
BAPTIST YOUNG ADULTS PRACTICE PLAY

An Easter play entitled "Joseph of Arimathea" will be presented on Wednesday evening by the Baptist Church Young Adults. The play which is under the direction of Mrs. E.S. Giddings will be a two-act affair featuring the events that took place before and after the trial of Jesus Christ.

Winsloe Youth Chosen Island 4-H Delegate

Cecil Taylor, Winsloe will represent this province at the United States national 4-H Club conference in Washington April 18-24. Mr. Taylor leaves by plane for Ottawa on April 15.

The Canadian delegates—there is one from each province—will undergo an orientation course in the Canadian capital before flying to New York for a day visiting the United Nations, Radio City and other spots of unusual interest.

Girls and boys alternate each year and this is the boys' turn. Delegates are chosen in competitions based on club participation, community activity, potential leadership and general knowledge.

Cecil is a 4th year student in Prince of Wales College, is majoring in mathematics and ha already been accepted as a student at Dalhousie University where he will complete his degree work.

He started in 4-H Club activities at 11 or 12 years of age with the Winsloe-Borden club and has been an assistant club leader the past year. He is secretary of the 4-H Club Alumni at PWC which has a membership of 22 students, made up chiefly of those who have won scholarships in club work or trips.

Mr. Taylor went to Ontario last year as a part of the inter-provincial exchange of club members. He was a guest in the Hamilton and district area and visited the artificial insemination unit there, the manager of which was an active 4-H Club leader until a few years ago.

The United States national 4-H Club conference comprised four delegates from each of the 50 states, and one from each Canadian province.

Next fall American 4-H Club members will be guests of Canadian club members at the national Canadian conference in Toronto and Ottawa, it was explained last night by Miss Theresa MacLeod, director of 4-H Club activity for the province.

These trips are sponsored by the Canadian Council for 4-H Clubs which comprise some of Canada's leading business and financial organizations.

PREMIER

cial emphasis on "designated areas' " which this province lacks.

Premier Shaw touched on the increasing costs of living.

"Our cost of construction has been started upward because of new Federal taxes on building materials, and our treatment in financial adjustments at the Federal level has indicated no immediate understanding of our conditions and needs or the unyelling out of the inequalities that exist between this province and the rest of Canada.

"We are unfortunately in a squeeze, and to relieve the squeeze, we are compelled to follow the standards set by otaer provinces."

The Premier said that he did not agree that this province "should accept the principle of charity." He said that he would approach the federal government "in the spirit of justice and the fulfilment of a commitment legitimate and binding under our constitution."

INFERIORITY

"Are we to place the stamp of inferiority on the good people of this province by telling them they must accept standards that are far below those enjoyed by Canadians elsewhere? Is that the interpretation of the spirit and intent of Confederation?"

Mr. Shaw said that the provincial revenues here "are restricted and strained to the utmost" and that the only way this province can establish services comparable with those in the other provinces is to "receive from these provinces and from the Dominion Government a greater measure of consideration as Canadian citizens."

"Unfortunately we are not receiving that recognition."

POKED FUN

Premier Shaw poked fun at Opposition Leader Alex W. Matheson's "three hours period of expiration into finances."

"He waved two handfuls of papers over his head; he added here, subtracted there, multiplied and divided and finally reached the higher levels of mathematical calculation; and, retracing his steps, he grasped other bundles of papers, repeated his investigations, and reached the greatest example of mis-calculation ever achieved in this Legislature. The mountain labored with great groans and apparent maternal pains and finally brought forth a most disappointing mouse."

DEVELOPMENT

Speaking on "development", Premier Shaw said that the processing plant at New Annan has sent products to Britain and that he expected the same results from other plants in Prince Edward Island.

He paid tribute to small development groups who were organizing projects in the province.

He was "not discouraged by a few failures" because "the overall picture is completely rewarding."

"Our deficits, as indicated in the budget, are backed by assets of value; our guaranteed obligations are associated with resources and backing of great strength and security and the province, as a result of our new approach, is experiencing the greatest forward movement in our records."

In conclusion, the Premier called on the people of the province to develop "our opportunity, our industry, our resources, our homes, our people, for greater earning power and prosperity" and to stand together in demanding from Ottawa "our just share of the national economy."

bought the machinery from themselves," said Mr. Matheson. "The money went into another pocket."

Mr. Matheson asked Mr. Rossiter if he had seen a balance sheet showing the assets of the new companies that are locating in the province. Mr. Rossiter said he had and that the balance sheets were at the treasury office. Mr. Matheson said the balance sheets could not be found.

Mr. Matheson maintained that the government is bringing industrial companies into the province that are not putting any of their own money into the plants. He suggested that all records of money paid by the government for industrial development should be brought into the Legislature for examination of all members before the bill under consideration was acted upon.

