CURRENT NOTES.

Mr. Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, stated that the Government intended to abolish the office of special resident magistrates in Ireland.

Patrick O'Brien, Michael Hynes and Patrick Slater, arrested for printing and forwarding threatening circulars to tradesmen in Dublin, have been further remanded until Friday.

The papal propaganda has issued a supplemental circular to the Irish bishops, enforcing the previous injunction and containing answers to many priests who asked for advice on matters of conscience The propaganda will shortly issue a circular quoting Cardinal Cullen to show that Rome has always opposed seditious associations.

In the British Commons, on the 21st instant, Mr. Porter, Attorney General for Ireland, in reply to a question of Mr. Harrington, member for West Meath, denied that Patrick Delaney, one of the Phœnix Park murderers, had pleaded guilty because of a previous agreement that his life would be spared if he would give evidence to criminate Timothy Kelly.

Thomas Sexton, Member of Parliament for Sligo, in a speech at Dublin on the 20th, referring to the Pope's circular to the Irish clergy, said, the action of the Irish race in relation thereto, would tend to the permanent good of the cause of religion. Sexton urged the avoidance of using words that would postpone a reconciliation which he was sure would soon be established on an honorable basis between the Vatican and the Irish people.

In the year 1720, when George the First was King of England, one John Arbuthnot, a Tory wit, was the author of a drama entitled, "History of John Bull," a burlesque account of the negotiations and wars of the Spanish Succession. From this satire arose the now familiar national name of "John Bull," first given to the clothier who represented England in Arbuthnot's burlesque. The Dutch nation was figured as "Nic Frog," the linendraper; King Charles of Spain was Lord Strutt; his French successor was Philip Baboon, and the great King Louis (the Fourteenth) himself appeared as Louis Baboon.

A special correspondent of the Boston Pilot at Rome, writing on May 8th says: "A report circulated here, and which possibly spread to America, to the effect that the Archbishop of Cashel had been summoned to Rome to be submitted to a reproof for his conduct in regard to the national movement in Ireland is wholly devoid of foundation. The fact of the matter is that Monsignor Croke has been most courteously invited here as one whose position and knowledge gives him special facilities for knowing the condition of the Irish people. The statements that Archbishop Croke will be received with distrust at the Propaganda and that possibly he might be denied an audience with the Pope are wholly at variance with the truth. The direct contrary is the case."

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhœa or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagnia, Hysteria, Pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.

TESTIMONIALS.

The following are a few testimonials from a list of several hundred:—

The capacity of the Stove is surprising. With a No. 8 Stove we cooked for a party of seven, giving them broiled oysters, steak, lamb chops, and baked biscuit, in 45 minutes, at a cost for gas of 4½ cents. On another occasion we gave a dinner in courses of twenty men, the bill of fare as follows: Broiled shad, beef steak, roast quarter of lamb, baked biscuit and coffee; heating the water for washing the dishes four times, re-setting the table three times. All was accomplished in one hour and forty minutes, at an expense for gas of eleven cents. This work was all done on one No. 8 Stove. All were enthusiastic over the manner in which the oysters, fish and meats were cooked; none had experienced any so tender, juicy, and of such full flavor before. We consider the stove a great success, and most complete in all its parts and arrangements

A. C. WOOD, Supt.

I bought one of your No. 12 Gas Cooking Stoves last September, for use in my restaurant, and have used it ever since for baking, broiling and stewing.

I can say for it that it is always ready and does its work rapidly; that there is no dust, no dirt, no surplus heat, as we are using only that portion that we need, and as soon as the article is cooked the gas is extinguished and there is no waste. I think it will do the same amount of work at less cost than coal, even at the high price of gas. It takes much less room than a coal range that would do the same work. I am perfectly satisfied with it and would not be without one for double the price.

J. T. HARKER.

The Gas Stove you sent me, I am glad to say has proved an entire success.

If my testimony is of any value to you, you are at liberty to use it. The decrease in the coal bill more than offsets the increase in the gas ditto. The cooking is excellent and uniform in its operation.

No dirt or dust irritates the careful housewife, and Mrs. S. describes it as a "real treasure."

In my humble opinion, any man who really wants to add to the number of allotted days of his better-half, had better invest in a Gas Stove and save her worry, and himself expense.

W. H. SEYMOUR.

We are perfectly delighted with our Gas Stove. It gives entire satisfaction in every respect.

MRS M. PENNINGTON, 2103 Vine St.

Your favor of the 1st inst. was duly received asking my opinion of the Gas Cooking Stove bought last May, and in reply, would state that the satisfaction rendered by the stove was far beyond my expectations, and the work it will accomplish is marvelous, together with the small expense and comfort attending the same.

EDWIN A GARETT.

Having used one of your No. 7 Gas Cooking Stoves for a considerable time past, it is with pleasure that I bear testimony to its genuine merits.

It boils, bakes, broils, roasts, and in fact, does everything that a first class stove or range can do, and with a saving of time and labor, that can only be appreciated by those who use them.

It has given us the most entire satisfaction, and to use my wife's words, "I would not be without it for ten times the cost."

From statements of our gas meter taken, we find it more economical than coal

REPORT on the LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKEY:

"We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
