

Dead Letter Office

Dear Editor:

In response to the "Fact and Opinion: UPEI Milestones Edition" piece published on March 20:
Fact
Mr. Stephen MacLeod (sic) authored the above article, and it was published by the CADRE using funds, at least in part, from UPEI student fees.
Opinion
This tasteless, humorless, badly-informed, poorly-written, foul-mouthed trash is an insult to students, alumni, staff and faculty of the University. It tells us far more about the mind of the author than about the history of the institution.

Yours truly,

Andy Robb, History Department
Deena Robb, School of Business

Dear Andy, and Deena:

Usually in this space it would be my great pleasure to reply to your letter. I would probably mention something like the fact that Stephan (a not e) gets paid nothing for writing, and that the hardest thing to write is humour, and he is a near genius at it, I would also question what gives you the right to speak on behalf of the: "students, faculty, alumni and staff" since I am both a student and an alumni and I know at least fifty others who, to my lament, think F & O is the best part of this paper and I would probably also question the fiscal responsibility of such things as the Internship program and the University Teaching Centre, but instead I have invited Stephan to respond himself-Ed.

In response to the Robb's letter:

1) I take great offence at being called badly-informed.

2) Since I work as the Ad Manager for the Cadre I pay for the Fact & Opinion page through dollars earned from advertisers. No student fees were spent publishing my page of the paper.

3) I find it funny that it took two people to write one Fact and Opinion that was not funny when I write 30 a week that are not funny.

4) The Fact & Opinion tells little about the mind of the author because I don't have one.

5) Fact: Everyone is entitled to their opinion.
Opinion: Speaking on behalf of the students, alumni, staff and faculty of the University can be troublesome since most of them don't know how to read.

6) D'em's is fighting words. Meet me at the Burger King Friday night. I'll be the guy in the pick-up truck with the confederate flag licence plate-S.M.

That ought to cover it, unless you have any more questions?-Ed.

Dear Editor:

Ever since I read your Editorial the other day, I have not been able to eat a banana. I have eaten a banana almost every day since I was twelve and have never thought of bananas as excrement. This is not the sort of thing I expect to read about in the paper. Judging from recent editions of The Cadre, this is the sort of thing I should be expecting.

-Libby Holden

Dear Libby:

Sorry Libby, what can I say, sometimes a banana is just a banana and sometimes it is analagous to student politics-Ed.

Dear DLO:

Maybe next time you do a newspaper you can put a little variety into it. This week's issue is all politics and rap. I think politics is a complete waste of time (I am not going to vote in the SU election) and I hate rap so I didn't bother reading anything. The Fact and Opinion article is good though. This place really is a shithole.

-Richard Lemmons

Dear Richard:

I take great offence to your tasteless, humorless, badly-informed, poorly-written, foul-mouthed trash and I am shocked it is being published using student fees raised by the students of this "shithole"-Ed.

THE CADRE

a student union publication

Kent J. Bruyneel	Editor-In-Chief
Heather Christie	Graphic Design
Sarah K. Murphy	News Editor
Stephan MacLeod	Ad Manager
Ryan O'Connor	A & E Editor
Marc MacDonald	Sports Editor
Brian Herrell	Circulation Manager
Danica Jackson	Photographer

Comrades:

Jim-beau Lieyeah
Leo Cheverie
Jeff Coll
Matthew MacKay
Stephen McQuaid
Tim Aiken
David MacDonald
Trevor Nicholson
Matthew Hogan
Adam Gauthier
Fathead

Propoganda:

The Cadre is published by the student union of U.P.E.I.

The Cadre is a member of Canadian University Press (C.U.P.)

The Cadre is the founding member of the Cadre Press Syndicate. Est. 1969.

Contact:

Send letters to
Dead Letter Office,
Basement of Main Building (06)
or email:

newspaper@upei.ca