Folks Are Talking

THE playoff between Penguins and Royals has folks talking it up everywhere you go.

The underdog Birds surprised just about every hockey fan when they copped the opener 2-1 from the top choice Parkdalers. However, things got back to normal Tuesday night when the men of Sandy Frizzell thumped the Juniors 7-2 and sent the teams into tonight's third contest all even at 1-1..

The younger Birds lost Tuesday night's game in the very first period. They were careless inside their own line and helped the Royals tremendously on the four goals they scored. After that damaging session, they did settle down but it was a case of locking the barn door once the horse was stolen.

HOWEVER, 'Bucko' Trainor and his boys are far from discouraged. They feel they can come back and play the same type of hockey tonight that gave them the surprise verdict in the opening contest. They know what they did wrong on Tuesday and they are determined not to commit the same faults again.

But beating these Royals is a major chore. Outside of the teams in the Nova Scotia Senior Hockey League, we can't think of too many outfits that can tumble the Frizzellmen. Therefore, it's asking a mighty big thing to have Penguins come through with another victory.

But strange things do happen and Royals will be the first to tell you that these Birds are hard to stop. That 7-2 verdict hasn't instilled any over-confidence in the squad coached by 'Buck' Whitlock. They are convinced they are in for a tough series. They expect it and they are planning their strategy accordingly.

Big One Tonight

WE look for tonight's fixture to be a real humdinger.

Feeling is running high between the two Charlottetown area teams and that was demonstrated in the rugged battle on Tuesday. Referee Don Whelan did call 27 penalties but he was generous at that. There were far too many sticks carried high, far too many elbows used, far too much holding right through the piece. Things were on the verge of erupting on several occasions but luckily nothing serious did occur. A few fellows put on a bit of an act of wild displeasure and were rewarded for their nonsense.

It's mighty hard for one referee to catch everything. We thought Whelan got around to most of it. After all, he did call 27 penalties.

It's very easy to sit in the stands and damn a referee on his calls or lack of calls. Some folks delight in this and it's hardly right to deny them the pleasure. However, Tuesday Whelan had a most difficult game to handle and he did manage to keep order in spite of some disturbed hockey players.

Not Our Practice

It has never been our practice to belittle referees and we don't intend to start now. They have a mighty difficult job on their hands and they carry their duties out to the best of their abilities.

Sure, they make mistakes. However, in the case where some folks are annoyed about a penalty not given, or a penalty given that shouldn't be given, there's a fair chance the referee is right and the folks in the stands are wrong.

It's a hard job lining up referees. Ask people running the league just how hard it is. Ask folks who were on the loop's executive in former years just how scarce good officials are.

Yes, they are hard to come by and we don't intend to make them any less plentiful by scoffing at their efforts in this column or in our hockey writeups.

Eddie Powers recently quit the National Hockey League refereeing staff because of cheap utterances and lack of backing from the league's top moguls. At least that's what Eddie says. Toe Blake certainly will not weep because of Eddie's departure but the sad fact faces the league that they have not a top man to replace the same dapper Mr. Powers.

Yes, we think this panning offtcials is 'for the birds' and we don't mean the Penguins.

It's time the referee had somebody on his side.

GUELPH, Ont. (CP) — Quebec's John Hammond Wednesday night overcame a 6-1 New Brunswick lead to score an 11-9 win in the Canadian schoolboy curling championship—his fifth in succession—to move into a tie for the lead with Alberta.

In other sixth-round games, Northern Ontario defeated Ontario 11-9, Saskatchewan spoiled Nova Scotia's record with a 10-6 win, Prince Edward Island upset Manitoba 6-5 and poor old Newfoundland lost another tough one.

British Columbia beat the spunky kids from the Salvation Army high school at Bell Island 10-8 in an extra end.

Alberta had a bye.

Going into today's gruelling three-round draw - - the only one in the five-day, round-robin competition — they'll all be watching Alberta and Quebec, co-leaders and only undefeated rinks left in the running.

Quebtc plays Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Alberta has a tough schedule against British Columbia, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

The Prince Edward Island rink, skipped by Wayne Matheson of Prince of Wales College at Charlottetown, surprised everyone by running its record to four wins and one loss, good for third place, with Wednesday night's big win.

TAKE IT ON CHIN

The Newfoundlanders, who lost 6-5 to Ontario Monday on the last rock, and 6-5 on the last rock to Saskatchewan Tuesday—took it on the chin again Wednesday night.

Their province has won only one game in five years of national competition and these fellows are trying hard to beat the mark.

They counted one on each of the final two ends Wednesday night to force an extra end, but lost on the first rock on the extra one.

