

Aberdeen Angus Ass'n Offers Prizes For New Exhibitors

ALBERTON — It was announced at a meeting of Aberdeen Angus Ass'n Exhibitor's Association Wednesday evening that the Canadian Aberdeen Angus Ass'n is offering substantial special prizes to new exhibitors of this breed of cattle at this year's fair.

It is expected that prize lists will be in the hands of exhibitors within a week. Alden Gamble, chairman of the building committee, reported that his committee recommends that additional land be

Nigerian Gives Talk In Alberton

ALBERTON — Rev. Iyia Ude of Nigeria addressed a gathering in Alberton Presbyterian Church Hall Wednesday evening. He wore the dress of his native land and spoke briefly before showing an interesting variety of slides which gave the viewers glimpses of scenery and public buildings in Nigeria.

After the meeting he had an display some Nigerian currency. Opening worship was conducted by Mrs. F. J. Carpenter, president of the W.M.S., under whose auspices the meeting was held. Donald W. MacKay, student minister, led in prayer.

During a social hour which followed the meeting refreshments were served.

Alberton Has New Business

ALBERTON — Andras Halupa has opened a Jewellery and watch repair business in Alberton. A native of Hungary, Mr. Halupa learned his trade there 12 years ago. Feeling they could no longer continue to live under the existing political regime, he and his wife left the country and immigrated to Canada on years ago. They lived in Halifax for a time and while there learned to speak English. Later they moved to Truro and then to Pictou where Mr. Halupa had his own business. Mr. and Mrs. Halupa have a daughter and two sons between six and nine years of age. Unfortunately, conditions were such that they could not bring their children out of Hungary and they are still with relatives there.
