THREE STATES SEEK CUSTODY OF ALLEGED KILLER OF EIGHT

The most active session in some time Saturday drove all Winnipeg Grain Exchange prices except October barley to seasonal high, flax advancing the full 15-cent limit. General demand, including good commercial demand, met light offerings in most cases. The trend followed American market action in large part as the possibility of price controls in the United States appeared to influence trade there.

There was export and processor demand in flax and shipper and American-account buying in oats, barley and rye.

Class two wheat and I. W. A. prices a bushel fell 1-4 cent.

Oats: May 1.01 3-4B; July 92 3-8 1-2; Oct 87.

Barley: May 1.47 1-4; July 1.37; Oct 1.29 3-8.

Rye: May 1.91 3-8; July 1.87 5-8; Oct 1.82 5-8B.

Flax: May 5.30B; July 5.02B; Oct. 4.83 1-2B.

American gandy, gum and tobacco products are a feature of these black-market stands in operation along a street in Taegu, Korea.

From the gifts of U. N. servicemen, the products eventually find their way into hands of black marketeers.
