To the Electors of Georgetown and Royalty.

GENTLEMEN,—

AT the desire of a large number of you, I am induced to come forward as a candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election. My principles and views are so familiar to you, from daily and personal intercourse, that a promulgation of them here is unnecessary. Should I be returned as your Representative, you may rest assured that, next to the general welfare of the Colony, the interests of Georgetown and Royalty shall be my "Carthage and delenda."

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
JOHN ROSS.

Georgetown, June 18th, 1853.

To the Electors of Georgetown and Royalty.

GENTLEMEN;

I AM induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the forthcoming General Election, in consequence of the many generous offers of support which I received from my friends during my recent visit amongst you. I am no Office-holder, and therefore I can represent you fearlessly and independently, without being shackled in my votes by the undue influence of the Government. The true interests of this new country will never be studied or cared for, so long as the popular branch of the Legislature is composed of greedy Officials, who are bound hand and foot to support the Government, upon every subject, as the overwhelming majority of their Constituents upon the subject. Under such a despotic system, a Member of the House of Assembly is no the Representative, but the Government's political slave. Should I obtain, for the third time, the distinguished honor of being returned as one of your Representatives in the Colonial Parliament, rest assured I will be second to none in attempting to carry out all measures that may have the slightest tendency to advance the prosperity and local improvement of Georgetown and Royalty.

I remain, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
June 19, 1853. T. HEATH HAVILAND.

To the Independent Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,—

THE dissolution of the House of Assembly now affords me an opportunity of coming forward and honestly endeavouring to improve my position and the rights of which I have been unjustly deprived, in this my native land, by a majority in the House of Assembly, who obtained their ascendancy therein by means of false representations, epidemy, and deceit—their real aim and object—as time and events have proved—being, not the promotion of the common welfare of the people and advancement of the general interests, but merely the aggrandizement of themselves and the furtherance of their own selfish and sordid views.

Feeling assured within myself that I have ever been desirous to advance the prosperity of my country; and satisfied that I enjoy the confidence of the well-disposed and intelligent portion of the community—of which the most gratifying manifestation has lately been made to me, by thousands of my friends and fellow-countrymen who have come forward in forwarding to me an expression of their disapprobation of my ejectment from the office of Queen's Printer, and of their approval of the manner in which I acted, with regard to public economy, and fidelity to the Government, I discharged the duties of that appointment for a long series of years—I venture to make you a tender of my services, as one of your Representatives in the Assembly, with a confidence in the result, for which, perhaps, in no other circumstances, could I have found a sufficient warrant.

The time has now arrived when you, in common with your brother electors throughout the Island, have a right to exercise, and, by your influence, to say, as respects that majority, whether the changes which have been accomplished by them, have not in the main, been much less for the public benefit, than for their own aggrandizement, with the regard to public economy, and fidelity to the Government, I discharged the duties of that appointment for a long series of years—I venture to make you a tender of my services, as one of your Representatives in the Assembly, with a confidence in the result, for which, perhaps, in no other circumstances, could I have found a sufficient warrant.

The time has now arrived when you, in common with your brother electors throughout the Island, have a right to exercise, and, by your influence, to say, as respects that majority, whether the changes which have been accomplished by them, have not in the main, been much less for the public benefit, than for their own aggrandizement, with the regard to the present occupants of Public Offices have proved themselves as worthy of their several appointments, and as capable of discharging the Colonial duties, as the long-tried and efficient Public Servants who were discarded, to make way for their advancement; and if, for one, am strongly inclined, from my knowledge of the general character of the section of the people, with respect to these questions, to look forward to such an immediate change in the personal constitution of the Assembly, as will put an overwhelming power in the hands of much more capable and deserving, than they upon whom the deceived people conferred it at the last General Election.

I have ever been forward, as opportunities have occurred, to exert myself with a view to the advancement of the best interests of my country; and, on occasions of trial and difficulty, I have been afraid to devote myself to the cause of the people, in opposition to the arbitrary will of the man in power, regardless of the consequences to myself—injury and, on more than one occasion, have I employed my Press and stood forward as the champion of the People's Rights, in opposition to an unconstitutional and tyrannical assumption of authority. On these facts, I need not now enlarge; for they are well known to, and, I hope, duly appreciated also by many of you.

