AWARDED McGILL DEGREES—Two Island students were awarded degrees at Founders Day Convocation at McGill University on October 6. They were Miss Dorothy Cox, of Charlottetown, Bachelor of Nursing, and Mr. Lloyd Beck MacLeod, of Grand View, Master of Science in Agronomy.

SEARCH CONTINUED—Drugging operations in the Fullerton Marsh area by the B.C.M.P. continued yesterday without success in their search for the body of James B. Martin, of Kinross, missing from his home since October 2nd. The police are working on the assumption that Mr. Martin may have met his death in the waters of the marsh, since his automobile was found in that vicinity.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT—In Queen's County Magistrate's Court before Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet yesterday morning a resident of New Glasgow was fined $50 and costs or 30 days for creating a disturbance at Gordon Lodge, St. Patricks. A resident of Hunter River was fined $20, and costs or 30 days for illegal possession of intoxicating liquor.

POLICE COURT—Two Airmen from Summerside appeared in City Police Court before Magistrate Martin yesterday morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of theft. They will appear again on Friday for sentencing, and to face another charge of attempted breaking. The case arose from a theft of tools from an automobile on Saturday night and an attempted break into the K. and R. Store early Sunday morning.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of Henry W. Burke took place yesterday morning from his late residence, Douglas Station, St. Andrew's Church, where Rev. S. H. Mass was celebrated by Rev. Kenneth MacMillan, who also officiated at the grave. The pallbearers were Wilfred Coffin, James Dingwell, William Crawford, John McEachern, Donald MacDonald and James Doyle. Interment took place in the family plot in the Church cemetery.

CLUB MEETING—The regular weekly meeting of the Centennial Y.S. Men's Club was held last night in the Y. M. C. A. with Art Caruthers as chairman. Charles Downe as co-chairman. A hearty sing-song was led by Harry Thompson with Bob Crooks at the piano, after which the members heard a very interesting talk and the showing of slides by Allan Massey, a member of the Charlottetown Air Cadet Corp on his trip to the United Kingdom and Sweden. The meeting closed with "The Queen."

EVANGELISTIC MEETING—Last night at Central Christian Church a capacity congregation heard with intense interest another Gospel message preached by Evangelist E. P. Benoit. His subject was "The New Commandment" in which he spoke of Jesus' words to his disciples that they love God "as I have loved you, and love thy neighbor as thyself." Special music was provided by the choir with Mrs. Alison MacRae at the organ and Miss Katherine Beck at the piano. A duet was rendered by two young people Elmer Nicholson of Fredericton and Dorothy Matheson of Breadabane. Singing Evangelist W. O. Weale thrilled the congregation with his rendition of "The Holy City" as a trumpet solo and in vocal solo was heard in "In the Glory of His Presence."

HOLMAN STORE NEWS

WINTER'S on the way, but definitely! And you'll definitely need to start battening down to keep winds, snow, sleet and whatever comes just where it belongs on the outside! The Hardware Department of Holman's in Charlottetown and in Summerside can supply you with all winterizing necessities for your home... For instance: there's quite a selection of different types of WEATHERSTRIPPING, so you'll be able to choose Rubber Covered, Fiberglass, Felt or the new "Strip-Seal" to fill in the cracks and crannies where drafts are bound to sneak in unless attended to. Also, you'll have to start soon to get your Double Windows on here again, the Hardware Department will be able to help you—fasteners, such as FASTENING WINDOW BUTTONS, WINDOW EYES and other things are always in good supply. CHECK over your needs today, then come to the Hardware Department of either Holman Store for Winterizing Needs. FROM the dim and dark past right up to the present day, MILK GLASS has been sought by collectors. The history of Milk Glass is intensely interesting (I've just been reading a brochure on it) and the manufacture of it really does go back to the dark ages! The Imperial Glass Corporation has gone into the producing of Milk Glass by olden day methods and the truly beautiful results are to be found in the charming pieces on display in the China Departments of Holman's in Charlottetown and Summerside. Odd pieces of interesting shape and design are exact copies of old treasures. The prices are reasonable—from 1.00 to 3.65. You'll be missing something if you don't, at least, come in and see the different pieces of Imperial Milk Glass in the China Departments of Both Holman Stores. DAME Fashion has started a rash of SWEATER buying—and, truly I'm not foolin' the Five and Ten Department has the best buy in LONG-SLEEVED PULLOVERS I've seen in a lot of days, weeks or months! They bear the proud labels—"Knit-To-Fit" and "Regent" and the exciting price is ONLY 2.98. Soft, pure Botany wool is used in these Sweater Classics with either ribbed or double knit round necks. The shades are softly muted for Autumn wear and you'll be able to find any one of them you desire. Sizes range from 34 to 42... I'll be terribly, terribly surprised if these don't go like crazy and have to be re-ordered. Come get your Long Sleeved Pullover while the getting is good! They're in the 5 and 10 Department at Holman's.

Hennessey Funeral Homes Acquired By Mr. W. J. Brown

One of the oldest established funeral homes in the Province changed hands recently when Mr. William J. (Bill) Brown purchased the Frank Hennessey Funeral Home at 97 Kent Street. At the same time Mr. Brown purchased the interests of the A. A. Hennessey Funeral Home across the street and will operate the combined enterprise at 97 Kent Street under the name of the Hennessey Funeral Home. The Frank Hennessey Funeral Home was originally established approximately 86 years ago. A complete redecorating job has been done on the Home with new rugs, furniture, drapes and paint with all of it in splendid taste. At the same time all such equipment as is needed is completely modern and has been selected to give the finest service in the best of taste.

Associated with Mr. Brown in his venture will be Mr. Earl Chaisson in charge of embalming. Mr. Chaisson started in the business several years ago under the late Mr. Frank Hennessey and for the past couple of years has been actively associated with the N. D. MacLean Funeral Home. Mr. Harold Hennessey, formerly of the A. A. Hennessey Funeral Home, will remain on the staff. The new Home will be able to provide a complete 24-hour ambulance service for the public. Mr. Brown, new proprietor, is well known to thousands of people in the Maritimes. A native of this city, he obtained his early education at Queen Square School and Prince of Wales College. He spent approximately eight years employed by the A. A. Hennessey Funeral Home before joining the broadcasting staff of Radio Station CF CY. While there his sport broadcasts, particularly of horse racing, made his voice familiar to all listeners.
