ADVICE TO MOTHERS.— Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and s the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. [April 1 '88

POLICE COURT.—Mrs. Charles Nicholson vs. James Mooney, action for assault. The complainant swore that she and the defendant had had a dispute about the possession of a puncheon and that during the dispute the defendant had struck her and knocked her down. The defendant, on oath, admitted the altercation about the puncheon, but denied assaulting her in any way. The case was dismissed.—Wm. Corish vs. Susan Smith. This was another action for assault. The evidence showed that during an altercation between the two about their respective rights to a stable, some very strong language was used, and the defendant struck the plaintiff in the forehead with a shovel, inflicting serious injuries. A fine of $2 was imposed.

DYING OF A SPIDER'S BITE.—Mr. Russell, the engineer of the pile driver at work on the track of the "O K" line at Millan, has met with a singular misfortune. A few days ago, while at work, he drank water out of a dipper and felt a sting on the end of his tongue. Looking into the dipper he noticed a spider in it. At first he took no notice of the bite; but his tongue commenced to swell and soon became so large that it filled his mouth. A doctor was summoned and he did all in his power to relieve the suffering of Mr. Russell, but all his efforts were ineffectual, and on Wednesday Russell's condition was so critical that his wife and child who live in this city, were sent for.—Quincy (Ill.) Whig.

What Does He Mean?

SIR,—Among other motions and suggestions made at the City Council meeting on the 9th inst., by certain members of the Board, whose actions speak louder than words, the following rich gem from Councillor McRae is deserving of notice. Councillor McRae said, "That no action had been taken on the pig by-law recently passed. He thought that if no action were to be taken, it would be as well to have the by-law revoked." What! revoke a by-law passed at the urgent request of many, if not a majority of the electors of Ward 4, and let the pigs back into the city after having them partially removed, at all events with fair prospects of carrying out the wishes of all who appreciate wholesome sanitary regulations by enforcing instead of "revoking" a by-law, having for its object the cleansing of the city by the removal of pig styes, slaughter houses, etc., as petitioned for, last spring, by nearly all our leading citizens! And yet Councillor McRae, in direct opposition to the expressed wishes of those who gave him a seat at the Council Board, now thinks it would be as well to revoke one of the best by-laws ever put on the records of the City Council. What does Capt. McRae mean? WARD 4.

The locust plague in Algeria is becoming worse. Sixty thousand laborers and two thousand soldiers are powerless. The whole country is devastated, and it is feared famine and pestilence will result.

In the United States the decrease in National bank note circulation for five years, ending June 30th, 1888, has exceeded $175,000,000. The decrease during the fiscal year just closed, although nearly $30,000,000, was smaller than for either of the two fiscal years immediately preceding.

COMPETITORS VERY UNEASY.

WHY?

Because the Big Rush for Clothing is at

L. E. PROWSE'S.

NO WONDER—His Prices astonish the natives. Every customer more than pleased.

Competitors may say what is not true about Bankrupt Clothing, Big Boom in Clothing, &c., &c., but L. E. PROWSE does the business all the same.

BECAUSE his Prices are too low for competition. The whole country are invited to see his wonderful Stock of BANKRUPT CLOTHING.
