

National President In City To Promote Work Of NFCUS

Mortimer Bistrisky, NFCUS national president, arrived in Charlottetown yesterday to make his official visit to the students of St. Dunstan's University.

As president of the National Federation of Canadian University Students, Mr. Bistrisky has visited every university in Canada to promote the work of the federation.

He will leave Charlottetown today to attend the regional Atlantic conference to be held at Acadia University this week-end.

Accompanying him will be two St. Dunstan's students, Louis Doucette, NFCUS chairman, and Miss Patricia Poirier, who will attend the conference.

Born in Montreal, February 1st, 1936 Mr. Bistrisky graduated at Baron Byng High, in June 1953. While at Baron Byng, he was vice-president of the Students' Council and president of his graduating class.

He entered Sir George Williams College in September 1954 after having worked a year to save enough money. He achieved prominence at Sir George as a journalist for the college paper and as an intercollegiate debater.

He was elected president of the Students' Undergraduate Society for the year 1956-57 while in his third year. During the year 1957-58, he was Quebec regional president for NFCUS as well as external affairs chairman for Sir George Williams College.

He graduated with a B.A. degree in May 1958. He is also president of the Class of 58. He was twice awarded the senior award for outstanding contribution in extra-curricular activities at Sir George Williams College.

During his four years at Sir George, he served with the Royal Canadian Navy (R) and received his commission as a sub lieutenant, July 1st, 1957.

Prior to being elected NFCUS president, he had entered the faculty of law at the University of Montreal. He expects to resume his law studies next year.

C.U. Movement Theme Of Rally At City YMCA

Expansion of the credit union movement was the theme of a rally held yesterday at the Charlottetown YMCA. Sponsored by the Charlottetown Credit Union, the sessions were chaired by the president of that group, G. H. Van Kampen.

In addition to a panel discussion were J. Joseph MacIsaac, Lois Hennessey, J. W. Driscoll, J. F. MacMillan, Leo MacIsaac, Norman MacKay and Mr. Van Kampen.

The committee in charge of the rally arrangements were Mr. Van Kampen, Mr. Driscoll and Mr. Leo MacIsaac.

where they saw first hand the way of life, government and economy of that country.

W.I. TRANSITION TOPIC

Registration for the two-day conference will take place Friday afternoon at SDU. After the customary business sessions, the delegates will devote their time to study and discussion periods, the theme of which will be "The West Indies in transition". In view of the fact that the new Federation of the West Indies is assuming the role and status of nationhood, this subject will be one of great interest.

Saturday morning Professor Fraser will address the seminar on the historical background of the West Indies. At the afternoon session, Rev. Topshoe will present the economic development within the newly formed Federation. This session will be held in the historic Confederation Chambers of the provincial legislature.

Saturday evening the delegates will be honored by a banquet given by the city of Charlottetown at the Charlottetown Hotel. The conference will conclude Sunday afternoon after a plenary session in the assembly hall of St. Dunstan's University. This final session will deal with the educational problems and needs of the West Indies.

Weekend Briefs

THE FIRST MAN in the British Commonwealth to fly a powered airplane relates his fascinating first-hand account of his memorable and dramatic flight in the Silver Dart in the pages of The Evening Patriot's Weekend Magazine tomorrow. Hon. J. A. D. McCurdy, former Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, recounts the exciting adventures and discoveries of the dedicated group led by Alexander Graham Bell in Baddeck, N.S. An original member of this group, Mr. McCurdy has a stirring story to tell about the pioneers of aviation, and the exciting birth of powered flight in Canada, celebrating its 50th anniversary this year.

THE CHIMES OF ST. PAUL'S Cathedral in London, Ont., beckon between 500 and 600 worshippers each day during Lent. Not only do they attend services but they have lunch dished up to them in fine style—and in record time. Keyed to the hectic lunch hours of office workers and shoppers, this 25-minute nondenominational service is followed by a 12-minute cost-price lunch in the nearby church hall. Sermons are delivered by a variety of outstanding ministers.

