

Policy

The UPEISU is considering the following policy changes:

-The addition of the safety committee as a standing committee of council.

-Introduce a nomination notice for Senate and Board of Governors representatives who are finishing their first year of their term.

-Introduce a monthly office hour for each council member.

-The addition that the Chair of Council will post reports from each council member onto the blogs section of the website following each council meeting.

-The changing of the Student Union Executive course load.

-The student council strikes the policy regarding meeting extensions.

For more information or if you have any questions contact the SU website.

Constitutional

-Change that the Ombudsman of the UPEISU shall only attend council meetings upon the request of any student wishing him/her present at a meeting or to present his/her report and recommendations to council.

-Change that the requirement that the Ombudsman hold no position within the University be removed from the position description.

-That the impeachment due to non-attendance requirements change such that:

-Any councillor who misses any three (3) meetings of the Student Council shall automatically be served a notice of motion to Impeach due to non-attendance by the Chair. (Rest of procedure remains the same)

-Any councillor who misses a fourth meeting after already being considered by a motion to impeach due to non-attendance shall be automatically impeached from council. The councillor shall have the opportunity to appeal for reinstatement to Council in writing through the Chair. The Chair shall present the letter to Council on behalf of the councillor. Reinstatement shall be decided by a two-thirds (2/3) majority.

For further information or if you have any questions contact the SU website.

Notice

The UPEI Student Union is proposing a $15 dollar fee increase for the 2005-2006 academic year to accommodate for increased operational costs of the organization.
