THIS WEEK AT SDU

Coffee Shop On Campus Is Approved By Faculty

This Week At SDU
By CHARLEY McMILLAN

The Students' Union is defined in the calendar as an organization designed to co-ordinate all organized student activities, to initiate and promote new activities, and to organize and carry out occasional activities which are of temporary interest, only. It serves also as a medium of presenting student views on matters and problems pertaining to student-faculty cooperation.

From time to time, across the pages of literature written about St. Dunstan's University, here have been accomplishmens and achievements that are set off as standouts. Such an accomplishment is the decision of the Students' Union to proceed with plans to build a Coffee Shop on the campus, out of monies borrowed by the Union, itself. Thus, the new building will be entirely a student effort, with the cooperation of the faculty.

The proposed building, to be set off from the rest of the campus, will cost in the vicinity of $40,000, and will accomodate at least 150 students. The Coffee Shop will be approximaely 68 feet by 66, and will be partly below ground level. Actually, there are two sites suggested for the structure, one near the gymnasium, towards the road, and the other between the Library and Marian Hall. It is hoped that construction will commence in time to have the building completed by registration in September.

The Students' Union and the members of the Coffee Shop committee deserve a great deal of credit for their initiative and zeal in this project. They have shown that with a little work and a little faith in their organization much can be accomplished. Although the project had been discussed and tossed about for some time, nothing concrete was done until the present administration decided to take over the job.

JUNIOR TEAM WINS

The St. Dunstan's entry in the new Charlottetown Junior Hockey League got off to a good start Tuesday night by edging Prince of Wales College 9-8. Shawinigan native Jacques Dugre led the Saints attack with "tour de chapeau", as the French call for a hat-trick, Darrell Pollock and Dick Flynn each scored two goals; and Arthur LeClair and Marcel Belanger had singles. The Saints were behind 7-4 early in the third period but put on the pressure to outscore the Welshmen 5-2 in the latter stages of the game. Complete pandemonium broke loose at the 18.19 minute mark when Referee Don Whalen awarded Arnold MacLeod of PWC a penalty shot. The St. Dunstan's fans showed their displeasure with the call by littering the ice with debris, and it was only the iron hand of the law that quieted things down. It was evident the old rivalry between SDU and PWC is still at a feverish pitch, and will continue throughout the schedule. The Saints next game is tomorrow afternoon against the highly rated Juvenile Legionaires. This game starts at 2 o'clock at the Forum.

CANDIDATES FOR QUEEN

The six candidates for the 1964 Carnival Queen contest have been nominated by the respective classes. The winner will be chosen just prior to the Carnival Ball next Friday night and will be crowned by last year's Queen, Miss Mary Donavan. The candidates for Queen are: Paula Charbonneau, Montreal, (Freshman); Betty Jean Callaghan, Summerside (Sophomore); Helen Kelly, Summerside (Juniors); Patsy Lappin, Charlottetown (Seniors); Joan Connolly, (Engineers); Theresa LeClair, Charlottetown (nurses).

And speaking of the Winter Carnival, chairman Jim Griffith, reports that most of the program is finalized for the five-day show. The affair will start with the Carnival Ball on Friday night. The hockey team will host St. Mary's University Saturday afternoon; and that night there will be the big Variety Show in the gymnasium. Sunday will be reserved for the traditional "St. Dunstan's Day." Rev. George MacDonald, rector of SDU, will say mass at 11 o'clock followed by the banquet. John Mullally, MP Kings, the guest speaker, will deliver a talk on "Biculturalism."

On Sunday night at 7 o'clock, there will be an all star basketball game between the faculty and the Senior class. The Carnival parade will take place early Monday morning, followed by chess tournaments, beard-growing contests, and interclass sports. There will be a cookout and singsong on the football field that night, with a sockhop afterwards in the gym. The committee hopes to organize an expedition to Strathgartney Park for skiing and tobogganing Tuesday afternoon and the Carnival will wind up with the New Christy Minstrels Show, and a record hop at Birchwood Auditorium Tuesday night.

All in all, it looks like a wonderful time for evrybody. Last year, the Carnival was a complete success in every way, and there is no reason to think that this year will be any different. Already, some of the classes are starting to construct snow sculptures, and the amateur architects are making plans for the floats. If the weatherman cooperates, there should be nothing to worry about — except, perhaps, complacency.

HOOP TEAM AWAY

The Varsity Basketball team is in Sackville today to play the first game of a home-and home series with Mount Allison University, the next game will be played here on February 6. The Saints played UNB last night in Fredericton. Their record thus far this season is 1-2, not counting the game played last night. However, Coach Ed Hilton is quite confident that the team will at least tie last year's record of 7-5 and if the team plays as well on the weekend as it did against Acadia last Saturday, Hilton shouldn't have too much to worry about.

It was in this game that the Saints came within a hair of beating the best team in Maritime collegiate basketball. The teams were on even terms until the final minutes of the game before the Axemen went ahead to win, 48-41. The Saints could very easily return home Sunday with their record at 3-2. U.N.B. beat Mount "A" 79-66 one week ago, so if Saints won last night, there is every reason to expect a win this afternoon.

