CARRIAGES.
 Some of the carriages were, both in point of design and finish, superior to any we have yet seen on exhibition. The buggy, phaeton-buggy and wagon manufacture, and shown by Messrs. McDougall & Seaman, would do credit to any carriage making establishment in the world. We have been asked why were these carriages not sent to the Dominion Exhibition? The reply is that Messrs. McDougall & Seaman could not afford time to send them so great a distance. Messrs. J. & R. Scott exhibited a very fine double-seated wagon, built at three weeks notice for Mr. Westaway, of Georgetown. Mr. John McPhail received many commendations for a beautiful little sleigh, but no prizes were set apart for sleighs. There were not shown any wagons or sleighs suitable for the use of a farmer—plain and strong—fit to drive to the church with a family or to the mill with a grist. Strangely enough our farmers, as a rule, prefer gorgeously painted things with one high seat.
 The first prize buggy, shown by Messrs. McDougall & Seaman, has, we learn, been purchased by Mr. James Millner, of Queen Square Livery Stables, for the use of his customers next summer.
 Messrs. McDougall & Seaman showed a highly finished and very tasteful single-seated wagon, but it was brought too late upon the grounds for the competition; otherwise it would have taken first prize.

IMPLEMENTS.
 There was a fair show of Farm Implements, though competition was not at all brisk, except in farming mills. For these Mr. Angus Gregor, of New Glasgow, carried off first prize; Mr. J. R. Calhoun, of Summerside, second. The potato diggers were tested at the Model Farm. They did not give perfect satisfaction; but that of Mr. McKenzie has been greatly improved since last year.

POULTRY.
 The poultry show surpassed that of any previous year. It is surprising to note the rapid strides which had, of late, been made in poultry breeding. In the show were a great many new varieties of fowl; and people are of opinion that if the interest now manifested in poultry breeding is kept up, next year's show in poultry will be a prominent feature of the exhibition. Mr. Carman, of Rosebank—who is a good poultry breeder—made a fine exhibit of thoroughbred Brahmas, Pekin Ducks, and a bronze turkey goblin weighing thirty-eight lbs. The white-crested black Polish fowl, exhibited by Mr. James D. Irving, were very pretty. White Plymouth rocks, light and dark Brahmas, Cochins, Silver Pencil, Hamburgs, and other varieties, made up the show.

THE BERBANG SEEDLING.
 This is the name of a new variety of potato, shown by Mr. J. Ferguson, of Lot 34. Last year Mr. Ferguson planted one imported half-bushel, and had a return of twenty bushels. This year he planted twelve bushels of the twenty, and has just dug about 200 bushels. The Berbang is a fine, large, white potato—good for the table, and we think it would do well in the British market.

FRUIT.
 The show of fruit is, in the opinion of competent judges, far ahead of any exhibit ever made in the Province. In apples, particularly, the display is fine; while in plums, pears and grapes, the exhibit far surpassed anything we have ever seen in the Province.

TURNIP PULLING MACHINE.
 Messrs. Dawson & Lepage, exhibited a "New patent self acting turnip topper and digger." The machine is an English invention. What new thing will we next hear of?

FLOUR.
 Mr. H. Gates exhibited flour ground at the "Mayflower Mills," and also bread made of the flour. Both were of very fine quality. Better bread could not be made of the best Canadian or American flour.

GRAPES.
 The beautiful clusters of grapes shown by Wm. Heard, Esq., make apparent what can be done by care and skill—even in this climate.

FISH.
 McDonald, McDonald & Co., exhibited some of their boneless fish, which looked very tempting to the appetite.
 Very well-packed mackerel were shown by Donald McKay, Esq., M. P. P. They were put up at his establishment, Rustico. There was a nice exhibit of preserved lobsters.

MUSIC.
 The Band of the 82nd, discoursed good music at the Exhibition. Mr. Galbraith deserves a prize.

OVERCROWDED.
 The "crush" yesterday was remarkable. When shall we have suitable exhibition grounds and buildings?

ADDRESS TO THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.
 The following is the address which was presented to the Lieutenant Governor at the opening of the Exhibition:—

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOR:—The undersigned commissioners appointed to carry out the instructions of the Legislature with reference to the Provincial Exhibition, have the satisfaction to greet your Honor on the present festive occasion with a sincere and hearty welcome.

They have to regret the loss of the long experience and valued co-operation of their esteemed colleague and valued chairman, Mr. Justice Hensley, whose failing health, added to a domestic bereavement, felt almost as such by this whole community—have prevented him from taking his usual prominent part in their proceedings.
 They have however used their best endeavors to secure the success of this exhibition, and they hope and believe that the display of horses and live stock inspected yesterday, and that of industrial products now before your honor, illustrating the labor of the fields, the gardens, the studios, the workshops, and the fisheries of the Province, will compare favorably with any similar display brought forward for inspection on any former occasion.

There are, however, causes clearly recognized by those whose duty it has been to carry out the details of our County and Provincial Exhibitions, which interfere to prevent them from becoming so eminently useful, instructive, and popular, as similar institutions have become amidst other and large communities. These causes it will be the commissioners' duty to refer to in their final report of the proceedings. On the present occasion they deem it not out of place to notice the creditable position attained by the Exhibits of the Island—the garden Province of the Dominion—at the recent gatherings at Montreal and St. John, and to express their confident opinion that that position would have been more prominent had timely notice of the Dominion and New Brunswick Exhibitions been given, by the circulation in this Province of Prize Lists and rules early in Spring.

Exhibitors must, however, remember that if they desire to maintain the prestige the Island has won, their exertions must not be relaxed; they must continue to use their best energies, skill and industry, in order to command success in the impending competition of future years.

Again tendering to your Honor a cordial welcome to this important festival, the undersigned request your Honor to declare this Exhibition to be now open.

Respectfully submitted,
 (Signed)

ITEMS.
 A special prize was awarded to the P. E. Island Pottery Co. for the collection of Pottery on exhibition.

The prize pumpkin weighed 114 pounds, while the prize squash weighed 165 pounds. An incredulous individual wrote on the prize ticket, "This pumpkin is a squash, nevertheless."
 The heaviest mongold exhibited weighed 22 pounds. A number of others weighed 20 pounds.

Mr. G. Herbert Haszard exhibited a splendid assortment of relief stamping in monograms, crests, etc., which were pronounced equal to any done in the Dominion.

About four thousand persons visited the Exhibition yesterday.
 Hon. D. Ferguson exhibited an improved hive, called the Quinby, which contains artificial combs. These make the bees the time usually lost in making them; and to bees, time is honey.

A sample of French carrots, without core, exhibited by Mr. R. Haviland, was highly recommended by the judges. These carrots are a superior article for table use.

The apples shown by Malcolm McLeod, Esq., and the collection by Mr. Abraham Gill, are well worthy of special mention.
 Mr. A. J. Houle exhibited a handsome half horse-power engine made by himself. It is complete in every particular, and the workmanship displayed on it is first-class.

Since writing our notes of the Art exhibit, we learn that the pretty little landscape which drew so much attention yesterday, was painted by Mrs. E. Bayfield. Another very worthy landscape in oil, was painted by Miss Lochhead. It is a most creditable work of art, although it did not receive a prize.

NOTES OF THE CATTLE SHOW.
 "Royal Harry" and "Messenger Boy," have, by the Exhibition, been shown to be very superior stock getters.
 William Weeks, Esq., of this city exhibited a very fine black Carriage Filly. At two years and six months, she weighs 1036 lbs.
