

What Children Should Learn.

Every child should be taught to pay all his debts, fulfil all his contracts, exactly in manner, completely in value, punctually at the time.

A Job for "Sir Roger."

"A Faithful Briton" suggests that when the Great Eastern is sent as an exhibit to the New Orleans Exhibition she should be manned by a suitable crew, the claimant in command.

The Trade of Halifax.

Referring to the trade of Halifax, the Picton Standard says: "If Halifax has lost its supremacy as an important centre, that loss is largely due to the fact that not only towns like Picton and Yarmouth, but dozens of smaller places throughout the country, are now able, thanks to better customs facilities and increased enterprise, to import directly for themselves."

The Roller Skating Craze.

A man by the name of Brown left a village in Jersey, about two years ago. Last week he returned, and just as he was strolling down the street of his native village he met a farmer by the name of Smith, who was not prosperous when he left, and lived just outside the village.

"Been to a funeral to-day? Why, bless you, no." "No! I see you have got on your best clothes; are you farming yet?" "Farming? Well, I should say not. I am running a roller skating rink down there."

"Where is your son Jim?" "Oh, he's running a rink in Newark." "And your daughter Liz?" "She's skating under the management of Tim Jones in a Boston rink."

"And your wife?" "She skipped out with Professor Meechin, an instructor that I hired when I first opened the rink."

"Is Elder Longsermon preaching here still?" "No, he resigned from the ministry and is now a rink instructor."

"Who's preaching in the place?" "Nobody." "Nobody? What's the matter?" "Church's turned into a skating rink."

"You don't say?" "Yes, true as preachin'."

"Where's Bill Beck, the grocery-man?" "He went out of business a year ago. He's got the ice cream stand down in your rink."

"Phaw! What's aunt Sally Bacon and Deacon Schultzer?" "Why, dang it all, they're travelling around visiting rinks, doing the old man and old woman act on skates. I tell you they're immense."

RETAIL price, 25 cents per bottle. MICA WASH.—This wash is the only thing of the kind ever invented. A stove may be as handsome as a jewel and shine like ebony; but smoked mica lights will spoil it all. MAN'S ORCANISM

Is the most complex work of the Creator, and when this complicated structure, so exquisitely wrought, is disturbed by disease, the most efficient aid should be sought from the most skillful physician—for the human body is too precious to be neglected.
