Not Seen Locked
But More Gone

TORONTO (CP)—Charles F. W. Burns, chairman of the board of Crown Life Insurance Company, has described Finance Minister Gordon's proposed legislation to encourage Canadian ownership of financial institutions as locking the door after the horse is gone.

Mr. Burns said: "I admire the Canadianism of the man who does not touch this nationalism. The principle is a little wrong."

He said the restrictions are not retroactive and might affect the confidence of foreign policy buyers in the Canadian insurance industry.

The proposed legislation would limit total non-resident holdings in Canadian bank, trust and insurance companies to 25 per cent. Individual non-residents would be limited to 10 per cent.

Steel Pinch Felt In U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—A pinch in the U.S. steel market is tightening under pressure of heavy high-level demand plus inventory building, Iron Age says.

The metalworking weekly says mills are booked out as far as six months for output of wide range of steel on delayed delivery since early summer.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By B. JAY BECKER

QUIZ
3. One diamond. This is certainly not a sturdy suit, but all hands containing a diamond should be seriously considered. All hands containing 14 high-card points are mandatory opening bids, so pass has to be ruled out. The hand is not strong enough for a notrump opening, and the only thing therefore left to do is bid one of a suit. Naturally, a five-card club is a better choice than one club, which would also be a reasonable bid. There is a good chance that either case partner will respond with one spade.

The advantage of the heart opening is that, even if you are jumped to two notrump, you would feel that you had shown your values without having suppressed any important feature, while if you had opened with a club and partner had responded in a spade, a jump to two notrump would amount to suppressing a good hand suit. To bid one hearts at this point would show the strength of the hand all right, but would give a somewhat distorted picture of the distribution.

5. One club. This is a choice of hearts. It is never desirable to bid a three-card suit, even in clubs, but it is better to do this than to open with either of the weak four-card major suits.

much shorter but lengthening on orders for sheets, bars, wide-flange beams and some wire and bar products, the magazine said.

Meanwhile, in an attempt to keep basic steel companies pushed production higher for a seventh consecutive time last week, reaching a level 64 per cent ahead of this stage of 1963. Mills poured more than 2,500,000 tons of ingots and steel for castings, and threatened this week to hit a new yearly high, topping mid-May's peak for the year so far.

Tokyo Police Prepare For Big Invasion

TOKYO (Reuters)—Tokyo's metropolitan police have organized like an army battle command to cope with the coming Olympics and one of the largest invasions of foreigners in the city's history.

A special Olympic security police force has been formed, and 27,000 police will be on duty for the games, starting Oct. 10.

There is even a section to help any athletes who decide they want to seek political asylum. The 1964 Olympic city is geared to welcome the games tourists.

Barry, despite having to close at midnight now, are so anxious to welcome the foreign visitor they solicit customers from casual drinkers, asking them to bring along friends next time.

A campaign of "small kindnesses" brought good results but has failed to stamp out the Japanese habit of urinating in the streets despite the hanging of extremely clear posters in subway stations by the metropolitan government.

Prices are rising. On the Giza, bright lights section of Tokyo, a pint of beer can cost as much as 1,500 yen ($450) and a drink of scotch whisky 2,000 yen ($600).

MOSTLY FARMERS

The majority of Pakistan's 86,000,000 people are farmers with an average holding of one acre each.

RIPELY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Bank of Nova Scotia spokesman who also suggested the Toronto-Dominion Bank Bank of Montreal and the Royal Bank were all in the same category in this regard.
