MOORE & McLEOD,

TRUE ECONOMY

THE DIFFERENCE between buying a cheap suit and a good suit is the cheap suit never looks well, and a man doesn't look well in it—looks as if it was made for some other man, and will only wear a short while at the longest when it is all out of shape. Our make of Suits, Overcoats and Trousers always look well, and a man feels good in them, feels as though there is no better dressed man than he; and will keep their shape and look well till they are worn out.

Every Person Would Like to be Well Dressed

WELL, COME TO OUR STORE, where you are sure of getting the best fitting suit in the city. No wrinkles on the shoulder, no falling off at the collar, but every garment made decently and according to order

Kitchener Keeping a Tight Rein on News.

SITUATION IN CAPE

Colony Somewhat Ominous.—
A Pitched Battle Imminent

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The British losses at Nooigendacht were 82 killed and wounded, with 44 missing and still unaccounted for.

The War Office can give no information regarding the reported Boer invasion of Cape Colony.

The officials express the opinion that the newspaper accounts are exaggerated and that probably the troops who have been employed chasing DeWet will be diverted to deal with the invaders.

Lord Kitchener keeps a tight rein over the news,—which has increased the public disquiet.

There is persistent rumor here that he has demanded heavy reinforcements.

Private telegrams depict the situation in Cape Colony as somewhat ominous. It seems inevitable that the Boers will receive considerable rebel assistance from the local Dutch, and that the troops at the disposal of the British are not sufficient to cope with any serious military operations.

KRUGERSDORP, Transvaal, Sunday, Dec. 16.—A pitched battle is imminent between the British and General Clements, who has been reinforced, and the Boers under General Delarey.

A Big Fire.

In the case of widows, they will receive a gratuity of one thousand dollars.

The dependents of deceased soldiers are receivers from $250 upwards, according as merits of each case may warrant.

The soldiers are receiving $1 a day, but those who are able partially to make a living receive fifty cents.

VENEZUELA REVOLUTION.

A Desperate Situation.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—A telegram concerning the revolution in Venezuela asserts that the situation is extremely desperate. As regards the Americans and their property in the South American republic, protection is urgently asked.

IN CHINA.

The Foreign Ministers All Agreed

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

PEKIN, Dec. 20.—At a meeting of the foreign ministers here last evening everything in regard to the terms of the Joint Note was agreed to, including the British modifications.

The ministers refuse to disclose anything in connection with the matter, believing that the Home Governments should give the particulars to the public.

A Lucky Canadian.

LONDON, Ont., Dec. 19.—Captain Stuart, of this city, who went out with the first Canadian contingent to South Africa, has received from Sir Alfred Milner a judicial appointment in South Africa at three thousand dollars per year, with residence and other perquisites. The district is to be located when the war is over.

Canadians' Graves.

MONTREAL, Dec. 19.—At a meeting of the Daughters of the Empire, held yesterday, a communication was read from the Daughters of Empire, Cape Town, stating that means had been adopted to care for the graves of Canadians and others who have perished in South Africa. A fund has been inaugurated for that purpose.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

SIR.—What does the Patriot mean by so continually charging THE EXAMINER with "abusing" its political opponents? I am a constant reader of both papers, and I think that THE EXAMINER compares favorably with the Patriot or any other paper in that regard.

[We are as much in the dark about the matter as our correspondent.]

OSTRACISM.

Foul Breath and Disgusting Discharges, Due to Catarrh, Makes Thousands of People Objects of Aversion. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder Relieves in 10 Minutes and Cures.

Hon. George James, of Scranton, Pa., says: "I have been a Martyr to Catarrh for twenty years, constant hawking and drooping in the throat and pain in the head, very offensive breath. I tried Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. The first application gave instant relief. After using a few bottles I was cured." 50 cents.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

Closing Exercises To-day—Interesting Programme.

The Kindergarten closed today for the holidays, to re-open on the 2nd of January. The year has been a very successful one. There were about fifty children in attendance, ranging in ages from three to five years. There is a primary department in connection, where regular work in the first four grades is taken up, Kindergarten methods being introduced to make the studies more interesting for the little ones. The programme of closing exercises was a very interesting one, and the children performed their respective parts in a manner that was worthy of the highest praise and earned the applause of the goodly number of ladies and gentlemen privileged to be present. Here is the programme.

Opening Prayer.
Good Morning Songs.
Talk.
March and games.
Chorus—"Children can you Truly Tell?"

Recitation—Vernon Schurman.
Duet—"Hushaby."
Finger Play—"Down the Chimney."

Chorus—"Old Santa Claus."
Recitation—Harry Stanley.
Chorus—"Merry Christmas."
Recitation—Arthur Doull.
Recitation—Dorothy Young.
Doll drill.

After the rendering of the programme came the Christmas tree, which was loaded with good things, mostly the handiwork of the little ones. There was something on the tree for everyone, and the gifts were presented by the children themselves.

Miss Wathen, the director, is evidently doing excellent work, and she has able assistants in Miss Barrett and Miss Smith, Miss Barrett being in charge of the primary department. Miss Smallwood makes a capital musical director.

—The Opera House has been engaged for Friday January 4th, 1901, for a grand concert by some of the returned soldiers from South Africa. They are to be assisted by the best talent in the city. There will be three or four striking scenes representing incidents in the late war. Grand preparations are being made to make this one of the very best concerts of its kind ever seen in Canada. Program later.