A long time—now 40 years—in public life, I am intimately acquainted, not only with the open, but, I think, I may say, with the secret history of this country also, of all the changes which have occurred, in this Island during that period; and this knowledge, coupled with the experience which I have acquired, in the discharge of various important public duties, in such as, I trust, has qualified me, in some degree, for the discharge of the onerous and important duties of a Legislative Representative of the People.

The short trial which we have had of the New System of Government, has, I think, been sufficient to convince the people that it already demands some Rectification at their hands. It is, in my opinion, a mistake—which, if persisted in, may, at one time or another, prove a source of serious evil to the interests—to require any of the Public Officers, besides the Colonial Secretary and the Attorney General, to have seats in the Assembly. The Treasurer, and other Officers connected with the Collection of the Revenue, ought, I think, to be held ineligible to seats in the Legislature.

The new lively an interest I have always taken in the progress of the Colony, it will be sufficient for me to state that scarcely a single Public Undertaking, at all likely to bear benefically on the general welfare, but has received my hearty foot, to which I have not lent a helping hand, either by means of the Press, my purse, my personal exertions, or by all these together: as, for instance, in the Road Company's scheme for the first Steam Boat, the first Steam Mill, and the first Falling and Cloth-dressing Mill; besides Public Wharfs, School Houses, Bridges and Churches; to all of which, for the promotion of the public well-being, convenience, comfort, or advantage in one way or other, I have freely lent my aid.

Practical and economical reform, to be determined upon by the Assembly, for the amelioration of the condition of the Tenantry. To that end, a measure should be brought forward and carried, for the ascertaining of just and equitable compensation for their improvements, to worthy and industrious men, who may, through misfortune, be liable to Ejectment from their Farms; as such a measure would not only afford a just protection to the Rights of Labour, but prove a powerful stimulus to industry and perseverance, on the part of the Tenantry, in every way for Agriculture.

If returned to the Assembly, I will be prepared to give my assistance to promote the success of any honest and well-digested measure, which may be brought forward for the conversion of the Leasehold into Freehold Tenure.

A more equitable and efficient Road System is a desideratum which would approve of a repeal of the present Statute Labour Act, and the providing for the Road Service, by causing those most interested in it, and benefited by it, to bear the greater part of the burthen.

I am persuaded that the establishment of Rural Municipalities would greatly promote the general improvement of the Colony, and confer many material benefits upon the people. It would not only relieve the Assembly from the discharge of many duties, of which they have not the time properly to attend to, and acquit themselves to the satisfaction of those who are immediately concerned, and shorten the duration of the Session; but enable the people to make for themselves the entire management of their local affairs. A Bill for the erection of such Municipalities, duly guarded in all its provisions, would, therefore, have my support.

I am fully aware of the great advantages which would result to the Colony from Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, upon the broadest basis; and I would cordially and earnestly unite with those in the House in that honorable work to its establishment.

The Free School Act, I am afraid, will not operate so much for the general advantage as it was, at first, expected it would. Duly impressed with the value of education, as I would, therefore, be willing to lend my aid for such an improvement in that Act, as would render it more efficient and acceptable to the great body of the people.

To other interests of public moment, I would also advert, were it not that my doing so would too much extend an Address of this kind. I have, however, I trust, said enough to satisfy you, that, beyond question, the general character and tendency of my political sentiments, and the line of action which I may be expected to pursue, will confer upon me the honor of representing you in the Assembly. But, if I have omitted to state my opinions with respect to any public question, concerning which, as a candidate for your confidence and favor, I ought to have spoken, I shall be happy to remedy the omission when I meet you at the Sheriff's Court, on the nomination day.

I will now merely add, that I come forward a free and independent Candidate for your suffrages: that I am bound down by no ties or obligations of party; but, at the same time, am willing and anxious to act in concert with those, whoever they may be, whom I shall have the best reasons to think are most zealously, ably, and honestly seeking to promote the general well-being of the people and the advancement of the Colony.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant,
JAMES D. HASZARD.

