Charge 34 Are Hostages

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — A meeting of Allied and Communist representatives ended in deadlock Monday night on the question of returning 34 occupants of a plane held in North Korea.

The United Nations command accused the Communists of holding the occupants, including two American pilots and two Germans, "as hostages for their political purposes."

The charge was made by the UN command representative, U.S. Navy Captain George Kehl, after listening to the Communists insist in a six-hour meeting that negotiations should be at government level.

IN MEMORIAM

AVALAH A. MacCALLUM

The community of Carleton Siding where he lived; the community of Borden where he worked and the district of Milton where he was born were severely shocked by the announcement that Avalah A. MacCallum had passed away at the P.E.I. Hospital.

Avalah and his wife were critically injured in a car accident on the highway at York, P.E.I. They were rushed to hospital by ambulance. For ten days or more medical reports stated — Improvement! Improvement! Then horror of horrors Avalah was gone. Avalah was well known throughout the Island and for obvious reasons. He was working for the C.N.R. at the time of his death, and had been for many years.

He was an Orangeman, an Orangeman who went all the way from Master in his Primary Lodge to Grand Master of P.E.I.. He would say that in climbing the ladder "Lady Luck" smiled favourably upon him. Those of us who knew him know only too well that he reached the top by and only by his tremendous work in and zeal for the Orange Association. He was doing work in Central Queen's Co. for the order at the time of the accident.

As Grand Master he visited every Primary Lodge in the jurisdiction at least once; several of them more than once. He visited District and County Lodges Chairman of the Grand Orange Lodge Executive he was respected for his ability and loved for his disposition.

Avalah was an active member of Cape Traverse United Church. He worked with the Sunday School and Bible Class. He was a member of the choir, and a member of the Board of Stewards and Trustees.

A number of years ago he was an active member of Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown. He transferred by certificate to the Cape Traverse United Church when he went to work at Borden. The church for Avalah was the home of his soul, the altar of his devotion, the hearth of his faith and the centre of his affection. He wouldn't miss a service less he injure its good name, lessen its power, discourage its members and chill his own soul.

In community affairs Avalah was always in the thick of it, working like a trojan. His favourite projects were the local school of which he was a Board member and Temperance. It was through his influence that an Alcoholism Anonymous groups was started at Borden.

With the passing of Avalah A. MacCallum, P.E.I. has lost a prominent layman, a man who walked uprightly before men and humbly before God.

He is survived by his wife, the former Grace Thompson of Cornwall; (by the way Mrs. MacCallum has made an almost complete recovery from the accident) two children, Lloyd 13 years and Pauline 11 years; his mother, Mrs. Janie (Moore) MacCallum, Charlottetown; a brother John, Charlottetown; three sisters, Mamie, Mrs. Lawrence MacLaren, Charlottetown); Lena Mrs. Alden Douglas, Port Crewe, Ont.); and Vinie Mrs. Wilbert Gillespie, Toronto, Ont.); To you the bereaved, a host of people extend deep and sincere sympathy.

His father, William A., a brother Stavert and a sister Margaret predeceased him.

The funeral of the late Avalah A. MacCallum was held from his residence at Carleton Siding to Cape Traverse United Church where a service was conducted by the Rev. L. D. Archer, his minister; Rev. W. H. Brown of Zion Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown and Rev. A. E. Piercey, Rector of St. John's Anglican Church, Milton and Deputy Grand Master of P.E.I. During the service Mrs. Hedley Lowther and Mrs. John Haslam sang as a duet the lovely "We are Going Down the Valley."

At the graveside in Tryon Unit-Cemetery where the body was interred the L.O.A. service was conducted by Rev. A. E. Piercey, Rev. W. H. Forsythe and Mr. Gordon Ross. The Royal Black Preceptory service was conducted by Rev. W. H. Forsythe, and Messrs. T. J. Inman and P. G. MacEachern

The Honorary pallbearers were the Provincial Past Grand Masters: Messrs. T. J. Inman, P. M. MacCaull, C. D. MacPhail, P. G. MacEachern, F. B. French, J. A. Murray and Ernest Holm.

The active pallbearers were: Messrs. Gordon Ross, Spurgeon Moore, Ernest Wood, John Thompson, Albert Craswell and Ralph MacCaull.

The funeral was very largely attended by members of the Primary Lodges, L.O.A. L.O.B..A. across the province.

