Socred Leader Sees CBC As Dangerous Organization

FORT WILLIAM, Ont. (CP)—Social Credit leader Robert Thompson described the CBC Friday as a dangerous supercorporation which must not be allowed to continue as a law unto itself.

Outling his formula for a new broadcasting setup in Canada, he said the CBC must be responsive and responsible to the public through some elected, but non-political authority.

"We who pay the piper must and shall call the tune," he told the Fort William Canadian Club. "If the CBC is to be responsible to the public, the public will have to make itself responsible for the CBC."

Mr. Thompson said that CBC President Alphonse Ouimet has said the CBC rejects any material which would preclude its being freely introduced into mixed company as the subject of ordinary family conversation.

"No one can claim an inherent right to walk into your sitting - room and start telling dirty stories. Yet is not that very close to what has been happening?" said Mr. Thompson.

SEVEN-MEMBER BOARD

The Social Credit leader's broadcasting formula calls for appointment of a seven-member Board of Broadcast Governors. There would be a chairman, three members appointed by the government, and three by the radio and TV advisory council. The board would be responsible for licensing all forms of communications.

A 60member BBG advisory council, composed of MPs of all parties, provincial government representatives and delegates from nearly all walks of life, would lay down guiding principles of policy and programming for all radio and TV stations.

He suggested that all TV and radio stations would be sold or leased to commercial companies to operate on a private enterprise basis, except in remote areas where private stations could not operate economically. The CBC would pay for the cost of production of CBC content requirements, and also subsidize actual cost of broadcasting of certain cultural, educational, sports, news and political programs.

SHORT-WAVE CEASE

As a result the CBC would become a producing and distributing organization with no commercial and only special operational broadcasting duties. Direct short - wave international broadcasting service would cease, but arrangements would be made with foreign stations to carry Canadian programs.

"In the over - all picture of these changes, it has been estimated that the CBC could operate on one-quarter of its present budget and still adequately meet the demands of a public broadcast facility," he said. "It may be even more economical if the national film board could be integrated into this new setup."

U.S. Policy In Viet Nam Is Outlined To De Gaulle

PARIS (AP) — U.S. State Undersecretary George W. Ball told President de Gaulle here the United States will stand firm in its support of the anti guerrilla war in South Viet Nam. This left the gap open between U.S. and French policy in Southeast Asia.

President Johnson's special envoy spent an hour and 15 minutes with de Gaulle in Elysee Palace. Ball outlined the U.S. position on the basis of two days of an intensive American policy review by State Secretary Dean Rusk and Defence Secretary Robert McNamara in Honolulu this week, informants said.

The sources said Ball advised de Gaulle of Johnson's views on the recommendations resulting from the Honolulu meeting, which were reported to be increased economic and military aid to the Saigon regime.

De Gaulle believes neutralization is the only workable solution for the states of former French Indochina — Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia — and for Southeast Asia as a whole.

U.S. officials declined to disclose the substance of the talk but said the meeting had been "extremely friendly." They said de Gaulle had been especially forthcoming" in setting out his own views on what should be done in the area. They said de Gaulle made a "valuable exposition" of the French position in fuller terms than any American had ever heard before. De Gaulle and Ball found "substantial areas of agreement" between the U.S. and France on Southeast Asia policy.

DIFFER ON VIEWS

Washington feels it must continue to help the Saigon regime build up its own military strength and its political strength with the South Vietnamese people. France feels this is bound to fail unless the West comes to terms with China.

Adoption Law Changes Asked

TORONTO (CP)—The Board of Evangelism and Social Action of the Presbyterian Church said here it will ask the general assembly to call on the governments concerned to amend adoption laws to allow Roman Catholic or Protestant couples to raise adopted children in their faith, regardless of the religion of the natural parents.

Presbyterians were also urged to fight Roman Catholic demands that children of mixed marriages be raised as Roman Catholics.

"We do not accept any legal or moral grounds for this demand," the board said. "And as a church we should support our people in such a situation not to accept this requirement of the church of Rome."

Rev. William Lawson introduced the board's report on birth control and indicated the board will ask the church to call on the federal government to revise the Criminal Code so that married couples might obtain advice and birth control literature from doctors and druggists.

Difficulties Highlight CIAU Meeting

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — Competition dates and participation difficulties highlighted a Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union annual meeting which closed at the University of Western Ontario.

Speaking for the Ontario-Quebec Athletic Association, Dr. Duncan McLarty of UWO, said his association is on record against having its members compete beyond the first weekend in March. This could rule out his association's representation in hockey and basketball tournaments usually held in the middle of March.

The Ontario - Quebec Association, Dr. McLarty said, has also voted against sending the team finishing second in hockey and basketball to the national playoffs should the champions decline to go.

The Maritimes Intercollegiate Athletic Association, the Ottawa - St. Lawrence Athletic Association, the Ontario Intercollegiate Athletic Association and the Western Canada Intercollegiate Athletic Association make up the CIAU.

A yachting championship was discussed and it was decided to endorse a national event in the Montreal area if the Ottawa-St. Lawrence Association supervises.

Gus McFarlane of Mount Allison University was chosen chairman of the basketball committee.

APPROACH GATT

Geneva (AP)—Romania, Bulgaria and Hungary have made preliminary approaches to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade with a view to joining the Western - dominated trade organization, reliable economic sources disclosed here Saturday. It was not immediately clear if the approach to GATT was made with Soviet approval.

Opening lead — ten of clubs.

This famous hand occurred last year in the match between Argentina and Italy. It was played on Bridgeramo before a huge and astonished Italian audience.

Santamarino was North for Argentina, and Attaguile South, when the bidding shown took place.

North's pass of six hearts, an obvious cuebid, was surprising, to say the least. Spades had already been agreed upon as the trump suit, and the diamond and heart bids by South were intended merely to show control of those suits.

South's six heart bid was an invitation to North to bid seven spades if he had the right hand for it. The cuebid might well have been used on a void or perhaps the A-x of hearts.

Probably North was so deeply engrossed in thought—trying to decide whether or not to undertake a grand slam — that he did not realize, when he passed, that South's last bid was six hearts, not spades.

Whatever the reason for the pass, Santamarino's decision was an inspired one. The trumps turned out to be divided 3-2 and Attaguile did not have the slightest difficulty scoring twelve tricks with hearts as trumps. Six spades would almost surely have gone down one.

When the Italian North-South pair later played the hand, they reached six spades with normal bidding and went down one.

The Argentine West led a club. Declarer took the ace, discarding a diamond, drew three rounds of trumps, and cashed the A-K-Q of hearts. He then played the ace and a low diamond.

The Italian declarer would have made the slam if he had not played the queen from dummy at this point, but he had no way of knowing that East's king was now alone. He lost the queen to the king and later lost another diamond trick to go down one.

As a result, Argentina gained 1,000 points on the deal.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
