

News Notes.

The exports of gold from New York last week were $4,250,000. It is said the bribes distributed from the Panama canal funds amounted to 20,000,000 francs.

Mr. John Joseph Daly, Dominion immigration agent at Montreal, is dead, after having held the office 23 years.

The steamer City of Paris and Etruria started from New York at 2 p. m. on Saturday for a race across the ocean.

President Carnot has informed the Czeu that he will remain at his post under any circumstances to save France from disturbance.

The New York Herald says an American syndicate has acquired control of the island of San Domingo by the purchase of the right to collect the customs revenue. The price paid is understood to be $3,500,000.

Xmas Weather Proverbs. A light Christmas, a heavy sheaf. A warm Christmas, a cold Easter.

A green Christmas makes a fat graveyard. A wind on Christmas Day, trees will bring much fruit.

If ice will bear a man before Christmas it will not bear a man afterward.

If Christmas find a bridge, he'll break it; if he finds none he'll make one.

The shepherd would rather see his wife enter the stable on Christmas Day than the sun.

If the sun shines through the apple tree on Christmas Day there will be an abundant crop the following year.

Jefferson's Precepts. Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day.

Never trouble another for what you can do yourself. Never buy what you don't want because it is cheap; it will be dear to you.

We never repent for having eaten to little. How much pain the evils that never happened have cost us.

Like things always by the smooth handle. When angry, count 10 before you speak; if very angry, 100.

Do Not Wear. A small, flat hat, if you are short and stout.

A high, narrow hat if you are tall and thin. Very coarse net veils when the fine white ones are prettier.

A jacket simply because it is fashionable, if it is not becoming to you.

Gloves of brilliant colors. They make the hands look large, and they are not in good taste.

Soiled white slippers. They look untidy, to say the least.

Family Discipline. "Well, Johnny, I suppose you frequently get your little hide tanned at home?"

"Oh, yes, I get a licking every once in a while."

"Who gives it to you?" "Sometimes pa and sometimes ma. It all depends on which of them hasn't anything else to do at the time."—Texas Sitings.

SKODA'S GERMAN SOAP. "Soft as Velvet," "Pure as Gold," that tells the whole story. Most highly medicated soap ever made. Try one cake. It is elegant. At all Druggists. Price, 25 cts.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Jane Savage, a working woman, in Lincoln, while cleaning house last week, placed her brother's small razor between her teeth, that she might have both hands free to take down a shelf.

As she reached for the shelf the razor slipped half way down her throat. She tried to catch her breath, and thus drew the razor so far down that when a surgeon was called he was unable to relieve her.

She was taken to the Lincoln hospital and examined. Her throat was badly swollen, but the razor was gone. Yesterday she complained of severe pains in her stomach, and this morning her stomach was opened. The razor was found tightly closed as when she swallowed it. The removal of the razor was followed by the relief of all pain. The woman is doing well and will probably recover.

COMMENDABLE.—All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will substantiate.

J. Baxter, M. D., Chatham, N. B., says of Malto Peptonized Porter: "I have given your Malto Peptonized Porter a good trial and find it the best nutritious stimulant I ever used." Dec. 22 41.
