Latest Intelligence From the Transvaal

BOERS BUYING UP PROVISIONS AND ARMS

Col. Otter to Command a Canadian Contingent.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

TORONTO, Sept. 28.—Military men state that arrangements have been completed by the militia department for the despatch of a Canadian contingent of 1300 men, 800 infantry and the balance cavalry and artillery to England for service in the Transvaal. Col. Otter, of this city, it is further said, has been selected to command the brigade which will be ready to start on the declaration of war.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily News says the pass of Laing's Nek will be occupied this (Thursday) with sufficient strength for present needs under the belief that the Boers will attack Natal immediately hoping to forestall the landing of the Indian contingents.

The Daily Telegraph has the following from its correspondent in Cape Town: "I regret to note the universal opinion that war is very near. Everywhere the Boers are active and bellicose. They are arming, equipping and storing supplies for a protracted struggle."

"Boer agents are scouring South Africa to buy campaign provisions. Proof accumulates of the existence of a great Dutch conspiracy against British supremacy in South Africa. The Orange Free State is believed to be involved and there is no doubt that the Orange Government is intent on war."

"Many Boers in the northern districts of Cape Colony are joining our probable enemy."

"The Dutch republics will together be able to muster 35,000 men nearly all mounted. I learn that the Free State has declared to put 10,000 into the field."

"Other despatches from Pretoria and Johannesburg speak of the probabilities of hostilities within a week."

The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail says:—

"The Boers, it is believed, will consent to the occupation of Laing's Nek as an act of hostility."

"British members of the Cape House of Assembly freely criticise Great Britain's unpreparedness and predict a serious reverse followed by grave rising of colonists at various points in adjoining republics."

"There has been an enormous run upon revolvers. The price of mausers has advanced from $7 to $22. supplies of all kinds are quickly bought up. President Steyn, it is reported, is about sending his family to the Cape."

LONDON, Sept. 28.—M. De Blowitz, Paris correspondent of the Times, mentions a rumor in circulation there that hostilities have already broken out in South Africa.

THE SOUDAN AGAIN.

Abyssinians May Join Khalifa Against England.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—There have been indications this week that the government is taking advantage of the Transvaal hullabaloo to conceal some dark statecraft over Northern Africa. General Lord Kitchener, after lengthy secret expeditions into "Darkest Soudan," has returned to Khartoum to perfect a scheme for the capture of the perennial mischief-maker, the Khalifa. The censorship is so rigid that newspaper correspondents are unable to transmit messages, but private letters from officers in Kitchener's command show that the general's plans are not meeting with unqualified success. They write that the Khalifa's forces have been so considerably augmented that he has subdued several petty uprisings on the part of the subordinate chiefs. With these victories his prestige over the Soudanese has been re-established, and he is securing a formidable supply of arms and ammunition from the Abyssinians.

In this last fact lies the secret of Kitchener's anxiety, for it threatens to destroy his pet plan of capturing the Khalifa and the consolidation of British overlordship over the Soudan without the aid of reinforcements. It also leaks out through the same reliable source that Kitchener had an incipient mutiny on his hands last summer. The trouble was confined to regiments of Soudanese who helped to crush the Khalifa at Omdurman. They complained of excessive drilling and interference with their tribal customs. Some of the mutineers were shot and others were impressed in chain gangs and the discipline was re-established.

The general is chiefly concerned now over the uncertain attitude of the Abyssinians about him. He is said to have sent messages to the London War Office that are too important to be made public. Meanwhile King Menelek, of unsavory British memory, has concentrated his troops in such a way that he is suspected of contemplating a renewed resistance to British plans. It is said that Kitchener is possessed of proof that Menelek has been negotiating with the Khalifa and that he has actively abetted the importation of Abyssinian supplies. Should the worst come to the worst and Menelek openly array himself on the Khalifa's side it will be necessary to send reinforcements to Kitchener, and such an event, should war in the meanwhile come in the Transvaal, would prove a more awkward twist to affairs than even the most bellicose Briton has been bargaining for.

SCOTSMAN ASHORE AT BELLE ISLE

The Dominion Liner Comes to Grief

ON HER WAY OUT FROM THE OLD COUNTRY.

Two Hundred Passengers Taken off by the Mounthope.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—The Dominion Line Steamer Scotsman is ashore at Belle Isle. The steamer Mounthope has taken off two hundred passengers.

The steamer Scotsman has been posted as overdue but it was thought that the delay in her arrival was owing to the fact that she had been forced to take on new firemen on account of the strike in England.

[The Scotsman was built for a freight vessel but was afterwards transformed into a passenger boat. Several of our citizens have made trips across to the old country in the lost vessel.]

Dreyfus Must Pay the Costs.

PARIS, Sept. 26.—The Aurora estimates that the cost of the Rennes court-martial, which Dreyfus will have to pay, will amount to 20,000 francs ($4,000). In addition to this, Dreyfus will of course have to pay his legal advisers. The generals who appeared at the court-martial and made speeches against Dreyfus received 20 francs (about $6) a day.

Struck an Iceberg.

ST. JOHN'S Nfld., Sept. 26.—The schr. Lily of the West, from Labrador, with 30 persons on board and five hundred quintals of codfish, struck an iceberg off the Straits of Belle Isle, sinking almost immediately. The crew managed to escape, but were three days in the boats before they were rescued. All hands suffered severely from want of food and drink. They were picked up by a passing vessel.

Earthquake in Asia Minor

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25.—The district of Aidin, in Asia Minor, was visited by an earthquake on September 20, and according to late advices, over 200 persons perished. The chief cities of the vilayet, or Province of Aidin, are simply ruined. The city of Aidin is 80 miles south of Smyrna. It is the residence of the Pasha, and a focus of a flourishing trade in grain carpets, figs, opium, and sponges.

Drafted 1000 Horses.

LONDON, September 26.—Nearly 1000 London omnibus horses have been drafted by the government within the last three days and are now doing duty at Aldershot. So unwilling were the public as to the right of the government thus to call on the omnibus companies for aid in an emergency that the announcement caused a great sensation. The principal London company has 15,000 horses in its stables, a majority of which came from Canada, but it takes a year for them to become inured to the climate.
