Canadians Are Out

ONCE again the proud Montreal Canadiens are on the outside looking in.

They have missed out on the Stanley Cup finals and will watch Toronto Maple Leafs battle Detroit Red Wings in Chicago Blackhawks for the famous mull.

The Hockey Hall of Fame company bowed out in no uncertain terms Thursday night as Punch Imlach's Toronto boys blanked them 5-0 before a delighted Toronto audience. Three weeks ago Imlach was in Toronto to get the revenge 1-0 loss and the Queen City entry couldn't win a hockey game.

Four years back, Leafs fought their hearts out to make the final playoff position. They made it in the last night of the regular schedule and then ousted second place finishers, Boston Bruins, in seven games in the semi-finals. However, in the finals against Montreal the Leafs managed only one victory.

AND to them a dew that was bothering the Leafs ever since Canadians ousted them in the finals in 1960. It's true they have never met the Habs since then in playoffs but season records show the Montrealers leading a 1-0 series. They dropped abruptly this season when the Blackhawks were only able to gain three decisions over Leafs in 14 regularly scheduled contests.

However, when Leafs copped the Prince of Wales trophy by finishing first this season and the Montrealers came home through the playoffs and into the finals, Leafs were only able to gain three decisions over Leafs in 14 regularly scheduled contests.

'Punch' Has Fine Record

GEORGE 'Punch' Imlach must be a happy man. He took over in the stretch drive in 1959, got Leafs into the playoffs and forced his way into the finals. The next year he finished second but again lost out in the finals to the Canadiens. The following year Detroit Red Wings surprised by beating the second place Leafs who were hunting their second spot, shunted Rangers back into the semi-finals and then grabbed the Stanley Cup by beating Chicago Black Hawks four games to two.

This past season Imlach achieved another ambition. In a terrific whirlwind finish he stole first place and The Prince of Wales trophy away from the Bruins and the Blackhawks.

'Punch' has his eyes focused on another Stanley Cup triumph against either Detroit or Chicago. He has changed his tactics of late and isn't doing any boasting about his team's chances of doing a repeat. However, the fact that Imlach isn't sounding off doesn't mean that he hasn't got his mind set on doing it. He certainly should be able to keep that Stanley Cup in Toronto.

Success and 'Punch' have surely been bestowed pals in the National Hockey League and that's pretty certain. Whether you like the guy or not, you must give credit to him for his outstanding coaching and leadership. He has changed his tactics with the Habs, he should be ready to drop his dual role of general manager and coach and concentrate on the one that there aren't many more coaches than.

But then he may like the extra burdens. Some guys thrive on work and Imlach could be one of those.

Keon And Bower

YOUNG Dave Keon and veteran Johnny Bower led the Leafs in the semi-finals.

Keon, who has just lost by death an 18-month child, has been the spearhead of the Toronto attack. Johnny allowed only six goals in five games against the Bruins and the Blackhawks. He has been having his troubles with only one assist to his credit. However, he was named to the NHL All-Star team and he may come mighty close to beating Planck on several occasions. The Big M may be saving his ammunition for the finals. After all, he has to be ready to catch the puck in the playoffs.

Canadians. Frank could get hot against the Detroit-Chicago survivor and come out of the playoffs with everybody on his side.

Regardless of the outcome of the Detroit-Chicago feud, we can't see how the Leafs can lose out this time. They look like they are going to catch the matches and win.

League Season Gets Underway Now

Life has been beautiful in Ontario and New York. The Leafs in the never-never land of spring training camp have been having a good time. The league will be playing their base for the first time in several years.

The American League's first year cup is concentrated on a bumpy surface. The league will be playing their base for the first time in several years.

FOLLOWING DISMAL SEASON

Immediate Ouerly Raised As To Changes For Habs

By BRUCE STOVEL

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Canadiens arrived home Friday from their most dismal season in 12 years. The question arose immediately: What changes will be made for next season?

More, who holds the National Hockey League record for the most points in a season, says simply that he knows, as he has asked about his future.

But team physician Bill Henderson says Moore, who can no longer skate smoothly and walks with an uneven gait, must devote himself to an all-out rehabilitation program this summer if he hopes to play.

JOHNSON MAY GO

Another question mark is 32-year-old defenseman "A" J. "The Boomer" went into a deep slump last season and didn't score in the last six weeks of the season.

Geoffrey has said he intends to play again next season. But the team's general manager, Frank Selke, said Friday he is "cha-

Snyder's Parkdale Royals captured the Maritime League title at 'A' hockey crown and last night at the Sports Arena and did it with a decisive 6-5 victory over the Nova Scotia Hawks 6-5 in the third game of a best of five series.

The Buck Whitlock-coached Royals had built up a 5-1 lead after 40 minutes of play in last night's game and from the way the play was going in those first two periods it looked like the to one to make the final tally 6-5. Defenceman Junior MacLeod paced the Royals with a two-goal effort and both markers came on solo efforts. Buddy Carroll, Stu McLaren, Buddy MacIntyre, Eddie Reeves, Kip Ready and Jim MacLeod each scored once.

Scores for the visitors were Glen Langille, Grant Hill, Earl Conradi, Ken Semmone and Dean Saltman.

HELD SCORELESS

Shifty Aps Arenault, who had scored four goals in a two-goal effort in the first game, was held of the sheets last night, but with a little bit of luck could have rapped in a few.

Between the first and second periods of the game Don J. Theriault presented the MCA trophy, emblematic of Island League supremacy to Reddy Josy, captain of the Royals.

Officials Don Whelan and Joe Coyle handed out a total of nine penalties, six of them going to the Royals.
