Doiron - Gallant Wedding

—A beautiful autumn wedding was solemnized at St. Anthony's Church, Bloomfield, when Beatrice Lorraine, daughter of Mrs. Laurita Gallant and the late Moses Gallant, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Felix Anthony, son of Mrs. Doiron and the late Felix Doiron of Duvar. Rev. M. J. Rooney performed the ceremony and was celebrant of the nuptial Mass.

The winsome bride, who was given away by her brother Leo, looked charming in a floor-length gown of white brocaded satin. She wore a corsage of red roses and maidenhair fern. Her finger-tip veil fell from a tiara of beaded pearls and lilies of the valley. She carried a white prayer book and rosary adorned with white satin streamers.

Her bridesmaid was her sister Marie, who wore pink nylon over taffeta with shoulder-length veil and a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom was attended by his nephew Clarence Arsenault as organist, the Sodality choir sang the nuptial Mass, also appropriate hymns before and after Mass.

Mrs. Gallant chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of royal blue crepe with matching accessories, and white carnations. Mrs. Doiron, mother of the groom, wore a gown of grey crepe with matching accessories and pink carnations.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the groom where a tasty breakfast was served to about sixty guests. During the day the happy couple visited many interesting places on the island, returning in the evening to the home of the bride, where a reception was held and supper was served to upwards of 150 guests. Many beautiful gifts were received, including a substantial sum of money.

Mr. and Mrs. Doiron left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. The bride travelled in a suit of rose beige gabardine with black accessories.

Returning to the island, the happy couple spent the remaining week of their vacation with their parents and relatives, then returned to Toronto where they will make their future home, accompanied by the good wishes for a happy wedded life of their many friends.