WHERE HAS THE FAMOUS FEMININITY of the Chinese women disappeared? It's been pushed aside by the hoe in the slogan, "One hand on the hoe, one on the rifle" which applies to the "weaker sex" in Red China. Half the agricultural workers are women, who have been "liberated" for labor by the early removal of their children to state schools, where even six-year-olds receive military training. Read the final instalment of Gerald Clark's report on Red China.

"I'M A TIRED OLD TEENAGER." That's what glamorous Danica d'Hondt, Miss Canada of 1959, has to say about her venerable 19 years. This Canadian beauty gives some advice to other teenagers about avoiding the herd instinct in Doyle Klyn's column, With My Gloves Off.

BIS Makes Plans For March Play

The Benevolent Irish Society executive held a meeting last night to deal with arrangements in connection with their forthcoming presentation of "Laughing Irish Eyes", March 16th and 17th.

This year's play will be held in Birchwood High School Auditorium and the proceeds from it as in the past will be for the different charitable activities of the Society.

President E. B. Beagan reported to the meeting that the director of the show, J. Pius Callaghan, C.D.A., had lined up an experienced and youthful cast who would certainly make this year's play an event that will be long remembered by the citizens of Charlottetown and district.

It was also decided to hold the regular February meeting on the 12th. Plans for the annual society smoker and initiation were discussed and this year March 12th is the date.

Alpha Y's Men Told Importance Of Fund Drive

The regular monthly business meeting of the Alpha Y's Men's Club was held in the Y.M.C.A. last night under the chairmanship of the president, Lorán MacLellan.

Guests were Stewart Carver, Halifax and the co-chairman of the annual YMCA maintenance campaign, Arthur Hogan, and Kenneth MacDonal.

The club was briefed on the importance of the campaign by YMCA president, Arthur Duvar. The chairman of the various committees tendered their reports. For the young adult committee, Alton Dollivar, stated that a successful So-Ed program had been held and arrangements were well under way for the spring program.

The Bishop's Fund was also making good progress, some 90,000 stamp points having been collected.

The club decided to hold a Valentine party and invitation dance, and later in the month to accept the challenge of the Summerside Y's Men's Club in various fields of sports and recreation.

Major Wendell Worth Dies In P.E.I. Hospital At Age 62

One of Prince Edward Island's better known personalities, Major Wendell H. Worth, 62, died last evening at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, following a prolonged illness.

A veteran of both World Wars, and operator of a personally-owned insurance firm, the late Major Worth for the past several years had also operated "Dalvay-by-the-Sea", one of the province's most famous summer hotels.

Enlisting in the Signal Corps in the First World War, the late Major Worth went overseas with the unit commanded by Lt. Col. D. A. MacKinnon, and was later awarded the Meritorious Service Medal, while serving with the 43rd Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery.

Between wars he served as adjutant and later paymaster of the local signal unit, and returned overseas as paymaster with the West Nova Scotia Regiment.

Three-Day Seminar Opens Today At St. Dunstan's U.

St. Dunstan's University and Prince of Wales College will jointly act as hosts to the sixth Atlantic regional conference of the World University Service of Canada. The sessions, dealing with the government of the West Indies, will be held today, Saturday and Sunday at Saint Dunstan's University. They will be attended by delegates from all the universities and colleges in the four Maritime Provinces.

Guest speakers for the seminar are Professor Duncan Fraser, and Rev. George Topshoe. Professor Fraser is a member of the department of history of Acadia University. Rev. Topshee is the director of urban education, extension department of St. Francis Xavier University. World University Service of Canada is a Canadian-wide organization within the universities and colleges, whose aim is for greater understanding and knowledge of other countries through mutual exchange of information, scholarships, and tours among university students of all countries.

Last year representatives of Canadian universities with delegations from various other countries made a tour of Yugoslavia
