Landry Serves Notice Of Another 4-Minute Mile

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VANCOUVER (CP) — John Michael Landy, Australia's sensational miler, served notice Monday that the Aug. 7 British Empire Games mile classic may produce the third under-four-minute mile in history.

The shy 24-year-old runner, who holds the world record of 3:58.0 for the distance, covered three-quarters of a mile in 2:59.4 and talk in Empire Village, home of athletes for the games' 24 competing countries, was that the Landy-Roger Bannister race might break the four-minute barrier.

Landy's clocking came at a time when a great wave of optimism affected all ranks, from top men of the games organization to the 700 or so competitors from Australia to Uganda. With the games only four days away, general chairman Stan Smith of the Vancouver organizing committee said in an interview that "these games will be the greatest in history from every standpoint—calibre of competition and even to finances." He could be right.

Most of the athletes took things easy Monday but Landy, second man in history to crack the four-minute mile, came up with his eye-opener at the University of British Columbia training ground.

SEE TIME EFORT

Landy and Bannister have said they would be out to win and that the time would be of secondary importance. Observers predicted that the pair would jockey for position throughout the race and that the time would be more than four minutes, but now they aren't so sure it will turn out that way.

While Landy worked out at the stadium, Dr. Bannister, first man to crack the four-minute barrier, jogged around a golf course close to the village. Other name athletes took things easy and a relaxed and optimistic atmosphere spread through the city.

"We've sold nearly $250,000 worth of tickets and our objective of $385,000 that will take us off the hook might not be reached but it will be mighty close," said Sam Rosen, the man in charge of ticket sales. Monday was a "roaring" day for his sellers.

"We have assembled our best athletes and we confidently expect to pick up a few medals," said spokesmen for England's team. Englishmen, naturally, pick Bannister to whip Landy and they also expect to go places in the middle-distance track events with such three-milers as world-record holders Chris Chataway and Fred Green.

Ferris Fain Has Knee Operation

CHICAGO, (AP)—First baseman Ferris Fain of the Chicago White Sox underwent surgery Tuesday and the attending physician said the torn knee cartillages were "worse than expected." Dr. John Claridge, White Sox surgeon, said Fain will remain in hospital at least three weeks.

"I hope he will be able to play before the baseball season ends," he said. "But there is a possibility he won't. The cartillages on the end of the thigh bone (the bone leading from the hip to the knee) were very badly destroyed. It was worse than expected."

The Sox star injured his right knee in a home plate collision with Boston catcher Sam White June 27. Surgery was performed on the same knee in 1947 and again in 1948.

Moon Moves Up In Batting Race

NEW YORK (AP)—Wally Moon of the St. Louis Cardinals appears to have the National League's rookie of the year award all but sewed up as he moves in on the leaders in the circuit's batting race.

The fleet outfielder climbed from seventh to fifth place in games last week. He collected 12 hits in 33 trips and lifted his average to .333.

The only first year man among the top 10 hitters in either major league, Moon still has a long way to go to catch Brooklyn's Duke Snider. Duke gained six points last week and is leading with a .365 mark.

Don Mueller of the New York Giants continues in the runner-up slot, but he trailed off seven points to .345. Stan Musial of the Cardinals is third with .337 followed by teammate Red Schoendienst with .336.

MAYS TOPS

Willie Mays of the Giants is tops in homers with 34.

Irv Noren of the New York Yankees is well out in front in the American League scramble with a 358 average. Minnie Minoso of Chicago, in second place, is 34 points behind at .324. He climbed from the No. 4 position with a two-point increase.

Mickey Mantle of the Yankees is third with .321. The speedy outfielder, who is deadlocked with Cleveland's Larry Doby, for the most homers, 20, picked up seven points with 13 safeties in 33 at bats.

Boby Avila of the Indians relinquished the runner-up spot with a 24-point drop to .320 and fourth place.

May Hold 1958 Games In Wales

VANCOUVER, (CP)—Sir Arthur Porritt, chairman of the British Empire and Commonwealth Games Federation, said Monday that Wales may be the host country of the 1958 games.

Sir Arthur stressed that the decision was not final, but said the ruling body of the games is becoming interested in the smaller countries as hosts. Official decision will be made during the Games here, opening July 31.
