

Mothers

Anxiously watch declining health of their daughters. So many are cut off by consumption in early years that there is real cause for anxiety. In the early stages, when not beyond the reach of medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore the quality and quantity of the blood and thus give good health. Read the following letter:

"It is but just to write about my daughter Cora, aged 19. She was completely run down, declining, had that tired feeling, and friends said she would not live over three months. She had a bad and nothing seemed to do her any good. I happened to read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and had her give it a trial. From the very first dose she began to get better. After taking a few bottles she was completely cured and her health has been the best ever since." Mrs. ADDIE PECK, 12 Railroad Place, Amsterdam, N. Y.

"I will say that my mother has not stated my case in as strong words as I would have done. Hood's Sarsaparilla has truly cured me and I am now well." CORA PECK, Amsterdam, N. Y.

Be sure to get Hood's, because

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists, $1. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, reliable and beneficial.

Your cough, like a dog's bark, is a sign that there is something foreign around which shouldn't be there. You can quiet the noise, but the danger may be there just the same. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil is not a cough specific; it does not merely allay the symptoms but it does give such strength to the body that it is able to throw off the disease.

You know the old proverb of "the ounce of prevention?" Don't neglect your cough.

Your druggist keeps Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil. Put up in 50c. and $1.00 sizes.

GEO. E. FULL.

Anxious to Help Her.

There were several unsightly pools on the floor of the car when she entered. Glaring about the car for a moment, she sized up the passengers, and, picking out the small man who appeared to be asleep in the corner as the probable offender, she poked him in the ribs with her umbrella and pointing to the discolored floor said with emphatic frigidity, "Sir, do you use tobacco?"

"No, ma'am," he replied meekly, "I don't, but perhaps you can borrow a chew from the conductor out there."—Chicago Times-Herald.

"DIS COUNT FOR CASH" —New York World.

Getting Rid of a Rival.

Mr. Washington (calling a rival aside at the party)—Say, Mistah Smiff, didn't I jess heah yo' usin de word "salumbashus" to Miss Snowball?

Mistah Smiff (proudly)—Yo' did, sah.

"Does yo' know de meamin of dat word?"

"Of co'se I do. It means—it means—huh, I've dun clean furgot what it does mean."

"Well, sah, let me deligheten yo'. Salumbashus is an abbreviation of de word sisregaluashus, an sisregaluashus means blame fool."

"Fo' de Lawd, an I was jess tellin Miss Snowball dat foah a reg'lar salumbashus lady she took de cake!"

"Dat's what yo' tole her, sah, foah I underheard yo' myself, an de minit she finds an almanac on de floor an looks up dat word yo'r life will be in danger! Bettah git right out of yere, boy, while yo' got de chance!"

Mr. Smiff "gits" with alacrity, while Mr. Washington takes his "pahy" razor from his coat sleeve and restores it to his shoe with a sigh of great relief.

The Court on His Metal.

In the early eighties Jim Schultz was justice of the peace in Twin Groves township, Neb. One day an attorney was exceedingly domineering in his words and actions. His honor finally gave vent to his feelings as follows: "The court will now take a recess. Mr. Attorney, you are a d—d liar and a scoundrel. The court will now come to order. Mr. Attorney, if you open your head I'll fine you for contempt."—Argonaut.

No Rhetorical Blemish.

"Mr. Gibbons," said the teacher of the class in rhetoric, "point out the absurdity in this figure of speech, 'At this time the Emperor Frederick hatched out a scheme,' etc."

"It seems to me all right," replied the young man after some reflection.

"It does? Explain, if you please, how he could have 'hatched out' a scheme."

"Well, he might have had his mind set on it."—Chicago Tribune.

His Congregation.

Jaspar—Did Rev. White preach to a large congregation today?

Jumpuppe—Congregation? Nonsense! No preacher of his eminence nowadays thinks of preaching to anything else than the next morning's papers.—Truth.

Anatomical.

"I never saw a man with more effusive pretensions of good will to his fellows than Slyson."

"No, but he never takes hold of a man's hand except for the purpose of pulling his leg."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Monopoly.

"Never speak to me again," she commanded imperiously.

Even then it became apparent that as the years rolled by she was not going to have time to say everything to her husband that she desired to say.—Truth.

The New Necessity.

Irony of Fate.

"It is an extraordinary instance of the irony of fate," says the London Chronicle, "that Lord Roberts' son should lose the sight of one eye at polo. For years past Lord Roberts has exerted himself to diminish the grave dangers of polo playing. Indeed at last he issued an order that players should cease to wear caps, but should protect their heads and their necks by helmets. In spite of everything, however, the list of killed and wounded officers is so considerable as to give the game a bad name among the authorities."