British Columbia's Peter Munro, 15, the youngest skip in the championship play, had to make a takeout shot with his final rock, which left him lying two, to win.

Winless New Brunswick jumped to a surprise 6-1 lead over Quebec's Montreal High School rink but faltered badly and lost. Hammond, curling in a short-sleeved white shirt, won five ends in succession to pull past New Brunswick, then gave up one in the final end.

Alberta and Quebec, with perfect five-game records, are followed by Prince Edward Island (4-1), British Columbia (4-2), Nova Scotia (4-2), Saskatchewan (3-2), Northern Ontario (2-3), Manitoba (2-4), Ontario (1-5), Newfoundland (0-5) and New Brunswick (0-6).

In the afternoon round Wednesday, Alberta had moved into temporary possession of first place with a 19-4 runaway win over Newfoundland.

In other action, Prince Edward Island defeated Ontario 7-5, Northern Ontario won over New Brunswick 12-6, Nova Scotia beat Manitoba 11-9 and British Columbia defeated Saskatchewan 9-7 in an extra-rink contest.

Saskatchewan's foursome wasn't up to par until late in its games against B.C. Peter Munro, 15, youngest skip in the competition, missed a shot to allow Saskatchewan to force an extra end, but recovered in the 11th with two fine shots to win.

Alberta, skipped by a smoothy named Wayne Saboe of Edmonton, scored the most lopsided win of the competition. After winning two big games Tuesday, against Manitoba and Saskatchewan, Saboe didn't waste time celebrating.

The winless New Brunswick rink was holding open house in its hotel room and most of the other rinks were there. Not Alberta.

"I told the boys I felt we should cut out early," said Saboe. "We had a busy day."

Races Slated For Saturday

Yesterday's ice races on North River causeway were called off on account of the heavy snowfall but Victoria Driving Club officials announced last night that Saturday's scheduled card will be going as usual and that the track has been cleared and is in top condition.

Horsemen are urged to have their entries for Saturday's race in by tonight (Thursday).

The first dash goes at 2:30 sharp.

Crossbones Nab Opener

A shorthanded Souris Crossbones team walloped Murray Harbour Bruins 8-3 last night at Souris in the opening game of a best of five final series for the Kings County Intermediate 'B' hockey championships.

MacIntyre paced the winners with a four-goal performance. J. Cheverie triggered a brace with singletons going to C. Peters and Cox.

Murray Harbour goalgetters were Clements, Gormley and Keenan.

Referee Leroy Barnett handed out a total of 21 penalties, including five majors. The Crossbones picked up 14 of them.

Doucette in the Souris net handled 43 shots, 25 in the final frame while 37 were triggered at Murray Harbour goalie MacLean.

Ralph Sazio Named Coach Of Tiger-Cats

HAMILTON (CP) — Ralph Sazio Wednesday signed a three-year contract as head coach of Hamilton Tiger-Cats after 10 years as assistant coach.

Sazio's been waiting a long time. He admitted for years he wanted to coach his own team, but turned down offer after offer from other teams because he didn't want to move from Hamilton.

Finally Jim Trimble's move to Montreal allowed Sazio to have his cake and eat it at home.

Announcing Sazio's appointment less than 24 hours after Trimble's transfer, Tiger-Cat president Jake Gaudaur said he never considered anyone else for the job.

"We feel he's very well qualified," said Gaudaur Wednesday. "He knows all of our personnel, many of whom he himself has recruited and signed, and we are looking forward under Ralph to a continuing success that seems to be part of Hamilton's football history."

Gaudaur's decision probably saved Sazio entirely for Ticats.

"It was either a case of my accepting the head coaching job or getting out of football," Sazio said Wednesday. "I wouldn't have stayed on as an assistant coach under a new coach, although I have continued as an assistant to Jim."

Trend Sets In For Fullmer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Middleweight champion Dick Tiger of Nigeria almost certainly will be the favorite to retain his world title when he steps into the ring here Saturday night.

But a distinct trend set in Wednesday on behalf of the er-champion, Gene Fullmer, in his bid to regain the crown.

There is no sentiment attached to the changing complexion of the 15-round match. Hard money, Las Vegas variety, is the key.

Tiger, from the time the fight was set, ruled a prohibitive 4 to 1 favorite. The 33-year-old Nigerian has trained just as impressively as he fought in winning the title at San Francisco last Oct. 23.

But Fullmer has been even more impressive in his gym drills, and Gene is more a picture fighter in the gym than he is in formal combat.

