THE FOREIGN MAIL arrived in the city this afternoon about one o'clock.

I. O. O. F.—St. Lawrence Lodge meets this evening at 8 o'clock.

MASONIC.—The brethren of Victoria Lodge, A. F. & A. M., will please remember the regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY will meet for practice at a quarter to eight o'clock this evening.

NEW LOSTER FACTORIES.—There is quite a boom in lobster factory buildings at Wallace, N. S. There are four additional factories going up on the coast.

TRANKS.—The officers and men of No. 3 Company, 82nd Battalion, wish to thank Mr. Benjamin DesBrisay for the papers he gave for the use of the association.—D. Stewart, Capt.

FPWORTH LEAGUE.—The Wesley Mission Band will conduct the exercises at the literary meeting of the League this evening. Subject: China. An interesting programme has been prepared. All are welcome.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION LECTURES.—The subject to-morrow night (Tuesday) will be, "The stem of flowering plants in all its forms and modifications." The last hour will be devoted to discussion, and instruction in Field Botany.

CHINA AND THE CHINESE.—The young ladies of the Wesley Mission Band will have an evening on "China," in the parlour of the First Methodist church to-night commencing at 8 o'clock. Go and hear about this interesting country, and the manners and customs of the people. Admission free.

Now that the gripe is ravaging the country, it behooves us to keep in a condition to defy it, and for this purpose there is nothing better than Everybody's Pills. 25 cents invested in this popular family medicine now may save that many dollars later.

PEO FACTORY BURNED.—A disastrous fire occurred in Truro Tuesday night, when J. Lewis & Son's peg factory was burned to the ground. There was no insurance and quite a number of workmen will be thrown out of employment.

DIPHTHERIA AT BONSHAW.—Another death from diphtheria is reported from Bonshaw. A young lad named Paul, whose parents reside at Kingston, died yesterday. He was serving his time with Peter McKinnon, tailor, at whose house he died.

Twenty to thirty per cent discount on boots at Stamper's Corner. Now is the time to get bargains as the stock must be sold.

TEACHERS MEETING.—At the teachers' meeting on Saturday evening the subject under discussion was "The Best Methods of Teaching Arithmetic in Primary Departments." An interesting and instructive paper on the subject was read by Miss Brown, and a general discussion followed.

THE MASONIC BAZAAR Sewing Circle will meet on Wednesday, March 9th, at 2:30, as usual. There will also be a Circle the same evening at 7:30, to which we invite all who attend in the afternoon, and not only those but every woman who would like to aid in the erection of a building, greatly needed, which will be an ornament to our city.

SPECIAL SERMONS.—The first of a series of sermons on "The Church," to be given in St. Dunstan's Cathedral during Lent, was delivered last evening by the Rev. Ronald McDonald, parish priest of Rusvic, to a large congregation. His subject was "Faith," and it was ably and eloquently handled. The series will include sermons on Unity, Sanctity, Catholicity, Apostolicity, and Infallibility. The next discourse will be on "Unity." Rev. Michael McMillan will be the preacher.

FOURTY HOURS DEVOTION.—The services of the Forty Hours Devotion will be at nine o'clock, and on Thursday morning at eight o'clock. On Wednesday and Thursday mornings the Low Masses will begin at half-past five and continue until eight. There will also be the usual services each evening.

LESSIVE PHENIX is the magic solution before which all dirt and stains disappear. No man who has used it would be without it. It is so effective. It does so much. It does all perfectly. First, it takes the place of the common washing powders, with their injurious chemical properties. It makes the wash easy. You don't require soap. It makes the water soft and it makes everything you wash as clean as a new pin. more, it restores faded color to goods. Try it upon your flannels, cottons, and anything washable.

OMISSIONS SUPPLIED.—Mr. John McMurter, the defendant in the road case, reported on Saturday, writes THE EXAMINER to say that there are several omissions in the notice as published, viz.,

1st. That the majority of the witnesses testified that the roads were passable for loads every day during the time complained of.

2nd. That the roads had been broken in the places where they are usually broken during the winter season.

3rd. That I had offered to deliver the returns duly sworn to, to the Supervisor before I was sued, and that the Supervisor for some unaccountable reason refused to receive them.

