BALL HOCKEY RETURNS

The Annual Ball Hockey Tournament is drawing near announced Commissioner Vince Mulligan at a Press Conference Monday afternoon.

The Bullets will try to retain their championship which they won in convincing fashion last year. Marion Hall which was in the final last year is not expected to put in a team after the humiliation they took last year. Other teams expected to enter include KoraKin, if they can get out of their knitting class, Selects, and the Basketball Team which will try to win at least one game this year.

The Bullets have signed free agent Neil MacKenzie to go between the pipes which enables Avelino Gomez to go up front and provide the scoring punch the team needs. Socky MacDonald, Shane Turner, and M.F. Schurman along with some surprises from the Junior A league will strengthen the team considerably. Rabbi will move up from defense and center probably the most awesome line in ball hockey history.

Teams wishing to enter please get your name and team players into the Commissioner as soon as possible.

Blanchard

Here at Blanchard Corner, we've been eagerly awaiting the arrival of our foreign correspondent's report. Alex Weissman's copy finally landed in Canada last Friday.

Alex claims a new Italian film company has begun under the guidance of James Campbell, James Johnston, and Wayne Murphy. So that's what they've been doing!

Movies in production include: Kevin MacNeil in Lady Sings the Blues, Chris Rushton and J.R. Kelly in a new "Road" picture, "Road to Oblivion" and Lee Walker stars in "King Lear", Queen Lenora the story about a King by day and a Queen by night.

Under consideration is a new underwater horror flick with alligators, piranhas, and sharks to be shot on location at

Corner

UPEI's lovely resort, Blanchard Lake. Thanks for your report Alex, looking forward to next years.

Back on the homefront, Intramural Playoffs are underway with results to be published (maybe) next week. Hockey, volleyball, and basketball all started this past week. But for the best action, take in the Keep Fit classes where Vince Mulligan takes on all females.

Recently at Blanchard Corner we've been deluged with mail from girls asking, "What does J.R. do in the summer?" J.R. works as a C.N. car ferry, the John Hamilton Grelly.

February's athlete of the month - Pam Kelly, the tall lanky girl from Blanchard dominates Intramural volleyball to the effect this reporter has never seen. And that's the way it is.