Recreation Grove, June 8th, 1853.

To the Electors of Georgetown and Royalty,

GENTLEMEN,—

ENCOURAGED by the cordial promise of support which I have received from many of you, I now offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching General Election.

Although I hold the office of Attorney General, I am unable to perceive why that should render me incompetent to represent you fairly and independently: on the contrary, it returned by you, it is my determination to do so on all occasions; and whilst I shall be prepared to advocate all sound liberal measures, including Responsible Government generally, I shall feel it to be an especial duty to use any legitimate influence which my position may afford me, to advance the local interests of Georgetown and Royalty.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
JOSEPH HENSLEY.

June 16th, 1853.

To the Electors of the Second District of Queen's County

GENTLEMEN;

AT the request of many of yourselves, whose opinions and good wishes I highly value, I am induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing general Election.

Although born and bred amongst you, yet having hitherto moved only in private life, I feel it right to state freely my opinion on the present form of our Constitution. I am desirous to extend to the furthest every privilege which ought to be enjoyed by a British subject, and to protect and reward the industrious agency of the people, by the extension and establishment of Free Trade with the United States, as well as with their surrounding neighbours. And I am the most anxious to support a Liberal system of Responsible Government, I am persuaded that, in carrying out the same, in the Colony, if not all, more interested with the receipt or expenditure of the Public Revenue, ought to be excluded from the Legislature. These being the views which I have imbibed while living by my industry my farm, I shall, if you think that, if honored by your support, so as to be returned one of your Representatives, I shall not fail to advocate such principles, for the advancement of your interests, to the best of my humble ability.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen,
Your most obedt. servant
ALEXANDER M'DONALD

Glenroy, June 17th, 1853.

To the Electors of the Second District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN,—

AT a late hour I am induced to come forward to solicit the honor of representing you in the new House of Assembly. And in obedience to your personal feelings and wishes, I would forbear to do so, but the pressing solicitations which I have received from my old friends and supporters in the other quarter of the District, prompt me to obey the call of duty.

Although I now temporarily hold the office of Solicitor General, I do so merely as a professional duty, than otherwise; and I can assure you, Gentlemen, that my political opinions and sentiments are unchanged—that the tenure of that office shall never interfere in any manner with the full, faithful and conscientious discharge of the duty which I owe my country; and should the holding of the office become at any moment incompatible with my trust as your Representative, I will instantly resign it.

I come before you resting upon my own individual character as a free man, unconnected with all party influences, and desirous only of promoting the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the system of Government, as at present in force in this Colony, has not met your approbation, and is clearly of opinion that to prevent undue influence, and to render it more acceptable to the public at large, the principle established in Canada, that of making it a professional duty connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Moneys are excluded from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am also in favour of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I have previously said, that no measure is so well calculated to benefit our Farmers and open up the resources of the country. These are only a few of the points which should receive the earnest attention of the new House; and upon the character of that House, in my opinion, will depend the future prosperity of the country, or otherwise.

If you should deem me worthy of your choice as a Representative, I trust my experience in a former House of Assembly, will enable me to act more efficiently to discharge my duty towards you. I remain, Gentlemen, Yours, very faithfully,

JOHN LONGWORTH.

Charlottetown, June 20, 1853.

To the Electors of Charlottetown and Royalty.

GENTLEMEN,—

AS A GENERAL ELECTION for Members to serve in Colonial Parliament will shortly take place, I am again induced to offer myself as a Candidate for the Representation of this native Town. I have to rest my claims for a renewal of your confidence on a review of my conduct in the House of Assembly, as your Representative, for the past fourteen years; and if that conduct should be such as to warrant a continuance of your confidence, you may rest assured that I shall pursue the same line of Policy and Principles as heretofore.

This, I think I may be permitted to say, with your accordance, that during the period I have had the honor of representing you in the Assembly, I never gave my support to any measure, however the purpose of obtaining ephemeral or undue popularity, nor voted against the interests of my Constituents for the consideration of any Government.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen,
With much respect,
Your Obliged and Obdt. Servt.,
FRANCIS LONGWORTH.
