TORONTO. A toothless grin and a muddy face peering between the legs of a policeman at

Toronto's City Hall Thursday brought a royal wink from Princess Margaret for five-year-old

Emanuel Reid. Manny said he tried to wink back but didn't know how. But inspired by the recognition he was still roaming around City Hall at 8 p.m. (CP Wirephoto)

Fortune Cove Farmer Is Killed When Horses Bolt

A sixty-one-year-old Fortune Cove farmer, Mr. Anthony Perry, was killed Saturday afternoon when a team of horses bolted as he was hitching them to a farm wagon.

Apparently Mr. Perry was standing between the horses and managed to support himself for a time by clinging to the wagon pole but lost his grip when the team made a short turn. The wagon wheels passed over his body causing a ruptured lung.

Coroner Dr. Charles Dewar was called to the scene and decided that an inquest would not be necessary.

Besides his wife the accident victim is survived by three sons and two daughters—Mrs. Keir (Thelma) (Dora) in Metz, France; Earl in Fortune Cove; LAC Joseph of the R.C.A.F. stationed in Ontario; Eugene in Alberton and Mrs. John Lynch (Mary) of Toronto.

Also surviving are the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Henry Gallant (Margaret) in Alberton; John in Saint John, N. B.; Mrs. William Fields (Minnie) in Lewiston, Maine; Mrs. Omer McKenna (Celia) in Rum-

Glenwood Pair Win Trophy In Boat Race At West Point

The Betts brothers, Orville and Iava, regained the B. A. Atkinson trophy by winning the handicapped race at West Point on Saturday afternoon. Winners in 1956 the two Glenwood fishermen lost the trophy to Russell MacLean of West Point last year. John Ellis placed second and Ernest MacDonaid was third in the annual event.

Eleven boats competed. The trophy was donated by the late Mrs. B. A. Atkinson, formerly Isabel MacKinnon of Bras and rules for the race, to be held annually, originally were meant for sail boats. As a handicap for fast boats anyone returning, when the signal is given, in less than two minutes of the time taken for the outward trip, is disqualified.

Russell MacLean evened the score by winning the free-for-all over nine other fishing boats, standings in the free for all were as follows: Russell MacLean, 2. Ernest MacDonaid, 3. Albert MacLean, 4. Lester MacLean, 5.

Keir MacNeill, 6. Willard Betts, 7. Willys Bulger. 8. Lionel Livingstone.

FOR HOSPITAL Favored by fine sunny weather, the races were well attended. Generous prizes were donated by merchants and business men for all events. The proceeds were in aid of O'Leary Community Hospital.

Following are the results: Bronze age group, 80 yards swimming race, free style: 1. Davison Biggar. 2. Ian Strang. 3. Heath Costain. 4. Jean Ingram.

Senior age group, 14 to 16: 1. Lou Anne Kennedy. 2. Jud Bulger. 3. Joan Phillips.

Intermediate age group: 1. Shriil Barwise. 2. Lillas Henderson. 3. Jerry Boulter. 4. Stanley Horne. 5. Alton Bulger.

Dory Race: 1. Ralph Betts. 2. Orville Betts. 3. James Gallant. Punt race: 1. Keir MacNeill, 2. James Bagloe.

Judges were: Alvin MacLean, Dr. George Dewar and Errol Steison; starter, Raeford MacLean.
