New York Stocks

NEW YORK (AP) - The contract settlement between Ford and the CIO helped send the stock market to a record high Monday.

Leading auto and steel stocks moved ahead, taking a good number of other issues along with them. Gains ranged to nearly three points.

The advance sent the Associated Press average of 60 stocks up 60 cents to a high of $167.20. The former top was $166.80, set April 26.

The industrial component of the average gained $1.40 for a high of $225.60. The falls lost 30 cents and the utilities were unchanged.

Canadian issues were mostly lower. McIntyre dropped one point. International Nickel slipped 1/4. Dome Mines was up 3/8 and Canadian Pacific and Hiram Walker both remained unchanged.