So the odds have dropped to about 3 to 1. And one betting merchant here said he would not be surprised if the price was 2-to-1 at ringside in the Las Vegas convention centre.

Leafs Regain Second Place With 2-1 Win Over Habs

By BILL MacDOUGALL

TORONTO (CP) — Manager-coach Punch Imlach of Toronto Maple Leafs did some lineup-juggling Wednesday night and made it pay off as Bob Pulford scored both Toronto goals in a 2-1 National Hockey League victory over Montreal Canadiens.

By winning the Leafs jockeyed past Montreal into second place, one point up on the Canadiens and three behind first - place Chicago Black Hawks.

But it may have been a costly victory. High-scoring left winger Frank Mahovlich limped from the ice in the second period and was later taken to hospital for treatment of what was at first diagnosed as a minor charleyhorse on the left leg.

Pulford, a centre last season, has spent almost all of this season as a left winger. Imlach, saying before the game that he needed more strength down the middle, switched him back to the pivot spot and benched Billy Harris.

Sandwiched between his goals was a tally by Montreal's Dickie Moore. All the scoring was in the second period.

Besides shifting Pulford to centre, Imlach moved defenceman Carl Brewer to the left wing spot on that line with Bob Nevin on the right side. But after Mahovlich was hurt, Brewer was dropped back to defence and various wingers worked on the line in the juggling that went on to fill Mahovlich's spot.

Johnny Bower played a standout game in the Toronto nets, stopping 36 shots. The one that got by him, at 12:14 of the second period, was shot by Moore while the Leaf goaltender was down and out of position. He had moved out to the side of the goal to stop a shot by Claude Provost after Ralph Backstrom had started the play. Moore had an open net for the rebound.

Pulford opened the scoring at 9:21 of the second period on a low, 22-foot shot to the far corner after Nevin had passed to him from beside the Montreal goal.

He got the winner at 14:17, racing down the left side and cutting in front of Montreal defenceman J. C. Tremblay before shooting. It was a knee-high shot on the close side from a difficult angle that bounced in off the pads of goaltender Jacques Plante.

Plante, who seemed to have difficulty in getting up fast, made 28 saves.

SUMMARY

First period: No scoring. Penalties—Moore 2:54, Brewer 7:06, Baun 12:06.

Second period: 1. Toronto, Pulford 13 (Nevin, Stanley) 9:21; 2. Montreal, Moore 16 (Provost, Backstrom) 12-14; 3. Toronto, Pulford 14 (Nevin, Litzenberger) 14:17. Penalty—Brewer 11:38.

Third period: No scoring. Penalties — Geoffrion 0:58, Brewer 6:06, Provost 6:17, Stewart 8:09, Fontinato 14:10, Rousseau 19-36.

Mays Signs For $100,000

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Willie Mays signed his 1963 contract with the National League champion San Francisco Giants Wednesday with a salary boost putting him in the $100,000 a year bracket.

Vice President Charles (Chub) Feeney announced that Mays had agreed to terms in conversations with president Horace Stoneham at Phoenix, Ariz.

Feeney would not disclose exact terms of the contract, but it was reported reliably the 31 - year - outfielder got a boost of around $10,000 over the $90,000 he received last season as baseball's highest salaried performer.

In previous years, Joe DiMaggio, Stan Musial and Ted Williams reached $100,000 or more.

During the 165 game 1962 season, that included the victorious playoff with Los Angeles Dodgers, Mays led the major leagues in home runs with 49, and in runs batted in, with 141. He hit .304 for the campaign.

SUSPENDED

Dr. Hillard Clark, president of the Intermediate 'A' Hockey League, announced last night that Dave Martin of the Old Spain Junior Penguins has been suspended for one game for his action in Tuesday night's playoff game at the Sports Arena. Early in the third period of the game against Sandy's Royals Tuesday Martin was assessed with a minor and when he protested too strongly he was slapped with a 10- minute misconduct and then a game misconduct by referee-in-chief Don Whelan.

Don't Always Take Sides

Anyone who reads this column with anything approaching regularity will have to admit that we do not always take sides with the Prince County Combines. We like to see them win, but we do try to look at the various disputes which come up as objectively as possible. As a matter of fact, two or three of the Combines have been looking down their noses at us with cold, reptilian eyes. One fellow in their dressing room accused us of reporting that there was dissension in the club. We offered him five dollars for a copy of the Guardian which said this, and although five bucks is a pretty good price even for a Guardian, he hasn't taken advantage of the offer yet.

