McNeill - Cameron Wedding

St. Paul's Church, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday morning at seven o'clock when Mary Kathleen, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron of Summerside, exchanged marriage vows with Joseph Alexander McNeill, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McNeill of Miscouche, Rt. Rev. Msgr. G. J. MacLellan, Pastor, performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The wedding music was under the direction of Mr. L. B. Gallant.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Cyrus Cameron, the bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white satin, featuring a lace yoke, high neckline, three-quarter length sleeve, fitted bodice and full skirt on train. Her full length veil fell from a halo with seed pearl trim, and she carried a bouquet of Better Time roses.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Clarisse Bernard, was gowned in ice blue lace over taffeta with pink shoulder length veil falling from a wreath of flowers. She wore matching mitts and carried a bouquet of Pink Delight roses. Mr. Ormie McNeill was his brother's groomsmen.

Following the ceremony, the wedding breakfast for eighteen guests was held at Birch Hill Tourist Lodge, where the bride's table with its artistic arrangements of mixed flowers and lighted tapers was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. McNeill left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride travelling in a suit of navy gabardine with blue and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. On return they will reside in Saint John, N. B., where the groom is in the employ of the Canadian National Railway.

Out of the Province guests included the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank Praught of Halifax, N. S.

Bridges-Rayner Wedding

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church Manse in O'Leary yesterday morning at eleven o'clock when Rev. W. G. Dickson united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony, Miss Annie Margaret Rayner of West Devon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rayner, and Mr. James Nelson Bridges of Mount Pleasant, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bridges. The bridesmaid was the sister of the groom, Miss Annie Leonia Bridges, and the best man was the brother of the bride, Mr. Stirling William Rayner.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked the picture of girlish loveliness in her wedding dress with a bouquet to match. The young couple have the good wishes of many friends for a long and happy wedded life. They will reside in West Devon.

Personals

The many friends of Mrs. Frank Murphy, Norboro, are sorry to learn of her illness and wish her an early and complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Albany Palmer, and two sons, Barrie and Grant, of St. John, N. B., were recent guests of Mrs. Palmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Douglas, Norboro.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lawless and son, Ralph, of St. John, N. B., paid a recent visit to Norboro, when they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hughes.

Among those attending the Annapolis Valley Apple Blossom Festival, were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davison, Kensington and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Saint, Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Priddy Johnson, Summerside, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Profit, Long River, left Friday to attend the Apple Blossom Festival in the Annapolis Valley.

Mrs. B. F. Egerly, Cardville, Me., spent the past week with her stepmother, Mrs. Hattie Wickett, Kensington.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric MacMurdo, Mrs. Archibald MacMurdo, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Paynter, Miss Ethel Callaghan, Mrs. Stirling Millar, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Caseley, Mr. Arnold Walker, Miss Georgie Yeo, Mr. John Picketts, Mrs. Percy MacMurdo, and Mrs. Bertha Walker all of Kelvin Grove, were among those attending the Drama Festival finals at Charlottetown.

Bedeque Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph MacCaull, Carleton Place, were guests of relatives and friends at Hunter River and Fredericton last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reeves motored to Rothesay, N. B., where they visited with relatives over the week-end.

Rev. and Mrs. W. Burton Crowe returned to the Manse on Thursday evening, the 24th, from a brief visit to the mainland. They were accompanied on their return by Mr. Crowe's mother, Mrs. Alice Crowe, Mattland, N. S.

Mrs. Bruce Davison, her daughter, Mrs. Morgan and her two little grand daughters, Heather and Anne, Fredericton, N. B., are visiting relatives in Charlottetown, Tryon and Fernwood. While in Fernwood, they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacFarlane.

The Rev. E. J. O. Fraser, D. D. of Korea, was the speaker in Bedeque United Church, Sunday morning, the 20th. There was a large congregation. Mr. Fraser was listened to with rapt attention as he related the sad condition of the Korean people. Among the many needs of the people special mention was made of the need for clothing. While in Bedeque, Mr. Fraser was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Crowe at the Manse. Mr. Fraser was pastor of the Margate United Church some years ago.

The Presbyterian Young Adult Group, Kensington, recently presented a play entitled: "Three Days of Grace," a farce in three acts, in the Central Bedeque Hall. This play was sponsored by the South Bedeque Women's Institute. It was regarded by many as one of the best plays put on by amateurs, seen in this community for some time. The different characters were well chosen for their parts. There was lots of action and excellent performing. The costumes added greatly to the appearance of the actors. The specialties between the acts were much enjoyed by the audience. Worthy of special mention was the instrumental music furnished by Mrs. George Ramsay while the people were gathering and during the sale of candy. This enjoyable evening was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. The ladies of the W. I. then treated the actors to ice cream and cake, after which Mr. Boyd Bearstro moved a vote of thanks to the ladies for their hospitality; replied to by the vice-president of the W. I.

The South Bedeque Evening Auxiliary of the W. M. S. of the United Church, held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. G. A. Britten, for the painstaking care she exercised in instructing the players, and the preparation of the costumes. The cast was as follows: Four soldiers: Wendall Myers, Ian MacFarlane, Lorne Campbell and Wesley Campbell. Saul: Teddy Britten. Ananias: Donnie MacFarlane. Four Disciples: Donnie Waugh, Harry Waugh, Russel Gardner and Carl Wright. Barnabas: Gordon Myers. "The Voice": Eric Jeffery. Travellers: George Campbell, Harold Leard, John Waugh, Arnold Waugh, David Schuurman, Eric Jeffery, Neil Campbell and Gordon Bagnall. These young people are to be congratulated for the manner in which they carried out their respective parts. Music was furnished by a male chorus, also a solo by Miss Elizabeth Harper, of Summerside, accompanied by her mother, Mrs.

On Sunday evening, May 20th, a special service was held in the Central Bedeque Baptist Church. After the devotional period the young men and boys of the congregation presented a Bible play entitled: "Saul in the Desert." This was something out of the ordinary and much credit is due Miss Phyllis Britten, daughter of Rev.

D. Harper. At the close of this interesting service, the pastor, Mr. Britten, thanked the parents for their co-operation and support given his daughter, Phyllis, in the preparation of this play. The meeting closed with a hymn, and prayer by the pastor. There was a large congregation.
