Induction Of Rev. L. M. MacNaughton At Marshfield

In St. Columba's Church, Marshfield, the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island in solemn ceremony on Tuesday evening, May 26th, inducted the minister-elect, the Reverend Lee M. MacNaughton, B. A., into the Pastoral Charge of Marshfield.

The Moderator, the Rev'd Donald Nicholson, presided and conducted the worship, assisted by the Clerk, the Rev'd. T. H. B.

Somers, and the Rev'd. M. C. Currie, who preached a thoughtful sermon on the text, "Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning." (St. Luke XII, 35).

After the interim-moderator had narrated the steps leading up to the Call, the Moderator put the prescribed questions to the Minister and to the congregation and, having received satisfactory answers, offered prayer and solemnly inducted the minister-elect into the pastorate of this Charge. The Formula was then signed and the right hand of fellowship given by the Presbytery. The Charge to the Minister was delivered by the Reverend Donald Nicholson and the Charge to the Congregation by the Rev'd T. H. B. Somers. The music of the service was under the direction of Miss MacFarlane. A reception was held in the Manse at the close in honour of the new Minister and the Presbytery.

The Rev'd L. M. MacNaughton graduated in theology this spring from The Presbyterian College, Montreal, and was ordained by the Presbytery of Halifax and Lunenburg earlier this month.

Strange But True

gave way to the pence mark (d) as at present.

In the U. S. census of 1870 a record was obtained of the head of a family who had named his five children Ingrid, Finis, Appendix, Aduendum and Eratum!

Strange names without reference to the trade carried on are frequently met with. Violet, Primrose and Wallflower was a former London firm. Hood and Blood was the sign above a Liverpool shop.

Two teachers in a Floridian town were known as Jones and Huggs. Jones taught the males, and Huggs the females.

A brand new machine takes papers up to 11 inches wide and of any length, reducing them to 1 40 inch size. Working at the rate of 500 a minute, the gadget can record 29,000 bank cheques on a 100-foot roll of 16mm. film. Documents drop in sequence, into a receiving hopper after being micro-filmed. The amazing machine is called a "microfiler".

The lamoids, which are a branch of the camel family, thrive in the Andes ranges of South America so high up that neither tree nor man can exist there. Like the llamas and alpacas, the lamoid like high altitudes and thin air.

The average man weighs 164 3/4 pounds and stands 5 feet, 9 inches tall.

The twenty-second and twenty-fourth president of the United States was once a hangman. Grover Cleveland was elected sheriff of Erie County, N.Y., in 1870, and while serving in this capacity he hanged Pat Morrissey and Jack Gaffney, the former for murdering his own mother, and the latter for killing a well known citizen by the name of Patrick Fahey. As sheriff it was Cleveland's duty to spring the gallows trap.

Thus it came about that on Feb. 14, 1872 Grover Cleveland opened the trap that sent Gaffney to his death.

Five months later Cleveland performed the same grim task and Morrissey paid the supreme penalty to the state of New York.

Later Grover Cleveland became the only president ever to send a man to death, via the gallows. "After sliring 40 kids, a billy goat owned by Bill Adams, of Jackson, Miss., decided he's rather be a female. The goat grew an udder and is now producing milk."
