film were Mayor Stanley Church of New Rochelle, and Dennis himself, now in Sing Sing.

Mr. John Mill, Clermont, is receiving congratulations this week on his 97th birthday, which falls on February 16th. Mr. Mill enjoys fairly good health, and is interested in current events, both at home and abroad.

Mrs. Daniel Hickox, Burlington, left on Saturday for Amherst, N. S., where she is spending a week with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Black. She was accompanied by two grand-sons, David Black, who was returning to his home and Donnie Hickox, Burlington.

Mr. George Caseley, student at Mt. Allison Academy, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Caseley, Kelvin Grove.

Mrs. Alfred Reeves, Burlington, who has been ill for some time entered the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, on Monday for observation and X-ray examination. Her many friends wish her an early improvement in health.
