Expect Attempt To Move Suerte

OTTAWA (CP) — Transport Minister Balcer said he expects an attempt will be made shortly to move the freighter Suerte which went aground at Three Fatham Harbor, 15 miles east of Halifax, last Jan. 8.

He informed the Commons that the owners of the Lebanse ship have been told that in the meantime they must take every precaution to prevent pollution from bunker oil leaking from the vessel.

Replying to Lloyd R. Crouse (PC — Queens-Lunenburg), he said the oil needs to be heated before it can be pumped out, and the water around the grounded ship is so shallow that no other vessel capable of heating the oil can come alongside.
