A NIGHT SONG.

Under the white moon, Nita,
 The lilies lie awake,
 And red as blood in flower and bud,
 And all for your sweet sake,
 The eager rose o'erleaps the close
 And climbs the columned wall
 To hide his face in the drifts of lace
 That over your lattice fall.

The dead sweet scent of the woodbine
 Some languid breeze hath stirred,
 And out of the dark, dew haunted par
 Floats the pipe of a restless bird,
 And far and faint the gurgle and plaint
 Of the wood brook sounds alone
 As I listen and pine for some answering
 sign,
 Some whisper of thine, my own!

I lie with the lilies, Nita,
 Under thy lattice bars,
 And the infinite night brims over
 With the glory of moon and stars,
 And the wooing woodbine's passionate spice
 Out of the darkness blows
 And faints and dies with the mingled sighs
 Of perfumed lily and rose.

Yet rest thee, my beloved, since
 No prayer of mine may win
 The crystal walls of slumber
 That shut thee softly in.
 But, oh, that the mystic angel
 Who keepeth the pearly key
 Of sleep would open some door of dreams
 And lead thee, sweet, to me
 —Emma Alice Brown in New York Ledger.

BUFFALO BILL'S START.

Here Accident Made the Well Known Scout a Showman.

An old Nebraskan was speaking of Buffalo Bill recently, and incidentally he told how he came to engage in the show business.

"Cody was for years a government scout on the western plains," said the Nebraskan man, "and it was when he conducted the buffalo exterminating expedition for the entertainment of the Grand Duke Alexis in 1870—I think it was—that he got his name. Cody at that time distinguished himself by the number of buffaloes he killed, and thereby earned his cognomen, which was given him by the duke. While he was well known as a scout, he would probably have never been widely known as a showman except for an accident.

"It was in 1881 that the people of North Platte, Neb., near which town was Cody's ranch, decided to celebrate the Fourth of July, and at the suggestion of John Kieth, who is a wealthy ranchman at Sutherland and North Platte and formerly claim adjuster of the Union Pacific, they selected a wild west show. Cody was one of the men most prominently interested in the scheme, and to him was left the work of securing the cowboys and Indians to help out the show. In North Platte at the time was an old stagecoach owned by Jim Stephenson of Omaha, who was the proprietor of the Deadwood-Sidney and other western stage lines. At the suggestion of Cody the Indians were to attack the coach and be repulsed by the cowboys and soldiers.

"That Fourth was the hottest celebration of American independence ever seen in Nebraska. The Omaha papers had men to cover it, and it attracted a crowd from all parts of the west. The programme which Cody and Kieth arranged included riding wild horses, shooting, rope throwing and all the other amusements and business proceedings of a western man.

"It was a few days after the entertainment, if such it may be called, that Matt Kieth, no relation of John, but an old time western man, told Cody that it was a big thing and ought to be repeated every Fourth of July. Cody at once said that it was something new in American entertainments, and he believed that by taking the aggregation east he could make money. The matter was discussed in North Platte, and finally Cody said that he would advance the money and start out. He did so, and his success is well known.

"When he first started, he had but a small show, but he has added to it. He got with him Major Burke, Sherm Canfield, Bill McCune, and last, but by no means least, Nate Salisbury. There was a quartet that cannot be beat, and with Cody boomed the business. Bill has made and spent a dozen fortunes and is today making money like a cranberry merchant."—New York Press.

After coughs and colds the germs of consumption often gain a foothold. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites will not cure every case; but, if taken in time, it will cure many. Even when the disease is farther advanced, some remarkable cures are effected. In the most advanced stages it prolongs life, and makes the days far more comfortable. Everyone suffering from consumption needs this food tonic.

Dr. Marpillero, an eminent Italian scientist, has for a number of years been making experiments and observations relating to children's ideas of life and death, and has published his experiences. He found that in answering questions about life the poorer children almost invariably took a brighter view than the rich.

The money taken in at a prizefight is rightly called "box receipts."—Pittsburg Press.

DOES IT PAY TO TIPPLE.

You know it don't. Then why do you do it? I know why. It requires too much self-denial to quit. The Dixon Cure, which is taken privately, is purely vegetable, is pleasant to the taste, and will cure you of all desire for liquor in two or three days, so that you would pay five cents for a barrel of beer or whiskey. You can eat heartily and sleep soundly from the start, and be better in every way, in both health and pocket, and without interfering with business duties. Write in confidence for particulars. Mr. A. Hutton Dixon, No. 40 Park Avenue, Montreal.

JEWELRY JOTTINGS.

Jeweled "dog collars" to wear with evening dress are as fashionable this season as they were last year.

Pearl necklaces that fit the neck closely, after the fashion of a collar, are as becoming as they are popular.

Bracelets are much worn. There are three popular styles—those that slip over the hand, limp chain bracelets and narrow bangles.

Special receptacles are now designed for special flowers, popular examples being chrysanthemum vases, aster and orchid vases, rose bowls and the like.

The English fashion of wearing letter brooches, usually the initial of the wearer's name, is here. These initial brooches are in most cases set with gems.

The newest chatelaines boast of from eight to ten chains, from which dangle an astonishing variety of knickknacks, such as tablets, pencils, powder boxes, purses, etc.—Jewelers' Circular.

Paper Gas Pipes.
 Paper gas pipes are now made. Manilla paper is cut in strips equaling in width the length of the pipe to be made. These are passed through a vessel filled with melted asphalt and then wrapped firmly and uniformly round an iron core until the required thickness is attained. These pipes are claimed to be perfectly gas tight and are said to be much cheaper than iron pipes.

All Right.
 "What do you mean," glared the editor, "by saying here that 'if you can get money legitimately in politics, take her? Why do you put money in the feminine gender?'"
 "Because she talks," grinned the reporter.—Detroit Free Press.

A PRIVATE DETECTIVE
 After a Government Official

We are in the Dairy Supply business to stay, notwithstanding the unfair competition of an official whose travelling expenses are paid out of the public funds. We pay our own, and will compete with any of the Quebec houses thus represented, for quality of workmanship in cheese vats, cream vats, either single or duplex, portable or stationary, tempering or receiving vats, and all other Dairy Supplies in stock or to order at short notice.

We have on hand Alpha Separators which return more money to the patrons than any other.

Separator oil that will insure safer running at extreme speed than any other on the market.

Butter Boxes for storing and shipping butter in.

Dairy plants that will run without an expert engineer on hand.

Boiler that will save fuel over any other that has been imported so far. Engines that do not require to be driven to extreme speed to obtain enough power. All work warranted for one year.

FOR SALE.
RARE CHANCE

The property occupied by J. J. Gay and son situate in the village of Pownal, 7 miles from Charlottetown, is offered for sale. The proprietors have carried on a large market garden nursery, and seed business for thirty years, and the purchaser will no doubt obtain a large share of the local trade. The premises comprise a large dwelling house, a store, warehouse, barn, shed, orchard, and about 15 acres of the most fertile land on the island. This land has been manured year after year, for so long that an old man said the other day, "It is all a bed of manure and could be hauled for top dressing." This would be an ideal spot for a country merchant, or it would be profitable for a summer resort. The situation is one of the most beautiful on the island. Good bathing, fishing, boating, shooting and within easy distance churches, post office school telephone and shops all at the door.