We must say, however, that in being deprived of the victory they won at Civic Stadium last Monday night the Combines were given the rawest deal handed out to any hockey club in these parts for a long time. Perhaps this raw deal was handed out to them only by fate, but until we receive further information we consider this is debatable. It was one of those situations where an innocent team takes the rap because of a slip-up by a referee.

Remember Incident

We remember a few years ago Summerside had a midget baseball team playing off with Chatham, N.B. for the two-province crown. The umpire, a home-grown product who had a "czar of all the Russians" complex made a decision conflicting with the rules, and once he had declared that black was white, no one was going to change his mind, by gum. The Chatham Management protested immediately, but the umpire was stubborn, and the Summerside coaches (just youngsters themselves) apparently thought they were getting away with something. We expostulated with one of them, telling him he could only lose the game from then on in, he couldn't win it. No dice. Summerside won the game handily, but it was thrown out and they had to play two games away from home.

Now this was the fault of both the umpire and the Summerside coaches because Chatham protested in plenty of time, and the decision could have been reversed. In Monday night's hockey match, we got the impression, (perhaps a false one) that the protest reached referee Whelan too late for him to retract, which we feel sure Don would have done after perusing the rule book.

We're not blaming Whelan for the slip—any referee might have made it—and he was quick to admit his error when he read the rule, which by the way is a new one. There's nothing about protests in the CAHA rule book, so we can't declare positively, but we feel it is logical and fair that a protest of this kind should be made verbally in time to give the referee an opportunity to reverse his decision. If this is not covered in the protest regulations, it is at least "cricket", and that should be considered by sports leaders.

Combines Look Good

The Combines looked good in that 8-2 victory. Cutting down to two forward lines seemed to have helped. Of course, we have to remember that the Eagles had four tough games, two Friday and two Saturday, (and won 'em all; congratulations, fellows) and they were probably partly pooped in that Monday night game. (Heaven help us if Mr. Typesetter leaves out the "l" in that word "partly".) Don't anyone kid himself that the Combines are going to romp through this semi-final series. We predict a cliff-hanger all the way.

'Country' Hunter Wants Duck Season Unchanged

Sir:—In the report "Fish, Game Is Planning Fund Project" in the Guardian of Feb. 13th a resolution was passed "that the hunting season on ducks be opened on Oct. 15th and close Dec. 9th.

Of course that would be two weeks later than it has been for the past several years. It is the opinion of some 100 gunners in this vicinity that some thirty members of the Association who were present at the meeting should not put forth such a resolution as this number does not represent one per cent of the gunners on P.E.I.

They are also of the opinion that this late date for opening the duck season is only asking for many more country gunners to break the game law as by the middle of October the country gunners, especially the farmers, are in the middle of harvesting their crop, especially their potatoes, and do not have an hour to go shooting.

So on behalf of the gunners of this district we ask that the season on ducks open on Sept. 20th and close Dec. 1st. It has come to the time when the game laws are not made to let the country gunners have a chance, but for the gunners that don't belong to the country, So I say, boys of the game ass'n, you are making a big mistake to have the season open Oct. 15th, as there are more ways of breaking the game law than shooting more geese than the limit.

Many of those so-called gunners will expect the farmers to allow them to travel over their land, both walking and with their cars, leaving gates open etc., during the hunting season. I think it is high time that we country gunners no longer be tramped on by about one per cent of the gunners of this province.

As far as being no ducks the past season, I may say on Oct. 1st there were lots of ducks going to Pisquid Pond but after a week of continuous banging with one duck killed to twenty-five shots they soon left for the sanctuaries of which there are too many in this little province, where they are fed and petted. Whoever is supplying the feed is the $64. question.

Bruins, Rangers Play 3-All Draw

NEW YORK (AP)—The Boston Bruins salvaged a 3-3 National Hockey League tie with New York Rangers Wednesday night on rookie Bob Leiter's deflection shot late in the third period. The deadlock kept the Bruins four points behind the fifth-place Rangers.

Leiter's tying goal at 15 minutes, 34 seconds of the last period came on a tip in of a long shot by Doug Mohns.

The Rangers had gone ahead 3-2 late in the second period on Andy Bathgate' 25th goal.

Camile Henry's 24th goal on a power play gave New York a 1-0 lead in the opening period only to have Wayne Hicks even the score for Boston less than two minutes later with the Rangers shorthanded.

Vic Hadfield's first goal of the year, a 15-foot backhander, put the Rangers back in front 2-1 at the end of the period. Tommy Williams netted his 21st goal, converting a pass from Murray Oliver, to draw the Bruins even again 2-2 at 6:44 of the second period.

Oliver's assist gave him 59 points and tied him with linemate Johnny Bucyk, as the league's scoring leader.