Wing Commander W.A. Mitchell, officer commanding of a squadron at the RCAF base, Summerside, was the guest speaker at the Air Force Training period Thursday night. Wing Commander Mitchell spent four years as an air attache in Moscow. He delivered a lecture on his experiences in the country and used slides and pictures as illustrations, and dealt with the philosophy of Communism, the attitudes of the people, and with particular emphasis, the failure of the agricultural revolution in Russia. The very enlightening talk was followed by a question period in which the students asked Commander Mitchell for his views on Communism and his work in Russia.

DRAMA SOCIETY

The Drama Society, under the direction of Rev. Adrien Arsenault, staged a highly successful "Reading Session" last Sunday night in the gymnasium. The session was comprised of a varied selection of modern and classical poetry readings recited by students and the literature professors. Here is the list of the readers with the selections in parentheses; Father Landrigan (The First Confession); Father Ledwell (Christ Climbed Down, and Junkie Obligato); Craig Furlong and Muriel St. John (The Importance of Being Ernest); Kenneth Doiron (A Child's Christmas In Wales); David Morton (excerpts from Dr. Faustus and De Stovepipe); Francis MacIsaac (Still Falls the Rain); Bill Phalen (Two fables by James Thurber); Betty Jean Callaghan (Excerpts from "Antigone" by Sophocles); and Jim Levy (I am Waiting).

The St. Dunstan's hockey machine finally broke out in the manner predicted at the first of the year. Those two big four-point games put the Saints right in the thick of the race for league honors. They are tied now for first place with St. F.X. and Acadia, despite the fact that most of the sportswriters on the mainland predicted landslide victories for both Acadia and Dalhousie last weekend.

For the benefit of those who haven't heard about these ridiculous forecasts, here are some excerpts taken from the Dalhousie "Gazette," the student publication of Dalhousie University: "Again at home, Acadia gets the advantage of home ice and combined with SDU's poor defense Acadia should have no trouble at all. We predict 8-3." And on the Dalhousie St. Dunstans game, "Dal should have just too much overall offensive power for SDU which is lacking in defense. We predict 8-1." Again in Antigonish last Tuesday, one of the St. F.X. players said that "we can beat a one man team" in response to a broadcaster's question asking if the X-men could beat St. Dunstan's.

Little did he realize that Acadia, who were humbled by SDU only four nights before, would come within an eyelash of beating the powerful X-men. And about having a one man team, the Saints' twelve goals scored over the weekend were divided between seven players, hardly the sign of a "one man team."

Playwright Killed In Car Accident

NEW YORK (AP) — Marc Blitzstein, 58, composer - playwright, was killed in an automobile accident Wednesday night on the West Indies island of Martinique, family members here said Thursday.

There were no details in a message received from the American consul at Fort de France. It was understood that Blitzstein had been vacationing on the island.

Among his best-known works were two operas, The Cradle Will Rock and Regina; a symphonic poem Freedom Morning, and the musical Juno, which was presented on Broadway during the 1957-58 season.

Blitzstein also did the translation - adaption of The Threepenny Opera which played off-Broadway more than six years.

3 Firms Exempt From U.S. Tax

TORONTO (CP) — Dome Petroleum Ltd. Fargo Oil Ltd. and National Petroleum Corporation Ltd. have been exempted from the proposed U.S. equalization tax on the purchase of foreign securities by American citizens and have been removed from the Foreign market board of the stock exchange, the Toronto Stock Exchange announced today.

This brings to 15 the number of Canadian - based companies exempted from the proposed tax and removed from the Foreign market board.

Lapland Has Heat Wave

STOCKHOLM (Reuters) — Lapland is enjoying a "heat wave." Coastal ice is forming later than it has done in 20 years and spring flowers are blooming on the hills, the weather office reported here. Temperatures ranged from 50 to 68 degrees.

Opening lead—ten of clubs.

This hand occurred in the match between Argentina and the United States in 1961 At the first table the American North-South pair arrived at three notrump on the bidding shown and made four. West led a club and East took the ace and returned a club.

Declarer won with the king, led the queen of spades, and finessed. He then played a low heart and West took the queen and led another club.

Declarer won with the queen, discarding a diamond from dummy, crossed to the ten of hearts and played the ace and another spade. West took the king, but South then had the rest of the tricks and made four notrump for a score of 430 points.

When the hand was played at the second table, with Argentina now holding the North - South cards, the bidding went:

South	West	North	East
1 heart	Pass	1 spade	2 dia.
Dble

Probably the Argentine South had some mental reservations about the double of two diamonds, but his hopes materialized beyond his wildest dreams. He led the king of hearts and shifted to the queen of spades.

The king lost to the ace and North returned a club. East took the ace and attempted to cash the jack of spades, but South ruffed and cashed the king of clubs on which North discarded a heart.

South then played the ace and a low heart, North overruffing the ten of diamonds with the jack. North returned the ten of spades, East discarding a heart and continued with another spade.

Declarer ruffed with the queen and played the nine of diamnds. North took the ace and returned still another spade. East ruffed and South overruffed. North then trumped the club return with the seven and East could make only his high trump.

As a result, East went down five— 900 points. He should have stayed out of the bidding. His overcall was not justified by his cards.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
