

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND WALKER

Island Girl Marries In Calgary, Alberta

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Pleasant Heights United Church by Reverend J. Spencely when Ethel Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.A. Bell, Wood Islands, Prince Edward Island was united in marriage with Raymond Wesley Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Walker, Sangudo, Alberta.

The bride, escorted to the altar by Mr. R. R. Weir of Calgary, wore a full length gown of brocaded bridal satin. Her head-dress consisted of a bandeau of brocaded pearl with a finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of deep red and white roses and wore two strands of pearls, gift of the groom.

Miss Ann Bell, sister of the bride, was maid of honour and wore a full length dress of ice-ber crystaline and carried a cascade colonial bouquet of pink and white mums with stephanotis.

Best man was Warren Hanna, friend of the groom. Mr. Alfred Olafson and Mr. Lloyd Allen, the groom's brothers-in-law, ushered the guests to their seats.

Mr. Harold Thornton, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony and "Because" during the signing of the register.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Joyous Companionship Is Provided By Pets!

It was the poet Masefield who wrote thus of the season at hand: "Oh to feel the beat of the rain And the homely smell of the earth. Is a tune for the blood to jig on A joy past power of words; And the blessed green comely meadows Are all a-ripple with mirth At the noise of the lambs at play And the dear wild cry of the birds."

And if we had no spring-rain today, the meadows were "a-ripple" with the song of the birds. This evening too in the dimming afterglow, when the wind-of-today had gone to rest and all was hushed and still, we watched with Mack a company of lambskins at play.

"They had come then with the ewes to the front meadow, which gently sloping descends from our yards to the millstream below. Like so many children they played, indeed it seemed in joyous companionship and with every accord."

Mack chuckled "See then get set for the race! They line up just like children", he whispered at the wonder of it. And they were off smartly and while some came in behind the others at the far end of the course all turned there and raced back again to the vicinity of the point of departure, repeating it all over again, knowingly.

"How do they know what to do?" he questioned.

"How does the pup know what time you'll be home from school? Or when to watch for you, coming in sight at the hilltop? How can he tell when you are prepared to go somewhere, whether it's to classes or on a trip with him along the fields? You don't have to tell him. He knows!"

"It's a strange thing, isn't it?" he nodded.

A spell of angling after school, which took him in to join Gage, brought first cowslips' gold home in a bouquet to his mother in the house across the lane. And a catch, to be divided impartially according to the number of members in each household, with the allowance a bit surprising in its newness, "And Alex too!" being smilingly added. "I believe Ellen, I'll just lie here on the couch for a while" James says in now from the May - dank and the choring. "There'll be more lambs shortly we'll have to see to, and besides we must make sure that new litter in the piggery — see again before we can go to bed — the young lad and I. You might perhaps get me a bite of something. It's been quite a spell since we had our supper."

This is not a cold night to be abroad in. Neither is it summery. Something hot that bite should be. Coffee? Yes and... "Doughnuts, eh!" James smiles. "They're filling!" he nods. Until tomorrow — — Diary —

HOUSEHOLD HINT

With the trend toward Colonial architecture and furniture, the natural beauty of wood has come back into its own. If you have time and energy, but lack money, you can work wonders with ordinary painted woodwork and furniture.

Apply paint remover, scrape it off and sand the wood to show the grain. Then it can be preserved with wax, varnish or shellac.

Beautiful C.G.I.T. Girl Sends Greetings Here

The young Toronto girl, Miss Anne Marie Currie, who was chosen by the society photographer, Gerald Campbell, as a representative Canadian beauty was also described as an all-round Canadian girl. The fact that Miss Currie has been for some time a Canadian Girl in Training is also of interest to the many wonderful young girls in that organization.

The following letter in the most beautiful handwriting was sent to a Prince Edward Island resident. It is of interest in that Miss Currie is a representative Canadian beauty, a representative Canadian girl and a representative C.G.I.T. person.

Miss Currie very kindly gave permission "to use any part of the letter you think would be of interest."

The following is the letter — Please accept my sincere apologies for not having answered your letter of 2nd of April last. The only excuse I have to offer is that my sister, Noreen was married on Saturday, May 3rd and our household was anything but normal.

The wedding day came with rain but brightened considerably when it came time for Noreen to leave for the church. I think Noreen and her husband are now on their way south but of course I can't be sure.

At Easter, my family and I went to our home town of Collingwood to my Grandmother and Grandfather's. I think I am a "small-town" girl at heart because I would rather spend a weekend at Collingwood (which is about 100 miles north of Toronto) then a weekend in New York at Easter.

As for my "one-and-only", I think I have found him and his name is Tom. We have been going together well over a year now and I hope I follow in my sister's footsteps sometime in the future.

Tom and myself and Tom's mother are planning to do a little bit of travelling on our holidays in October. We hope to see some of the States and also a little more of our own country but will try and get a week in at my family's cottage at Georgian Bay.

The cottage is another one of my favorite vacation spots at any time of the year. Tom and I also hope to spend the weekend at the cottage with my parents in the summer.

I hope I have given you some idea of my plans for the future months and years and I would also like to take this opportunity to thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending me your kind letter.

Please say a special "Hello" to the C.G.I.T. in Charlottetown. Yours very sincerely,
ANNE MARIE CURRIE

Caseley - Cotton Wedding Solemnized In Hamilton

At a double ring ceremony in Grace Anglican Church, Hamilton, Ont., Dorcas Isabel Cotton and Walter Don Caseley were joined in Holy Matrimony by the Rev. F. L. Myers on April 12, 1958.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Athol Cotton, Kensington, and the bride groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. David Caseley, also of Kensington, Prince Edward Island.

The lovely young bride wore a street length dress of white brocaded net over satin with matching headpiece, and carried red roses. She was attended by her friend Miss Frances Henderson of Kensington and Ottawa, da-

Before leaving for Hamilton the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents. On this occasion pink and white streamers lent a festive air to the dining room to which the bride-to-be was escorted by their friend Mrs. David Bryenton, while nuptial music was played by her aunt, Mrs. Clark Harding.

Shanna Cotton and June Harding small cousins of the bride-elect wheeled in the parcels which were opened by Misses Pauline Caseley and Joyce Harrington. The names and good wishes were read by Miss Eleanor Noonan and the gifts were attractively arranged by Mrs. Harry Caseley and Miss Norri-Proffitt.
