PRICE OF WATERS COLLEGE.—The students of the Waters College were yesterday afternoon addressed by Mr. Percy Pope. He referred to the three attributes necessary for the acquisition of knowledge, viz., sensibility of feeling, emotional power, and intellect, and pointed out that the cultivation of these attributes should ever be the aim of the student.

The German Emperor and His Guards. BERLIN, Nov. 7.—The ceremony of swearing a large number of recruits to be attached to the Berlin, Spandau, Lichterfeld and Charlottenburg garrisons took place this morning. In his address to the recruits the emperor said: "You have sworn allegiance to me and I am now your paterfamilias of the honor of wearing the lion's coat. It is a special honor to serve in my guards, and I believe that the present is a suitable opportunity to reopen negotiations with a view to having the bounties abrogated, or, failing that, for a discriminatory duty on the part of the Empire against such countries as give bounties. The abrogation of treaties containing the most favorable nation clause is urged. Mr. Tripp writes that in view of the abrogation of treaties which have heretofore stood in the way, the prospect opens of carrying into effect those mutually favorable reciprocal relations between Canada and the West Indies which were advocated so forcibly and eloquently by Mr. G. E. Foster, when he visited us some years ago."

Trade Between Canada and West Indies. OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—The prospects of a reciprocal trade arrangement between Canada and the West Indies are becoming more favorable. Mr. Edgar Tripp, the Canadian commercial agent at Trinidad and Tobago, writes that the islands are now recovering from the recent depression of the sugar industry, and are looking abroad for opportunities to increase their trade. The great obstacle so far has been the European bounties on beet root sugar, which places their products at a disadvantage both in England and Canada. Mr. Tripp believes that the present is a suitable opportunity to reopen negotiations with a view to having the bounties abrogated, or, failing that, for a discriminatory duty on the part of the Empire against such countries as give bounties. The abrogation of treaties containing the most favorable nation clause is urged. Mr. Tripp writes that in view of the abrogation of treaties which have heretofore stood in the way, the prospect opens of carrying into effect those mutually favorable reciprocal relations between Canada and the West Indies which were advocated so forcibly and eloquently by Mr. G. E. Foster, when he visited us some years ago."