J. D. MacPHERSON

Friends, relatives and acquaintances in Culloden, P.E.I. and Melville, P.E.I. were shocked and saddened to learn of the sudden passing of John Daniel MacPherson which occurred at his home in Melville on the morning of February 10, 1958.

Mr. MacPherson was the son of Norman and Sarah Dougherty MacPherson born at Dundee, P.E.I., October 29th, 1879. After having been in U.S.A. for a few years he returned to P.E.I. where he resided for the rest of his life farming and at times working at his trade in house painting.

He was a friendly neighbor and always ready to give a helping hand.

He was twice married first to Jessie Nicholson, who predeceased him some years ago to this marriage there was born one daughter, Dorothy who predeceased him eight years ago.

Two sons surviving, Clifford of Braintree, Mass., and Stanley of Natick, Mass. He is also survived by his wife, formerly Jennie Harris.

Four sisters Christie, Charlottetown; Florence, Mrs. Thomas Young and Emma, Mrs. George Crane of Cambridge, Mass.; and Nora, Mrs. Charles MacLeod Arlington, Mass.; three brothers, Thomas and Roderick of Culloden, P.E..I. and William, New Hampshire survive.

On Thursday, February 13th, funeral service was held in Wood Island Presbyterian Church conducted by the Rev. Donald Nicholson. Hymns sung were "Oh God thou Art my God alone", "Oh love that will not Let Me Go"

Pall bearers were: Jack Gillis, Calvin MacPherson, Lloyd MacPherson, William Compton and William MacRae.

The funeral was under the direction of R. Gillis, Eldon. Interment was in Wood Island Cemetery.

JOHN L. DOIRON

There passed away in the Charlottetown Hospital on December 27th, 1957, John L. Doiron of North Rustico, in his 65th year. Although in poor health for the last four years of his life he never was heard to complain. He always had a cheerful smile and a friendly greeting for every one. One day before his death he was obliged to enter the Charlottetown Hospital where all that could be done by the kind sisters, doctors and nurses to ease his sufferings but God willed otherwise and he passed peacefully away.

Left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband are his wife and one daughter, Joan, his father Stanos Doiron, four sisters, Mrs. Amos Blacquiere, Mrs. Clara Gallant, Mrs. Clarence Gallant and Mrs. Donald Gallant; also three brothers, Jimmy, Willie and Edgar.

Requiem High Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Leonard Ayers.

Members of the Canadian Legion of which the deceased was a charted member attended in a body the Legion graveside Service was conducted by President, Murray Cassiday. Last Post and Reveille were sounded by Bugler David Mills.

The pall bearers were: Francis Gallant, Ayire Gallant, James C. Blacquiere, John Doiron, P. C. Martin and Milton Green. Interment was in the church cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended.

CARD OF THANKS

The wife and family of the late John L. Doiron wish to thank the doctors, sisters, nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital; also Dr. Ian McMillan, the Charlottetown funeral Home, The Canadian Legion and all the kind neighbors, friends and relatives to all who send flowers, mass cards and many kind messages of sympathy to all who helped in any way in their sad bereavement. A special thank you to all.

Mrs. John L. Doiron and family

Better Business Warns Investors

Mr. H. E. Hyndman, Vice President of The Better Business Bureau Maritimes Inc., cautioned residents of Charlottetown today to beware of high-pressure telephone salesmen offering securities.

Citing a warning issued by the National Better Business Bureau with which the Bureau is affiliated, Mr. Hyndman stated that many inexperienced investors are receiving high-pressure telephone calls from self-styled brokerage firms in New York and Canada urging the purchase of shares in obscure or highly speculative companies. Because of this increased "boiler room" activity Mr. Hyndman stated that the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission has warned investors to protect themselves by observing the following rules:

1. Before buying . . . . .Think!
2. Don't deal with strange securities firms. (Consult your broker.)
3. Beware of securities offered over the telephone by strangers.
4. Don't listen to high-pressure sales talk.
5. Beware of promises of spectacular profits.
6. Be sure you understand the risks of loss.
7. Don't buy on tips and rumors. . . . Get all the facts!
8. Tell the salesman to: Put all the information and advice in writing and mail it to you . . . . . Save it!
9. If you don't understand all the written information. . . . Consult a person who does.
10. Give at least as much consideration to buying securities as you would the purchase of any valuable property.

"In summary," Mr. Hyndman stated, "Before you invest — investigate."
