

JOHNSON ON DAMAGE INSPECTION

President Johnson bends over to pick up a damaged child's bike during his inspection Wednesday of tornado damage in a Toledo, Ohio, suburban development where about a third of the 75 homes had been obliterated by Sunday's twister. It was the last stop of the President's one-day Midwest tour of flood and tornado areas.

Wheat Sale Reports Said Just Hogwash

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — A U.S. agriculture department official has been quoted as saying that reports of Argentina selling 1,000,000 tons of wheat to the Soviet Union are "just so much hogwash."

The English-language Buenos Aires Herald, which interviewed the U.S. official but withheld his name, also quoted him as saying "if any wheat is sold to the Soviet Union it would be a relatively small amount."

A Soviet trade mission, headed by Ilya Stepanov, has been negotiating with Argentine officials for the last three weeks. Official Argentine sources and the press have been saying the Russians "are on the verge" of striking some sort of a wheat-for-oil barter deal.

The newly-founded London Business School will be headed by a Canadian, Arthur F. Earle, 43 of Hoover Limited.
