

MR. AND MRS. G. F. MACDONALD

Wed In Charlottetown Will Reside in Winnipeg

Saint Dunstan's Basilica was the scene of a very pretty wedding on June 20th at 8.15 a.m. when Dorothy Paula Raymond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried C. Raymond, was united in marriage with George Frederick MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Mitchell MacDonald.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Monsignor Patrick MacMahon, and the soloist was Mr. Frank MacIntyre, accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Dougan on the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of nylon sheer over satin and net with fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. The bouffant hooped skirt was trimmed with lace-effect panels. Her tulle-blouse finger-tip length veil was held in place with a lace-trimmed pill-box cap with studded pearls and sequins, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Dorothy Weir, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and the bridesmaid was Miss Mary Chandler. They wore identical gowns of nylon, with shallow scoop-neckline and satin-bowed waistband, the bridesmaid's in green and the maid of honor in pink. They carried matching nosegays of pink, yellow and white carnations.

Mr. Bruce MacDonald was best man for his brother, while the ushers were Mr. Mark Ladner and Mr. Cecil Ladner.

Mrs. Raymond, mother of the bride, wore a navy-blue ensemble with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. MacDonald, mother of the groom, wore a beige sheath and duster with matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Charlottetown Hotel for 100 guests. The toast to the bride was proposed by the bestman and responded to by the groom. Music for the occasion was provided by Mr. Les Alexander.

For travelling, the bride wore a two-piece dress of mauve linen with white accessories and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald spent a short honeymoon on the mainland and will be leaving early in July for Winnipeg, where they will reside.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. George F. MacDonald, the former Miss Paula Raymond, was presented with a gift by the 8th Basileia Brownie Pack whose leader she had been for the past two years.

Miss Mary Chandler and Miss Maureen Hughes were joint hostesses at a neighborhood shower for Mrs. MacDonald at which many lovely gifts were received.

Others entertaining for Mrs. MacDonald were Mrs. Maurice Blake, Miss Donna Compton, Mrs. Edward Burns and the ladies of Mrs. Raymond's Sewing Club. Mrs. J. A. Weir also entertained for the bridal party after rehearsal.

Mrs. MacDonald was also the recipient of a beautiful gift from the staff of the Bank of Montreal on the occasion of her transfer to the Winnipeg Branch. Photo by C.D. MacKay.

MR. AND MRS. J. D. LAWSON

Double Ring Ceremony Unites A Happy Couple

For the afternoon wedding on June 6th of Norma Jean Rayner and Jack Douglass Lawson, St. Peter's Anglican Church, Edmonton, was beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers. The guest pews were marked with lilies-of-the-valley and bows of white satin ribbon.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rayner of Edmonton and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Lawson of Winnipeg.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. M.R. Ness. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Hubert Campbell who accompanied Miss Helen Bryan as she sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Seifert Rayner, the young bride was charming in her portrait gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace. The bodice of Chantilly lace featured a scalloped neckline trimmed with multi pastel colored paillettes and had long, tapering sleeves. From a shirred waistband the full skirt of silk organza fell into a flowing train. Her mantilla veil was held in place by a coronet of simulated pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses.

The bride's attendants were her only sister, Mrs. Ralph Callbeck, as matron of honor and her cousin, Miss Louise Rayner of Summerside as bridesmaid. Mrs. Callbeck was attired in blue and Miss Rayner in yellow. Their identically styled ballerina length gowns of nylon over taffeta were worn over hoop and crinoline and featured shirred bodices with square neckline and cap sleeves. They wore crownless picture hats of lace trimmed with sequins and nylon mitts in shades to match their gowns. Mrs. Callbeck carried a bouquet of pink roses and Miss Rayner carried a nosegay of white roses.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Erskine Campbell, Mrs. Winston Currie, Mrs. Douglas Ferguson, Mrs. H. E. Ramsay and Mrs. Erison McLeod.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. M.R. Ness and responded to by the groom. A toast to the matron of honor and the bridesmaid, proposed by the groom, was responded to by the best man. Telegrams of congratulations and good wishes were read by the best man.

Mrs. J.W.D. Campbell was in charge of the guest book. Out of the province guests included Mrs. W.E. Lawson of Winnipeg, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yohank of Selma, N.S., Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Phillips of Truro and Cst. Peter Gaze of Sackville, N.B.

For a brief honeymoon trip the bride wore a pale blue sheath dress with matching duster and white accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Cst. and Mrs. Lawson will reside in Ottawa where the groom is attached to the Crime Detection Laboratory of the R.C.M.P. and the bride is employed with the Mutual Life Assurance Company. Photo by Don Sears, the Read Studio.
