Not Dangerous. He—Who was it said, "A little learning is a dangerous thing?" She—Pope. He—I wonder what he really meant? She—I don't know exactly, but I'm sure of one thing—if he'd ever seen you he wouldn't have said it.—Cleveland Leader.

Making Him Understand It. "I see," said Mr. Wallace, "that some man in Chicago lived 19 years on beer alone."

"And I want to say," said Mrs. Wallace, "that if you tried it that would be the way you would live—alone."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Strange if True. "There's a man in town who owns a clock he has wound every night for 33 years."

"That's nothing. We have a clock that my husband has forgot to wind every night for 40 years."—Chicago Record.

A More Interesting Subject. "I've never heard Mrs. Blibbers talk much about her husband. I wonder why it is."

"Probably because she has so many interesting things to say about her dog."—Cleveland Leader.

Answered. "What is so rare as a day in June?" "A Chinaman with side whiskers is rarer."—New York Sunday Journal.

Tommy's Troubles. I'm but a child, as children go, Who's lived about six years by now, Yet many things I mean to know— I wonder how?

Last night our cook, Miss Evergreen, That twenty summers she had seen— I wonder when?

Today the air is rough and rude. Ma wears a brow as black as pitch. Says her complexion's spoiled for good— I wonder which?

Papa in competitions tries. Till now he'd never failed to lose. This time he really took a prize— I wonder whose?

Ma heard of it and let him see Her bill for hats. Papa grew hot. He said if he paid that he'd be— I wonder what?

The curate entered in the thick. He tried to disipate the thought. "Some men," cried pa, "I'd like to kick"— I wonder whom?

These puzzles much my brains have teased, But when to question folks I try They generally look displeas'd— I wonder why. —Pink & Up.

A suit has just been decided against the World's Columbian Exposition brought by the French Government and French exhibitors against the Company for $75,000 damage caused by fire in the "Manufacturers' Building" on January 8th, 1894. The loss to the French included some costly tapestries and magnificent sevens vases made especially for the entrance to the Chamber of Deputies. Judge Crosscup, of Chicago, decided that negligence on the part of the Company was the immediate cause of the injury from which the plaintiffs suffered.

FOR SALE.

RARE CHANCE

The property occupied by J. J. Gay and son situate in the village of Pownal, 7 miles from Charlottetown, is offered for sale. The proprietors have carried on a large market garden nursery, and seed business for thirty years, and the purchaser will no doubt retain a large share of the total trade. The premises comprise a large dwelling house, store, warehouse, barn, shed, orchard, and about 15 acres of the most fertile land on the island. This land has been manured year after year, for so long that as an old man said the other day, "It is all a bed of manure and could be hauled for top-dressing." This would be an ideal spot for a country merchant, or it would be admirable for a summer resort. The situation is one of the most beautiful on the island. Good bathing, fishing, boating, shooting and within easy distance churches, post office school telephone and shops all at the door. For terms and further particulars, apply to Von Clure Gay, J J Gay & son or to JOHN T. MELLISH, Solicitor Charlottetown