POLICE COURT.—This morning a young man named Newton McDowell was given a month's imprisonment with hard labor for attempting to commit larceny from the premises of Mr. Geo. J. Wright, on K. at Street. McDowell admitted having removed a ladder a distance of about fifty yards and entering the premises by means of a window. After getting inside he found no booty, and made his escape by the way he had entered.

Benj. Byers, the colored man against whom the Marshal laid information for wife beating on Saturday, was given two months' imprisonment with hard labor. Mrs. Byers, a daughter of the late "Black" Byers, a fine $5 and costs, and two drunks were disposed of for fines of $2 or 8 days and $3 or 14 days each.

Local and Other Items.

NO SKATING at the rink to-night.

Go to the Baptist vestry to-night and hear Mr. McNeil's lecture. Chair taken at 7.45. Silver collection.

GENTLE REMINDER.—We wish to remind our many customers that our new hard and soft hats are now open; style new, quality good and prices low—Prowse Bros., the wonderful cheap men.

We have a lot of children's hats which we have put upon the counter to-day at 75 cents each—Harris & Stewart.

NOTICE.—All who are interested in forming a Merchants' Protection Union will please take notice that a meeting for that special object will be held in the lecture room of the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock this evening.

THE TANGLE made her way into Picton yesterday. She left Picton for Georgetown this morning, and reached her destination shortly after eleven. She will leave Georgetown for Picton to-morrow morning.

THE HARBOR LIGHT.—There was a large and well-behaved audience at the Harbor Light on Saturday night. Mrs. J. J. Davies very kindly provided the refreshments. We understand that in future ladies will be admitted by ticket.

DOGS.—Your collars have arrived and are selling fast. Call early and secure one at W. E. Dawson's.

TOO GOOD TO KEEP QUIET OVER.—In our advertisement of Saturday we did not mention the fact that one feature of our lace curtains sale is 100 pairs low and medium priced goods, bought at a special price and selling astonishingly cheap.—Beer Br's.

W. C. T. U.—During the month of March the W. C. T. U. will meet on Monday at 8 p. m., instead of 3:30. All interested, and especially those who wish to form a Y, are cordially invited to be present.

FARMS SOLD.—The farm of the late David Welsh, at Cornwall, was sold at private sale by the executors to-day and bought by Mr. Joseph A. Hartz, of North River. Mr. Hartz disposes of the farm at North River owned by himself to Mr. John Walker, of the same place.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.—A naughty little boy struggled and kicked in vain this morning to free himself from the grasp of a man who was carrying him bodily to school. Quite a number of small boys looked on with delight at the frantic attempts of the culprit to escape from his custodian.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—The Emerald Branch of the Benevolent Irish Society are making great preparations for St. Patrick's celebration this year. It is going to be the best yet, as they have certainly secured some of the very best talent on the island for the occasion. Rev. Allen J. McDonald, of Fort Augustus, is to deliver the oration. A great treat is store for all who attend.

BASKET SOCIAL.—One of the popular basket socials for which Cornwall has become celebrated is announced to take place in the Factory there, on the evening of Wednesday, 9th inst. Let everyone get a pleasant gathering is assured. Proceeds in aid of the parsonage fund. If the weather should prove unfavorable the social will be held on the next following fine evening.

Personal

Dr. Barrack, of Kensington, is in the city. Mr. Rupert B. Norton, of the firm of Norton and Fennell, hardware merchants, returned home from his trip abroad on Saturday afternoon, looking well.

It is pleasing to see that Rev. Alexander Macaulay, of the Cathedral staff, has sufficiently recovered from his illness to resume work again.

Rev. Peter Curran, of Tracadie, and Ronald J. Gillis, of St. Peter's are in the city. Joseph Unsworth, Esq., Superintendent of the Island railway, and his private secretary, Mr. Bagnall, Rev. James Carruthers, a Captain Richards, were amongst the passengers in the Stanley to-day. They arrived in the city by train this afternoon.

Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., crossed at the Cape to-day en route to Ottawa.

Mr. Frank Trainor, son of James Trainor, Esq., of Charlottetown, for some time past the reporter staff of the Daily Inter-Mountain, published at Battle City, Montana, has resigned his position and gone to Helena to work for Fraser & Chalmers, dealers in electrical machinery. The Inter-Mountain speaks highly of Mr. Trainor's efficiency as a journalist, and regrets his retirement from the staff of the paper.