SIGGESTS SCANDAL

He said he was ashamed of Mr. Rossiter and called him "a disgrace to any government anywhere. Any government that would have you should be ashamed." He went on to say "if the files are not produced, this operation will be the greatest scandal we ever had on Prince Edward Island and the Conservative members are going to be tarred with the same brush."

Dr. Bonnell said "before we go any farther we should have copies of the vouchers tabled. The people's money is involved and if the things we heard here tonight are true, the minister should resign. The members of the House should be shocked to know a minister could do this. His name should be cleared."

Daniel MacDonald (L—1st Prince) said "the information should be tabled. Let's take another 24 hours. Let's clear the skies."

PREMIER EXPLAINS

Premier Walter R. Shaw said "matters of this kind come up in many other Legislatures. Some accounts possibly may look different but after all, when we are trying to entice industry, a certain measure of entertainment is involved." He said the charges are ultimately deducted from "any account we guarantee." He said the records of government show a lot of similar cases. We don't see anything serious. Industries have been established and there is the possibility that more will come to the province. It would be unfortunate if anything was done to discourage these people from coming here."

Mr. Matheson said he is in favor of industry but "once you get them in you don't pay for the shirt on their back." The only way to know the truth is to bring the vouchers in and see who is right. . . If there was an investigation of the things regarding Bathurst Marine I saw in treasury, I'd say goodbye to the Conservative Party."

MYERS BACKS BONNELL

In supporting the motion by Dr. Bonnell that the bill be held up pending the tabling of the vouchers, Mr. Myers said "if there is any suggestion of dishonesty, let's bring it into the open. We have a good government and an honest minister. Let's give him a chance."

Mr. Rossiter said the vouchers he had signed were for costs in connection with construction. "I miss have," he said. "If I may not have, made some errors but I am not ashamed for signing any of the vouchers. This is the way it has been done and the government thinks it's the right way. The industries we have agreements with are responsible for the money."

DECLARED HOLIDAY

The first day of spring is a national holiday in Japan.

Jamboree Plans Said Progressing

Indications show that every troop in the Province will be in attendance at the 2nd Prince Edward Island Jamboree to be held at Camp Buchan June 27 to July 2. Planning for the event is nearly complete.

The Jamboree will be one of the scouting events of the year. The program calls for patrol site competitions, swimming, obstacle courses, nature trails, special displays in addition to the fun and fellowship of camping with from 400 to 500 other scouts.

cedure on voting was, for a councillor who stood to make some money on a motion passed by the Council. The City Record-er K.M. Martin informed Coun. MacDonald that as long as the Councillor in question had no direct connection with the dealings, that is if a company carrion out the transaction, the councillor wouldn't be penalized. When asked by Coun. MacRae to whom he was referring, Coun. MacDonald stated that his question was a hypothetical one.

Coun. Nicholson moved his amendment when he learned that the inclusion of the area North of Kirkwood Drive was contrary to recommendations made by town planner Walter DeSilva for that area. Coun. Nicholson felt that "Mr. DeSilva is a good professional planner, his plan could quite easily be called the best and most desirable for Charlottetown. I predict that if Coun. Cox's proposal goes through Mailpeque Road will be an extension of Elm Ave. If we adopt this (Coun. Cox's) plan for the area South of Kirkwood Drive, we will be in keeping with a plan made by a man who knew what he was doing."

With this Coun. Nicholson moved his amendment to the original motion. Councillors Nicholson, Gillis, Zakem, and Corrigan voted for the amendment. MacDonald voted against it and Councillors, Cox, Gormley and Councillors Hyndman and MacRae abstained.

Coun. Hyndman stated "I think that we are going too fast". To this Coun. Cox replied "We've been waiting for three years already, and you think that we're going too fast".

CITIZENS SPEAK

There were a number of citizens in the gallery and when asked to express any opinions that they might have, John (Jack) Hennessey of Kirkwood Drive entered into a heated discussion with Coun. MacDonald on what portion of Ward Six he represents, and Mrs. J. C. Sinnott expressed the hope that the matter would be resolved soon, so people contemplating building in the area will know which section is zoned for commercial use.

The amended motion passed with Councillors Hyndman and MacRae again abstaining, and Councillors Cox, Nicholson, Zakem, Gillis, Corrigan and Gormley supporting, and with Coun. MacDonald the motion's sole opposition.

Blowing Snow Fills Cuttings

SUMMERSIDE—Winds of 30 to 35 miles per hour, gusting to 45 were causing heavy drifting in this Prince County area last night and as a result visibility on highways was extremely poor, especially in the cuttings.

The winds originated from a storm situated some 200 miles south-southeast of P.E.I. which was producing gale-like winds of 50 knots in this marine area.

Some snow flurries are expected overnight but a ridge of high which is spread across the eastern Montreal region is expected to hit the province later today, giving the area warmer weather.

Overnight low was expected to be in the vicinity of 25 above with a high of 32 predicted for today.

The low temperature last night was also creating icy and hazardous driving conditions.
