Plan V-E Day Celebration At Summerside On Sunday

The Summerside Branch of the Canadian Legion will hold special services this Sunday, May 11th, to commemorate the 13th anniversary of V-E Day.

Group Captain Swetnam, commanding officer R.C.A.F. Station Summerside. Arrangements for the ceremonies commemorating V-E Day are under the chairmanship of Comrade Alyre Arsenault, who heads the parades and ceremonial committee of the No. 5 Summerside Legion Branch.

The parade, under the command of Comrade Mercier Mullin, will form up in front of the Legion Home at 10.30 a.m. and will be led by the Sea Cadet Band followed by a color party, veterans and other units.

The parade will march to Trinity United Church where the Protestant party will fall out and the Roman Catholic members of the parade will proceed on to St. Paul's Church for service.

The parade will re-group at 12.10 p.m. at the corner of Central and Notre Dame Streets and move south to Memorial Square where a commemoration service will be held with wreaths and poppies being laid in remembrance of fallen comrades.

Mayor W. A. Currie will speak briefly at this ceremony and will be introduced by Legion vice-president Emmett Trainor.

Following the memorial service, the parade will move off for the march past, with the saluting base being situated near the Civic Building. Taking the salute will be acting president Trainor, accompanied at the saluting stand by Dr. J. A. MacPhee, honorary president of the Legion, Mayor Currie, Mr. Norman Hogg, president of the R.C.A.F. Wing Association and

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Harper of North Carleton opened their beautiful home on Monday evening, May 5, to neighbours and friends, who assembled to honor and bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Lowther, who are leaving the district.

Mr. E.C. Bell was master of ceremonies and after stating the reasons for this special get-together, called upon Mr. Wilbert Wright, who read an address.

Mrs. S. Huestis, on behalf of those present, brought in a trillium floor lamp and Mr. Walter Hammill a hostess chair for the guests of honor. Masters Douglas Wright and Garth Harper presented individual gifts to the younger members of the family.

After Mr. and Mrs. Lowther thanked their friends and neighbours for the lovely gifts, all joined in singing "For They're Jolly Good Fellows". Refreshments were served by the ladies after which the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" concluded a delightful evening.

Mr. Francis McNeill has given generously of his time in assisting the corps during the year, and Leo Blaquiere, chairman of the sports committee, also contributed much to the success of the corps. Parents and the public have been invited to attend the annual inspection on Monday evening.

Former Minister At S' Side Dies

DIGBY, N.S. (CP) — Rev. Roy Marshall Johnston, a retired minister and onetime professor of pastoral theology at the Cincinnati, O., Bible Seminary, died in hospital Wednesday after a lengthy illness. He was 70.

Born in Kingston, Ont., Mr. Johnston spent many years as a Churches of Christ minister in Washington, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Toronto and Summerside, P.E.I. He was born in Kingston, Ont.

For several years before his retirement in 1955, Mr. Johnston was secretary evangelist of the Maritime Christian Missionary Society.

Funeral services will be held here Friday.

Evening Circle Holds Meeting

The Evening Circle of Summerside Presbyterian Church held their monthly meeting in the church parlor on May 5th. The president Mrs. Enzy Campbell was in charge of the meeting. The worship period was conducted by Mrs. Clarence Marchbank, assisted by Mrs. Russell Hunter. Mrs. Emmett Ranahan was pianist for the evening.

Plans were made for a most interesting W.M.S. birthday social, which will be held on Monday evening, May 12th. Invitations were issued to the Zion Mission Guild and members of the local Presbyterian W.M.S. to be guests.

The singing of "The Church Has One Foundation," followed by the Mizpah benediction closed the meeting.

short pageant consisting of a blossomed cherry tree with each blossom, taken by a member, representing the establishment and growth of christianity in Japan, this was completed by the girls lining up with lighted candles to form a cross.

After the benediction was pronounced by Rev. K. R. Hobson, refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Sea Cadets Will Be Inspected On Monday

The annual inspection of the Summerside Sea Cadet Corps will take place Monday evening, May 12, at 6.15 p. m. in Queen Elizabeth Park ball diamond.

but if the weather should be unfavorable the inspection will be held at the Civic Stadium on Notre Dame Street.

The inspecting officer will be Rear Admiral Roger E. S. Bidwell, Flag Officer Atlantic Coast.

After inspecting the corps at the above location the march past will be held in front of the civic Auditorium prior to the admiral's visit to the headquarters of the corps in the Summerside elementary school.

At the conclusion of these activities a reception will be held for Rear Admiral Bidwell at the Canadian Legion Home, the Legion being the organization which sponsors the Sea Cadet Corps in Summerside.

To complete the program for the cadets an evening of entertainment will be held for them at the Summerside "Y" Center on Green Street where the admiral is expected to visit the corps again during the evening.

The main street of O'Leary will be paved and there is a possibility that pavement will be laid on the Western Road to St. Louis, Mr. MacKay said.

Another entrance to the National Park will receive attention in the paving of the road from Corran Bay Bridge to the Park.

WEST RIVER BRIDGE

The work on West River Bridge is going forward with all possible speed and it is hoped that this link across the River from Meadow Bank to New Dominion will be completed by the first of July.

When the bridge is completed, Mr. MacKay said, the road from Meadow Bank to Corran will be paved to connect with the Trans Canada Highway. This will take place this summer.

Work has been resumed on the north approach to the Hillsboro Bridge. Drilling has been going on in connection with the foundations of the abutments and the tenders for the southern approach will close on the 16th of this month.

Work on the southern approach will start immediately after the awarding of the contract.

The Minister said he hoped that the road from Cross Roads to the Hillsboro Bridge will be paved this summer. This will be a concrete highway to connect with a four mile stretch of concrete between Cross Roads and Mount Albion.

PINETTE

The North Pinette causeway is nearing completion and construction on the south Pinette bridge will be started very soon. This bridge has been designed by C.C. Parker of Hamilton, Ontario and will be similar to the Montague Bridge. There will be no interruption of traffic during the construction of the new bridge.

About a mile of pavement in the area of the causeway and bridge at Pinette remains to be done and the Department plans to see this brought to completion this summer.

SOURIS

At Souris preparations are being made for the paving of the main street through to the Souris West Bridge. Pavement will also be laid to the Souris Wharf. When the Souris job is completed the paving plant of Island Construction Limited will move to Iona where seven miles of pavement on the Wood Islands Road will be laid.

Mr. MacKay said yesterday that all machines are out in the various districts. The Department lost two of its engineers last year but two replacements are coming in the person of Lea Windsor, a former Islander and a graduate of the 1958 class at Nova Scotia Technical College and Paul Balcoim of Saint John.

Guild Is Entertained

Mrs. Elmer Pynter, Kensington was hostess to the members of St. Mark's Church Guild at the April meeting. The president, Mrs. Garnet Turner presided and opened the meeting in the usual manner. 14 members and one visitor answered roll call.

The treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Harding reported a profit of $127.65 on the Easter Tea and sale and a balance on hand of $147.23.

It was moved by Mrs. Howard, seconded by Mrs. Pynter and carried, that the Guild donate $100.00 to the church to be paid on the debenture issue. On motion by Mrs. Lester Champion, seconded by Mrs. Oliver Profit, it was decided that $25 be used for the purchase of books of Common Prayer, to be used in the church.

After some discussion, the matter of asking for the use of the Davison Building for a pantry and rummage sale at a later date, was left to the president, meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Earl Coles.
