The housewife pins her faith to it, and well she may. She had to use the old washing powders that destroyed her clothes She had to use chemical compounds which made everything a dirty yellow. Then "Lessive Phenix came along with its incomparable virtues. It takes the terror out of the work, for it makes the water soft and the clothes beautiful, and saves 50 per cent in soap Then it cleans everything in the house from the silverware to the pots pans and the bath.

Fire at Montague. We are sorry to hear that the "block building" at Montague owned by Dr. Robertson, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The origin of the fire is unknown. The building was valued at between $2 500 and $3,000 It was insured for $1,000 The lower flat was occupied as a drug store by J T. Robison, formerly of Charlottetown. He had no insurance, and his loss is heavy. The second was occupied by Benj Stewart and William Cairns, each of whom is out of pocket as a result of the fire Some of the adjoining buildings narrowly escaped destruction.

THE WOMEN IN COUNCIL.

The afternoon session of the W. M. S Convention was opened at 2 p. m, Mrs. Johnson in the chair. Devotional exercises were led by Miss Massey, from Summerside. "Nearer my God to thee" being sung and prayer offered, a short consecration meeting followed in which a number of the sisters took part. Consecration lessons were read from portions of Scripture contained in 2 Cor 6, Rome 12, John 15

The meeting was then thrown open for testimonies and quite a number of sisters gave expression to the wonderful love of God, and we have no doubt in that way strengthened some weak one. All who testified spoke of the blessedness that cometh to the soul that is fully consecrated to God.

After the close of the consecration service the question box was opened which contained the following questions:

How to make the bands interesting to the boys? First suggestion give them offices; second, get them to write for a paper.

Shall we make a box of useful articles for Cocaletya homes?

Shall we have yearly or half yearly conventions? Decided to hold a yearly.

Why are so many women interested in missions indifferent to the cause of temperance?

What is the real condition of wives in India? Mrs. Strong said that no tongue can describe it It is said that it is a little worse than before the government prevented them from being burned.

Are the women in heathen lands more susceptible to the gospel than men? Yes, particularly in Japan. Those holding official positions are required to worship their ancestors, and some other things which they would have to give up if they would become Christians.

M. L W Stewart read a very nice paper entitled, "Practical Suggestions."

Josie Barratt recited a beautiful poem called "The Orphanhood of Heathen." It was very well rendered by this little girl and called forth some remarks.

In the absence of Mrs. Turner, the Rev. Mr. Turner read an excellent paper on the W M S Reading Circle This paper was both interesting and instructive. A duet was then sung by Ella Pickard and May Down called "two cents a week,"—very nicely rendered.

Mr Heard read a paper asking "How to awaken an interest in the uninterested?" This paper called forth a discussion.

Mrs Large, from York, said that their Auxiliary monthly meeting was the very best meeting outside the class meeting that she ever attended. All the members were interested.

Mrs. Alley, from Cardigan, spoke of the difficulty in holding their meetings, on account of the distance members lived from each other, and said the convention had been a benefit to her.

Mrs. A. M. Wright, from Bedeque, said that to be a successful worker in missions one must have the love of God in the heart.

Next a solo, very beautifully sung, by Mrs. Richie, after which greetings were read from the W. C. T. U. to the convention.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Charlottetown, recognizing the sisterhood of the W. M. S., extend to this convention a most cordial greeting as well as wishing them success in all their efforts to send the gospel to our heathen sisters Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Mrs Johnson very appropriately responded to this greeting.

Mrs Elisha Wright, of Summerside, said she found that holding social meetings at the houses was beneficial. Mrs. Hamilton supported having public meetings fortnightly.

A committee to confer with the Presbyterian W. M S., who are going to hold a convention next week in this city, in reference to the traffic of Chinese girls under the British flag was appointed.

After which the convention adjourned.

The meeting in the evening was well attended Rev. W W Brewer occupied the chair After devotional exercises, and an introductory address by the chairman, an interesting paper entitled "The New Evangel," was read by Miss Dawson. This was followed by a solo by Mrs. Ritchie and a dialogue by four little girls, "How our dolls went as missionaries." Rev. Dr Sutherland's address which followed was very interesting The choir, under the leadership of Mr, Earle, discoursed excellent music. The meeting closed with singing and prayer.
